Bandit With False Nose Holds Up Service Station

By HARRY SHUFORD Charlotte News Staff Writer A really dandy man wearing a gaily-type false nose held up a Service Distributing Co., 3540 South Blvd., early this morning at gunpoint. The bandit worked at gunpoint for 25 minutes before escaping, leaving the night attendant unharmed.

Then A. Penegar, 1115 Park Ave., the night attendant, called police about 3:15 this morning to report the holdup. When officers arrived he told them that at about 3 A. M. a man wearing glasses entered the station and called to him "Hey, Pop, where is the toilet?"

EVENING PRAYER

Almighty God, who didst still the tempest, guide our nation's leaders that amid the storm of world disorder we might be led into a calm of peace. Speak Thy word to our minds and hearts, O Lord, that we may know that peace which passeth understanding. For Christ's sake. Amen.
