Investigated Judge?

Worked For Lewis, Grunewald Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Henry W. Grunewald, 60-year-old "mystery man," told a House committee today he was hired for an investigation job by John L. Lewis at a time when Lewis and his United Mine Workers' fight of contempt charges in Federal Court.

Grunewald refused to answer when asked if his investigation was directed at District Judge T. Alan Goldsboro, who later fined Lewis $10,000 and the UMW $1.7 million dollars for disobeying a court back-to-work order. The fine later was reduced to $700,000 by the Supreme Court.

Rep. Boggs (D-La.) asked Grunewald, "After you completed your investigation of Judge Goldsboro, you were paid a fee of $1,000, is that right?" "Of course, I don't know," Grunewald replied. He refused to list the amount of his fee but said he received more than $1,000.

"Grunewald, sometimes known as 'The Silent Dutchman,'" he was introduced to members of the Senate by Sen. Styles Bridges (R-N.H.), now president pro tempore of the Senate in a meeting in the Washington Hotel here.

The gravely-voiced witness said Bridges told Mayberry that if you have any investigative work to do, I recommend Henry to you."

Final Details Of Swap Arranged By Participants

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN

MUNSAN, Korea (AP)—Allied soldiers today rehearsed a swap rehearsal covering every detail of the exchange of sick and wounded Korean War prisoners, which begins next Monday.

United Nations and Communist staff officers earlier today settled details of a dramatic exchange agreement was signed Saturday in a ceremony at Panmunjom.

At the signing the Reds submitted their latest request for renewed full-scale armistice talks, broken off by a dramatic exchange agreement was signed Saturday in a ceremony at Panmunjom.

Peiping radio announced the first convoy of sick and wounded Allied prisoners would start for the exchange site today. The 23 North Vietnamese will arrive at Kaesong Thursday and return there four days before the actual swap begins.

The U. N. pressed for an earlier start but the Soviet Union, which is U. S. Marines, British and South Korean troops played the part of sick and wounded prisoners as well as the actual swap.

Lt. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Eighth Army commander here, headed the group of high officers who witnessed the drill five miles south of Panmunjom.

The village earlier, the Communists handed over a further breakdown of nationalities of the exchange POWs they said they would exchange.

The Reds said a group of 15 not previously identified include Greeks, the Netherlands, the Philippines, South Africa, Australia and Colombia.

The Reds previously announced the prisoners they would return included 100 American, 20 British, 200 Chinese and 30 British soldiers.

The Allies will return 3,800 sick and wounded—5,100 North Koreans and 1,300 Chinese.

Today's dress rehearsal included both the giving and the taking of prisoners. The first stage was the removal of delivery of Red prisoners. The second was the receiving of Allied POWs and moving them to the Munjan medical treatment and processing.

The swap was held along nine miles of the 14-mile route from Munsan to the Panmunjom exchange site.

RUSSIAN FARM CHILDREN POSE FOR VISITORS

Russians Employ Assembly-Line Technique From Candy To Trucks

(Editor's Note: This is the third in a series of stories by Miss Rebecca F. Gross relating her observations of a week's visit to the Soviet Union. Miss Gross was in Los Angeles in an interview with the Los Angeles Times during their week's visit to Russia.)

The factory got its name from the fact that some of its workers had taken part in the original 1917 revolution. The buildings, he said, are 80 years old but the equipment has been changed entirely.

The Krubshaker makes 10 types of white bread, according to its chief engineer, Shmagin, who said a daily production of 250 tons delivered by truck to 250 stores in Moscow.

The Moskvich is the smallest and cheapest car, selling for 9,300 rubles—up to a year's pay for an average worker in an industrial area. The Pobeda costs about 16,000 rubles.

The Russian government pegs ruble prices at four to the dollar and is strictly an arbitrary rate without meaning, since the ruble is not traded in any free market.

The Stalin automobile factory, West's largest automotive plant in the Soviet Union, we talked with Anatoly, an office manager, and saw pictures of Lenin, Stalin and Molotov.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. Security Council today expressed its deep satisfaction over the "cessation and repudiation of anti-Jewish propaganda" in Russia and elsewhere.

The best way to avoid any recurrence of such incidents, the council said, would be for Eastern European countries to permit a "right to free expression of opinion" to their Jews including the right to Israel.

Mrs. Myerson spoke at the Communist Political Committee, Israeli Labor Minister Golda Myerson lauded last week's Russian and Czech charges of a Jewish-led conspiracy "evil nonsense."

She was followed closely by Mrs. John Eisenhower, wife of the President's third grandchild, David, 5, and Barbara, 4, who said the Kremlin had cried wolf for too long.

The U. N. hopes to wind up a spring session late this week, and Western delegates were emphasizing the need for unity against Soviet divisive tactics.

GOP Group Not Satisfied With Changes

Too Many Chosen Holdover

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Mundt (R-S.D.) said today a group of Republican senators will insist on a reshaping shakedown of top-level policy-making officials in the State Department.

"It's not a question of loyalty or security," Mundt said in an interview. "We promised a change in the last campaign but an alarming number of the old Acheson team still hold most of the top posts."

Mundt said the demand will have the support of Senators Bridges (R-N.H.), McCarthy (R-Wis.), Ferguson (R-Mich.) and other members of the State Appropriations Committee.

SHOWDOWN LOOMS A face-to-face showdown on this issue may come when Secretary of State Dulles appears before the committee to support the State Department's request for millions of dollars in funds.

In testimony before a House appropriations subcommittee March 10, Mundt said the government's official car, similar to the American Packard, its name means simply, the Factory Named after Molotov produces the ZIM.

Chairman Bridges indicated the Senate subcommittee's hearings on State Department appropriations may not begin until later in the month.

Mundt said he and other senators would have been studying telephone bills in the State Department.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Assembly lines at the Ford Motor Co.'s 18 Ford, Mercury and Lincoln plants across the country were closed today because of a strike of 2,200 workers in a Monroe, Mich., plant.

The closing halted 47,000 of Ford's 130,000 production workers, and a Ford spokesman said that the total could easily reach 75,000 as more of our plants shut out of parts.

Workers walked out at Monroe April 1, charging a speedup. Company officials denied the charges. Negotiations have failed to break the deadlock, but will be resumed today.

The Monroe plant makes wheels, coil springs and chrome parts. Of the 47,000 laid off, 11,000 were Ford's glass Rouge plant here. It normally employs 65,000.

Another 3,000 were laid off at the Detroit Road plant and 165 at the tractor plant in Highland Park.

A company spokesman said all available sources of supplies are being tapped in an effort to keep production lines operating as long as possible at plants which still are operating.
