DIM OUTLOOK FOR BUDGET FRETS GOP

Secretary Humphrey Sees No Chance Of Balancing Book

WASHINGTON (AP)—Many Republicans expressed dismay today at the Secretary of the Treasury's statement that the budget can not be balanced next year and that the 275 billion dollar deficit on the national debt may have to be raised.

"Gentlemen, that's a damned unpleasant subject," said Sen. James A. Van Fleet, Republican senator who had "heard rumors" Humphrey's Treasury Department was drafting a tax message to Congress, but he said he did not know what was in it.

STILL HOPEFUL

Rep. Taber (R-N.Y.), chairman of the House Appropriations Committee and long a leader in budget-cutting drives, said he still has hopes the budget can be balanced in the year starting July 1.

"I believe we can convince them (administration officials) it will be better," Taber said.

House Speaker Joseph Martin (R-Mass) said he does not believe "there is anything to be gained by raising it. He said the fiscal picture "will appear brighter" after Congress has passed on all appropriations.

Chairman Bridges (R-NH) of the Senate Appropriations Committee said he has not heard of a balanced budget in the next fiscal year.

Humphrey made his statement to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, considering the foreign aid bill for the fiscal year. It followed by a few days President Eisenhower's remark that a review of the budget could not be balanced with out.

GOES FURTHER

The Treasury secretary went further, he was quoted as saying at the closed hearing that the budget should not be balanced because it would mean cutting the national security. He said more than two-thirds of the budget is for security and about 10 percent is fixed and can not be cut.

Thus he upped by 10 percent the total amount of the national debt limit of $275 billion. The debt now stands at $253 1/2 billion a year ago.

Some bleak prospects appeared for the administration in the wake of Humphrey's words.

In the first place, the Treasury revealed that revenues now are falling under previous forecasts and the trend continues in the budget-balancing job—staked out by the would be even though.

TRUMAN PREDICTION

Former President Truman predicted a $9,000,000,000 deficit for 1954. Eisenhower said cuts had been made in the spending program but he did not give any new deficit estimate. Some lawmakers who had conferred with him placed it at about $4 billion dollars.

Secondly, many Republicans felt it would be politically unwise to raise the excess profits tax due June 30, as scheduled, and do nothing to relieve individual taxpayers at the time. Under the 1952 tax increase law, individual income tax rates are due to drop 10 per cent on Dec. 31.

Saber Jets Bomb Communist Targets

BY MILO FARNETTI

SEOUL (AP)—U. S. Sabre jets in their new role of fighter-bomber streaked across Western Korea in record numbers today, blasting two lush Red supply targets, while other Sabres shot down two Communist MIGs.

Seventy-two Sabres, flying in two waves, destroyed 5 buildings in a troop concentration area not far from Panmunjom and dumped 75 tons of explosives on a supply center and road at Sarwon, the Air Force said.

The new Sabre fighter-bombers of the 18th Wing flew 108 sorties during the day, a record since the wing abandoned its slower Shooting Star jets.

The bombing attacks followed by a few hours low-level sky battles deep in Northwest Korea MIGs flying to earth.

The Sabres were guarding F-8 Thunderjet fighter-bombers which attacked Communist and ammunition dumps at Kuop, about 15 miles southeast of the Yalu River border city of Simu. The Air Force said 13 buildings were destroyed.

Sabre pilots used dive bombing tactics in smashing the two Communist supply areas.

Capt. Robert H. Heath of North Carolina, U. S. flight commander of the Sarwon raid, reported: "It was the best bombing I've seen so far. When I turned and looked back, I could see every bomb going right into the target.

When we left, flames were 1000 feet high and smoke was going up to 5,000, so we couldn't tell how much damage we did."

The two MIGs were shot down in a clash between four Sabres and 16 MIGs. Credit for the kills went to Capt. James K. Johnson of Phoenix, Ariz., and Lt. Samuel J. Reeder of Lyons Falls, N. Y.

Three MIGs were damaged Friday as the Red fighters ventured south of the Yalu for the first time in eight days.

In his weekly summary issued today the Air Force said no Sabres were lost during the week ending Friday. Two Thunderjets were lost to other causes, probably engine trouble, the Air Force said.

Correcting an earlier figure, the Air Force said Sabres have shot down 63 MIGs since the war began, while 55 Sabres have been lost—almost a 12 to 1 margin.

While 82 Red planes, including MIGs, have been destroyed while 929 planes of the Fifth Air Force and Marine shore-based wings have been lost, the Air Force said. The U. N. loss total does not include Navy carrier-based planes.

Thirty U. S. B-29 Superfortes Friday night dropped 130 tons of bombs on a trio of Red supply centers in North Korea, leaving fires visible for nearly 50 miles in their wake. Two of the targets were near Samli on the West Coast. The other was near the northeast port of Hungnam.

Only skirmishes were reported along the quiet front.

IKE GOLFS, HEADS FOR TROUT STREAM

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP)—President Eisenhower and his youngest brother, Dr. Milton Eisenhower, got in 15 holes of golf today and then headed for a well-stocked trout stream.

The President and the First Lady arrived here by special train from Washington at 6:18 A. M. EST, for a weekend of quiet relaxation.

They were guests at the campus home of Eisenhower's brother, who is president of Pennsylvania State College.

There was no immediate word on the golf scores. The match was played at Centre Hill Country Club, about two miles outside of town.

After the match the President and his brother set off almost immediately for a trout stream, fourteen miles west of here.

German-Czech Red Army Reported Set

BERLIN (AP)—West German sources reported today that Red-ruled East Germany and Czechoslovakia have signed an agreement to organize a joint million-man army by this time next year.

Details of the reported agreement were disclosed by the publication "Archiv," which extracts considerable information from anti-Communist sources in the Soviet-controlled East Zone of Germany.

The West German government Ministry for All-German Affairs regarded the report so important that it Berlin bureau issued copies in its own name.

Archiv said the agreement was reached March 14 in Karlovy Vary, Czechoslovakia, by Will Stop, East German interior minister, Gen. Vincent Mueller, a former Nazi who is now chief of staff of the East German Army, and three unnamed representatives of the Czech government. The publication said a Soviet Marshal Gonorov also was present.

The U. S. High Commission newspaper in Berlin, Neue Zeitung, reported March 22 that East Germany and Czechoslovakia had agreed to a system of exchanging military information and training that had been worked out in Czechoslovakia by Soviet Marshal Leonid A. Gonorov, commander of Russia's Leningrad front during World War II.

Discusses Proposals Before Leaving U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said today the United States and the U. N. Allies have reached general agreement that several points of new Communist Korean peace proposals need to be clarified and perhaps modified.

Dulles told a news conference that the Communist proposals were discussed Thursday at a White House conference and again by President Eisenhower and himself at luncheon yesterday. He declined to specify what points were objected to.

The proposals, he said, leave a number of points in an unsatisfactory condition and unless they are changed there will have to be further consultations at Panmunjom.

He said the general agreement now needs only some clarification and perhaps modification. It was reached by envoys here in the Korean taking an active part in the Korean fighting. Such meetings are held periodically at the State Department to take up Korean developments.

Dulles told of the developments in advance of leaving tonight with Mutual Security Director Harold E. Stassen for a tour of the Middle East and South Asia.

Dulles said there was nothing new in the Communist nomination of Czechoslovakia, Poland, Sweden and Switzerland to a commission to supervise repatriation of the war prisoners. He noted that the U. N. resolution of last October specifically named these four to serve as neutrals.

An eight-point proposal added today to the 48-99-200 prisoners who refuse to return to communism.

"How would decisions be reached? Majority vote? Is there a veto?" Harrison asked. Communist negotiators.

PROPOSE COMMISSION

The Reds, in their sweeping, eight-point proposal to settle the prisoner deadlock—the last major bid to a Korean armistice, proposed that the commission consist of Poland, Czechoslovakia, Sweden, India and Switzerland.

"These two instances illustrate a pattern for decision and performance and of cooperative teamwork between the Departments of State and Defense which should, I believe, be gratifying to the American people," the secretary said. "Also they should be impressive to others, whether they be friends or aggressors."

In connection with the latest Indochina aid, Dulles declared that transport planes which were hurriedly flown to Hanoi were piloted by American civilian fliers who were commercially employed in the Far East. He told questions that the French Government had asked in connection with the States Government has no responsibility for them.

The U. S., Dulles said, is not in a position to evaluate the meaning of the recent reported withdrawal of invading Communist forces from Laos.

Harrison asked if the new proposal was "any more than an agreement to defer the final position of the prisoner of war question until some later date?"

"Will you indicate how the current proposal differs from the previous ones?"

Harrison also asked how the commission would supervise POWs and how language would be used by the commission.

MEETING ADJOURNED

The meeting adjourned about 11:30 p. m. EST Saturday) after the Reds asked for a recess.
