

ENRICHMENT'S DECK OKAY IS PREDICTED

Ike's Subjugation Resolution Praised By Congressmen

WASHINGTON (AP)—Quick congressional approval was forecast today for President Eisenhower's resolution of Russia's mass "subjugation of free peoples" and perversion of World War II agreements.

A resolution, sponsored by Eisenhower and availed on Capitol Hill since he promised it in his Feb. 2 State of the Union message, was made public yesterday by the President.

It rejects the Soviet Union's interpretation of the understandings—presumably those made at Yalta—for a license for the subjugation of free peoples. It proclaims a hope for ultimate self-government behind the Iron Curtain in line with the pledge of the Atlantic Charter.

The resolution was not as strong as some Republicans had wanted, but few seemed inclined to challenge the President on the issue. Most Democrats were ready to go along with it, too. It did not criticize the administration of Democrats Franklin D. Roosevelt or Harry S. Truman, nor did it repudiate agreements made at Yalta or elsewhere during those administrations.

Democrats chinked privately, too, and the Resolution was seen as acceptance of the principles of the Atlantic Charter, authored by Roosevelt with British Prime Minister Winston Churchill.

The Atlantic Charter, actually a joint declaration of the two leaders, was composed of notes they agreed upon aboard ship in the Atlantic Ocean in August, 1941.

They recognized, among other things, the rights of all peoples to choose their own governments and to live in peace and security. The charter was never drafted as a formal document, and had no legal force, although it caught on as a declaration of the west's principles.

The Eisenhower resolution asserts that the Soviet violated "the intent" of the charter. It subjects whole nations to "totalitarian repression."

"I say the people of the United States will never countenance such enslavement and calls Congress to join in condemning such interference to join in."

The state's House of Representatives gave its approval yesterday to a bill creating the streamlined legal expression.

All that now remains to make the breath-taking term legal is OK by the Senate and governor.

COUNTERFEITING CHARGED
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Secret Service announced the arrest today of two men charged with counterfeit money. The men were identified as Martin Stacey, 47, of Orono Hill, Md., and Mary Watson, 55, of Washington.

COLD AND UNHAPPY

Alabama Woman Killed By Tornado

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Democratic members of the Senate Appropriations Committee said today they will help cut government spending but doubt the Republicans can balance the budget.

Senators Maybank (D-SC) and Robertson (D-VA) said in separate interviews they are just as anxious as their GOP colleagues to whittle the $78,600,000,000 in outlays for President Truman's fiscal year beginning July 1.

However, Robertson said: "I think we ought to have a spending bill that balances receipts, but I don't think Congress will reach that goal even though we approach it."

Maybank said Republicans can count on his vote to stop appropriations for the military. "The military requests will have to be slashed about 10 percent to make any reduction that will come close to balancing the budget," he said.

"I don't know what the attitude of the administration will be when it comes to reducing the military," Maybank predicted. The Senate committee will vote a sharp knife on foreign aid funds, possibly replacing some money already appropriated for that purpose.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Two Senators Doubt Budget To Be Balanced

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Democratic members of the Senate Appropriations Committee said today they will help cut government spending but doubt the Republicans can balance the budget.

Senators Maybank (D-SC) and Robertson (D-VA) said in separate interviews they are just as anxious as their GOP colleagues to whittle the $78,600,000,000 in outlays for President Truman's fiscal year beginning July 1.

However, Robertson said: "I think we ought to have a spending bill that balances receipts, but I don't think Congress will reach that goal even though we approach it."

Maybank said Republicans can count on his vote to stop appropriations for the military. "The military requests will have to be slashed about 10 percent to make any reduction that will come close to balancing the budget," he said.

"I don't know what the attitude of the administration will be when it comes to reducing the military," Maybank predicted. The Senate committee will vote a sharp knife on foreign aid funds, possibly replacing some money already appropriated for that purpose.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Alabama Woman Killed By Tornado

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Democratic members of the Senate Appropriations Committee said today they will help cut government spending but doubt the Republicans can balance the budget.

Senators Maybank (D-SC) and Robertson (D-VA) said in separate interviews they are just as anxious as their GOP colleagues to whittle the $78,600,000,000 in outlays for President Truman's fiscal year beginning July 1.

However, Robertson said: "I think we ought to have a spending bill that balances receipts, but I don't think Congress will reach that goal even though we approach it."

Maybank said Republicans can count on his vote to stop appropriations for the military. "The military requests will have to be slashed about 10 percent to make any reduction that will come close to balancing the budget," he said.

"I don't know what the attitude of the administration will be when it comes to reducing the military," Maybank predicted. The Senate committee will vote a sharp knife on foreign aid funds, possibly replacing some money already appropriated for that purpose.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Alabama Woman Killed By Tornado

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Democratic members of the Senate Appropriations Committee said today they will help cut government spending but doubt the Republicans can balance the budget.

Senators Maybank (D-SC) and Robertson (D-VA) said in separate interviews they are just as anxious as their GOP colleagues to whittle the $78,600,000,000 in outlays for President Truman's fiscal year beginning July 1.

However, Robertson said: "I think we ought to have a spending bill that balances receipts, but I don't think Congress will reach that goal even though we approach it."

Maybank said Republicans can count on his vote to stop appropriations for the military. "The military requests will have to be slashed about 10 percent to make any reduction that will come close to balancing the budget," he said.

"I don't know what the attitude of the administration will be when it comes to reducing the military," Maybank predicted. The Senate committee will vote a sharp knife on foreign aid funds, possibly replacing some money already appropriated for that purpose.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Alabama Woman Killed By Tornado

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Democratic members of the Senate Appropriations Committee said today they will help cut government spending but doubt the Republicans can balance the budget.

Senators Maybank (D-SC) and Robertson (D-VA) said in separate interviews they are just as anxious as their GOP colleagues to whittle the $78,600,000,000 in outlays for President Truman's fiscal year beginning July 1.

However, Robertson said: "I think we ought to have a spending bill that balances receipts, but I don't think Congress will reach that goal even though we approach it."

Maybank said Republicans can count on his vote to stop appropriations for the military. "The military requests will have to be slashed about 10 percent to make any reduction that will come close to balancing the budget," he said.

"I don't know what the attitude of the administration will be when it comes to reducing the military," Maybank predicted. The Senate committee will vote a sharp knife on foreign aid funds, possibly replacing some money already appropriated for that purpose.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Sen. Taft Defends Red Hunt Practice

CHICAGO (AP)—Senate Republican Leader Robert A. Taft said today he would not favor dismantling a Communist professor unless he was sure the professor was a Communist.

Taft, however, spoke up for the right of Congress to conduct investigations into Communist infiltration of such fields as teaching, publishing and entertainment.

"I see no reason why Congressional committees or others should not bring to the attention of the public the fact that men are Communists if they are Communists," he said.

In a talk prepared for the National Citizens Association meeting, Taft said he was not a free system.

Taft spoke on freedom in various aspects of American life. He said price and wage controls, though perhaps justifiable in wartime, are no part of a free system.

Taft called "big government" a threat to freedom, saying the federal government now is spending 25 percent of the national income and state and local governments 18 or 20 percent more. He commented:

"Frankly, I do not believe that we can impose on the people a burden of total government in excess of about 25 percent of the people's income, if we really desire to conserve a free economy."

On proposals for extension of welfare, health, housing and similar services by government, Taft said he sympathized with federal assistance to poorer communities, based on need of individuals, but added:

"It seems most unwise to use federal funds to extend the action of government into welfare services for which the great bulk of the people are able to pay on a business basis."

Sen. Taft Defends Red Hunt Practice

CHICAGO (AP)—Senate Republican Leader Robert A. Taft said today he would not favor dismantling a Communist professor unless he was sure the professor was a Communist.

Taft, however, spoke up for the right of Congress to conduct investigations into Communist infiltration of such fields as teaching, publishing and entertainment.

"I see no reason why Congressional committees or others should not bring to the attention of the public the fact that men are Communists if they are Communists," he said.

In a talk prepared for the National Citizens Association meeting, Taft said he was not a free system.

Taft spoke on freedom in various aspects of American life. He said price and wage controls, though perhaps justifiable in wartime, are no part of a free system.

Taft called "big government" a threat to freedom, saying the federal government now is spending 25 percent of the national income and state and local governments 18 or 20 percent more. He commented:

"Frankly, I do not believe that we can impose on the people a burden of total government in excess of about 25 percent of the people's income, if we really desire to conserve a free economy."

On proposals for extension of welfare, health, housing and similar services by government, Taft said he sympathized with federal assistance to poorer communities, based on need of individuals, but added:

"It seems most unwise to use federal funds to extend the action of government into welfare services for which the great bulk of the people are able to pay on a business basis."

Alabama Woman Killed By Tornado

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Democratic members of the Senate Appropriations Committee said today they will help cut government spending but doubt the Republicans can balance the budget.

Senators Maybank (D-SC) and Robertson (D-VA) said in separate interviews they are just as anxious as their GOP colleagues to whittle the $78,600,000,000 in outlays for President Truman's fiscal year beginning July 1.

However, Robertson said: "I think we ought to have a spending bill that balances receipts, but I don't think Congress will reach that goal even though we approach it."

Maybank said Republicans can count on his vote to stop appropriations for the military. "The military requests will have to be slashed about 10 percent to make any reduction that will come close to balancing the budget," he said.

"I don't know what the attitude of the administration will be when it comes to reducing the military," Maybank predicted. The Senate committee will vote a sharp knife on foreign aid funds, possibly replacing some money already appropriated for that purpose.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Alabama Woman Killed By Tornado

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Democratic members of the Senate Appropriations Committee said today they will help cut government spending but doubt the Republicans can balance the budget.

Senators Maybank (D-SC) and Robertson (D-VA) said in separate interviews they are just as anxious as their GOP colleagues to whittle the $78,600,000,000 in outlays for President Truman's fiscal year beginning July 1.

However, Robertson said: "I think we ought to have a spending bill that balances receipts, but I don't think Congress will reach that goal even though we approach it."

Maybank said Republicans can count on his vote to stop appropriations for the military. "The military requests will have to be slashed about 10 percent to make any reduction that will come close to balancing the budget," he said.

"I don't know what the attitude of the administration will be when it comes to reducing the military," Maybank predicted. The Senate committee will vote a sharp knife on foreign aid funds, possibly replacing some money already appropriated for that purpose.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Alabama Woman Killed By Tornado

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Democratic members of the Senate Appropriations Committee said today they will help cut government spending but doubt the Republicans can balance the budget.

Senators Maybank (D-SC) and Robertson (D-VA) said in separate interviews they are just as anxious as their GOP colleagues to whittle the $78,600,000,000 in outlays for President Truman's fiscal year beginning July 1.

However, Robertson said: "I think we ought to have a spending bill that balances receipts, but I don't think Congress will reach that goal even though we approach it."

Maybank said Republicans can count on his vote to stop appropriations for the military. "The military requests will have to be slashed about 10 percent to make any reduction that will come close to balancing the budget," he said.

"I don't know what the attitude of the administration will be when it comes to reducing the military," Maybank predicted. The Senate committee will vote a sharp knife on foreign aid funds, possibly replacing some money already appropriated for that purpose.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Truman asked for $7,861,000,000 in new appropriations for foreign assistance. But Maybank said the Mutual Security Administration, now headed by Harold E. Stassen, "will be lucky if they get out four billion."

Several senators said the committee was less than enthusiastic about the agency's foreign aid plans, as outlined to the committee by Stassen recently.

Denitis Kills Girl And Self

WASHINGTON (AP)—A dentist, 32, shot and killed his wife, a 23-year-old girl, and himself today in a double suicide.

Virginia L. Whaley was shot through the heart as she left her apartment building to begin a trip to Roxboro, N. C.

William Chandler, 32, a recently discharged service man, was wounded in the head and back.

Dr. Vernon B. Marquardt, 43, the dentist of suburban Spring Spring, Tenn., who came here for a marksmanship contest, died from what police said was a self-inflicted bullet wound in the head.

Police said the shooting, at A. M., came six hours after Miss Whaley turned down Dr. Marquardt's proposal of marriage.

Police Capt. Richard Felber, head of the homicide squad, said the dentist, who came here for a marksmanship contest, died from what police said was a self-inflicted bullet wound in the head.

Denitis Kills Girl And Self

WASHINGTON (AP)—A dentist, 32, shot and killed his wife, a 23-year-old girl, and himself today in a double suicide.

Virginia L. Whaley was shot through the heart as she left her apartment building to begin a trip to Roxboro, N. C.

William Chandler, 32, a recently discharged service man, was wounded in the head and back.

Dr. Vernon B. Marquardt, 43, the dentist of suburban Spring Spring, Tenn., who came here for a marksmanship contest, died from what police said was a self-inflicted bullet wound in the head.

Police said the shooting, at A. M., came six hours after Miss Whaley turned down Dr. Marquardt's proposal of marriage.

Police Capt. Richard Felber, head of the homicide squad, said the dentist, who came here for a marksmanship contest, died from what police said was a self-inflicted bullet wound in the head.

Denitis Kills Girl And Self

WASHINGTON (AP)—A dentist, 32, shot and killed his wife, a 23-year-old girl, and himself today in a double suicide.

Virginia L. Whaley was shot through the heart as she left her apartment building to begin a trip to Roxboro, N. C.

William Chandler, 32, a recently discharged service man, was wounded in the head and back.

Dr. Vernon B. Marquardt, 43, the dentist of suburban Spring Spring, Tenn., who came here for a marksmanship contest, died from what police said was a self-inflicted bullet wound in the head.

Police said the shooting, at A. M., came six hours after Miss Whaley turned down Dr. Marquardt's proposal of marriage.

Police Capt. Richard Felber, head of the homicide squad, said the dentist, who came here for a marksmanship contest, died from what police said was a self-inflicted bullet wound in the head.

Denitis Kills Girl And Self

WASHINGTON (AP)—A dentist, 32, shot and killed his wife, a 23-year-old girl, and himself today in a double suicide.

Virginia L. Whaley was shot through the heart as she left her apartment building to begin a trip to Roxboro, N. C.

William Chandler, 32, a recently discharged service man, was wounded in the head and back.

Dr. Vernon B. Marquardt, 43,