

ON THE INSIDE

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes Classified, 30 Minutes, 45 Minutes, 1 Hour, 1 1/2 Hours, 2 Hours, 3 Hours, 4 Hours, 5 Hours, 6 Hours, 7 Hours, 8 Hours, 9 Hours, 10 Hours, 11 Hours, 12 Hours.

ESTABLISHED DEC. 8, 1888

Largest Afternoon Newspaper in The Carolinas

Charlotte, North Carolina, Tuesday, June 2, 1953

22 Pages—Price Five Cents

Retreats From Earlier Stand On Truce Terms

3-Point Message Received From Ike

SEOUL—(AP)—President Syngman Rhee disclosed today that he had received a three-point message from President Eisenhower, and added: "We must accept anything that the U. S. President wants."

"Common sense and wisdom require that we co-operate with the U. S. at any cost," Rhee said, without saying what Eisenhower had told him.

The 78-year-old Republic of Korea leader's statement indicated that South Korean opposition to the secret U. N. command proposal for bringing an armistice in Korea is waning.

Rhee also said he is looking for some one to take the place of Maj. Gen. Chui Duk Shin as the South Korean delegate on the U. N. armistice negotiation team.

Rhee declined to elaborate on his apparently conciliatory statement. He spoke to correspondents at a parade of the British Commonwealth Division honoring the coronation of Elizabeth II.

Nor did he make it precisely clear whether he is ready now to accept the Allied truce proposal, to which he and his government had expressed vigorous opposition.

South Korea's prime minister Monday had threatened a break with the Allies and a go-alone policy for South Korea but deferred action until after Thursday's critical truce session.

The Communists are expected to reply to the Allied proposal at Thursday's meeting.

The 78-year-old leader's statement came on the heels of a report from Washington that he had proposed to Eisenhower a mutual defense pact plus substantial U. S. financial and military aid as South Korea's price for accepting Allied truce terms.

Washington reports said Rhee called on Eisenhower to agree to these four points:

1. Sign a mutual defense pact with South Korea guaranteeing the U. S. aid South Korea has asked.

Westminster Abbey Coronation Ceremony Depicted

These pictures, taken from the film "Coronation Ceremony," depict what occurred at today's coronation of Queen Elizabeth II at Westminster Abbey in London.

Top left, the Archbishop of Canterbury raises the crown while praying for God's blessing on the Queen.

Lower left, the archbishop places the crown on the Queen's head, center view is of the new sovereign.

Top right, the archbishop and bishops kneel to pledge allegiance.

Bottom right, the queen awaits the approach of the chiefs of her people who swear to her oath of allegiance.

7,500 Crowd Abbey Solemnity Marks Coronation

By ALVIN STEINKOPF, LONDON (AP)—To a fanfare of trumpets, Queen Elizabeth II entered Westminster Abbey today in a scarlet robe, its long train carried by six maids of honor in white.

The 27-year-old queen had come to receive her crown and her throne, to be anointed as servant of God and consecrated in the service of her peoples.

There was a short clamor of young voices, made by the queen's scholars of Westminster school, as they chanted "Vivat! Vivat! Vivat!"

"Vivat Regina Elizabetha," they shouted. "Vivat! Vivat! Vivat!"

The phrase, meaning Long live Queen Elizabeth, was the only Latin to be used in the service of more than two hours.

By tradition, the queen's blue eyes were the empty throne, standing on a dais. It was on a golden carpet and its wooden arms were painted gold.

The queen passed it, and passed along historic King Edward's coronation chair, which holds the Stone of Scone.

The queen went to sit in the lesser Chair of State, on the south side of the theater. The maids of honor arranged the scarlet train about her, and placed themselves behind her.

Then the queen knelt at her falstool, a small chair placed in front of her, with a high back to hold a book. She was still for a moment, her head bowed and hands folded, as she said a private prayer.

One measured step after another, she advanced over the golden carpet on the abbey floor the great choir all the while singing a stirring welcome from the 122nd Psalm.

"I was glad when they said unto me, I will go into the house of the Lord."

To reach the level of an area known as the theater, the queen had to ascend a short flight of steps, the graceful maids of honor being careful with her train.

Spyn Execution For June 18 Is Confirmed

NEW YORK (AP)—U. S. Marshal William A. Carroll announced today that the execution of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg will be executed at 10 p. m. (EST) June 18.

Carroll said the date and time were determined after a 75-minute conference between him and Warden Wilfred Denno at Sing Sing prison yesterday.

Carroll issued his announcement in a letter to Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, who had been confined in the cell since June 18 last.

Carroll continued his last direct effort to save the couple from Sing Sing's electric chair.

Federal Judge Irving R. Kaufman, setting an execution date last Friday for the fourth time, ordered sentence to be carried out on June 15.

It was left to the marshal and the warden to set the exact date, on a Thursday—the traditional execution day at Sing Sing.

The U. S. Court of Appeals is considering a defense motion filed yesterday for a stay of execution and for a court order directing Kaufman to change the death sentence to a 20-year prison term.

Kaufman has announced that he plans still further legal moves, including a motion for a new trial on a claim of new evidence.

Kaufman failed in a move before the court yesterday to win a reduction in sentence and a stay of execution. He said he intended to appeal Kaufman's ruling.

SEUL (AP)—More than 4,000 North Korean and Chinese main-line positions and a handful of outposts today exploded in East-West fighting.

American and South Korean infantrymen smashed 10 of the main line attacks, nine on the bloody Eastern Front and one on the Central Front.

Fighting for trench-line positions yesterday in front of Lake Kook's Castle on the Eastern Front, still raged.

Bells, Guns Sound On Joyful Occasion

LONDON—(AP)—Britain crowned Elizabeth II today in a magnificent spectacle of ancient pomp and pageantry, before the wondering eyes of her little son Charles, heir to the throne.

The thunder of guns and the pealing of bells proclaimed to millions swarming in London's streets the formal accession of Elizabeth the Queen, the first coronation of a woman since Victoria, 136 years ago.

Crowds massed 25 to 35 deep along the queen's route from Buckingham Palace to Westminster Abbey, and coming home again. Only 7,500 persons were in the abbey, but millions more could see the 2 1/2 hour ceremony by television, for the first time.

Cries of "God Save the Queen!" blended into a mighty roar from thousands of the queen's mother's purple and golden coach left the abbey for the main coronation procession five miles and more through the center of the old capital.

The 27-year-old queen, who had looked down near the close of the long abbey ritual—and once near tears—flashed her smile. The Duke of Edinburgh was beside her.

There was a deluge of rain as the main procession got under way. The inside of the queen's mother's coach was lit by lightning which glinted on her coronet and jewelry.

Wind-blown rain and brilliant sunshine played with each other as the service of more than a half million who had gathered to cheer the queen stood firm in sites some 400 yards ahead of the queen.

SUN SHINES THROUGH The sun burst through lowering clouds as the queen's mother's coach was lit by lightning which glinted on her coronet and jewelry.

Charles acted likely any bright 4-year-old. Sucking his thumb, he gazed with awe upon the spectacle centering about his mother.

For him to see better, his softly veiling grandmother, Queen Mother Elizabeth, lifted him in her arms, so he could grasp the ledge of the royal galley.

It was left to the marshal and the warden to set the exact date, on a Thursday—the traditional execution day at Sing Sing.

The U. S. Court of Appeals is considering a defense motion filed yesterday for a stay of execution and for a court order directing Kaufman to change the death sentence to a 20-year prison term.

Kaufman has announced that he plans still further legal moves, including a motion for a new trial on a claim of new evidence.

Kaufman failed in a move before the court yesterday to win a reduction in sentence and a stay of execution. He said he intended to appeal Kaufman's ruling.

SEUL (AP)—More than 4,000 North Korean and Chinese main-line positions and a handful of outposts today exploded in East-West fighting.

Retreats From Earlier Stand On Truce Terms

3-Point Message Received From Ike

SEOUL—(AP)—President Syngman Rhee disclosed today that he had received a three-point message from President Eisenhower, and added: "We must accept anything that the U. S. President wants."

"Common sense and wisdom require that we co-operate with the U. S. at any cost," Rhee said, without saying what Eisenhower had told him.

The 78-year-old Republic of Korea leader's statement indicated that South Korean opposition to the secret U. N. command proposal for bringing an armistice in Korea is waning.

Rhee also said he is looking for some one to take the place of Maj. Gen. Chui Duk Shin as the South Korean delegate on the U. N. armistice negotiation team.

Rhee declined to elaborate on his apparently conciliatory statement. He spoke to correspondents at a parade of the British Commonwealth Division honoring the coronation of Elizabeth II.

Nor did he make it precisely clear whether he is ready now to accept the Allied truce proposal, to which he and his government had expressed vigorous opposition.

Washington reports said Rhee called on Eisenhower to agree to these four points:

1. Sign a mutual defense pact with South Korea guaranteeing the U. S. aid South Korea has asked.

Retreats From Earlier Stand On Truce Terms

3-Point Message Received From Ike

SEOUL—(AP)—President Syngman Rhee disclosed today that he had received a three-point message from President Eisenhower, and added: "We must accept anything that the U. S. President wants."

"Common sense and wisdom require that we co-operate with the U. S. at any cost," Rhee said, without saying what Eisenhower had told him.

The 78-year-old Republic of Korea leader's statement indicated that South Korean opposition to the secret U. N. command proposal for bringing an armistice in Korea is waning.

Rhee also said he is looking for some one to take the place of Maj. Gen. Chui Duk Shin as the South Korean delegate on the U. N. armistice negotiation team.

Rhee declined to elaborate on his apparently conciliatory statement. He spoke to correspondents at a parade of the British Commonwealth Division honoring the coronation of Elizabeth II.

Nor did he make it precisely clear whether he is ready now to accept the Allied truce proposal, to which he and his government had expressed vigorous opposition.

Washington reports said Rhee called on Eisenhower to agree to these four points:

1. Sign a mutual defense pact with South Korea guaranteeing the U. S. aid South Korea has asked.

2. Agree to a mutual defense pact with South Korea guaranteeing the U. S. aid South Korea has asked.

Retreats From Earlier Stand On Truce Terms

3-Point Message Received From Ike

SEOUL—(AP)—President Syngman Rhee disclosed today that he had received a three-point message from President Eisenhower, and added: "We must accept anything that the U. S. President wants."

"Common sense and wisdom require that we co-operate with the U. S. at any cost," Rhee said, without saying what Eisenhower had told him.

The 78-year-old Republic of Korea leader's statement indicated that South Korean opposition to the secret U. N. command proposal for bringing an armistice in Korea is waning.

Rhee also said he is looking for some one to take the place of Maj. Gen. Chui Duk Shin as the South Korean delegate on the U. N. armistice negotiation team.

Rhee declined to elaborate on his apparently conciliatory statement. He spoke to correspondents at a parade of the British Commonwealth Division honoring the coronation of Elizabeth II.

Nor did he make it precisely clear whether he is ready now to accept the Allied truce proposal, to which he and his government had expressed vigorous opposition.

Washington reports said Rhee called on Eisenhower to agree to these four points:

1. Sign a mutual defense pact with South Korea guaranteeing the U. S. aid South Korea has asked.

2. Agree to a mutual defense pact with South Korea guaranteeing the U. S. aid South Korea has asked.

Retreats From Earlier Stand On Truce Terms

3-Point Message Received From Ike

SEOUL—(AP)—President Syngman Rhee disclosed today that he had received a three-point message from President Eisenhower, and added: "We must accept anything that the U. S. President wants."

"Common sense and wisdom require that we co-operate with the U. S. at any cost," Rhee said, without saying what Eisenhower had told him.

The 78-year-old Republic of Korea leader's statement indicated that South Korean opposition to the secret U. N. command proposal for bringing an armistice in Korea is waning.

Rhee also said he is looking for some one to take the place of Maj. Gen. Chui Duk Shin as the South Korean delegate on the U. N. armistice negotiation team.

Rhee declined to elaborate on his apparently conciliatory statement. He spoke to correspondents at a parade of the British Commonwealth Division honoring the coronation of Elizabeth II.

Nor did he make it precisely clear whether he is ready now to accept the Allied truce proposal, to which he and his government had expressed vigorous opposition.

Washington reports said Rhee called on Eisenhower to agree to these four points:

1. Sign a mutual defense pact with South Korea guaranteeing the U. S. aid South Korea has asked.

2. Agree to a mutual defense pact with South Korea guaranteeing the U. S. aid South Korea has asked.

Retreats From Earlier Stand On Truce Terms

3-Point Message Received From Ike

SEOUL—(AP)—President Syngman Rhee disclosed today that he had received a three-point message from President Eisenhower, and added: "We must accept anything that the U. S. President wants."

"Common sense and wisdom require that we co-operate with the U. S. at any cost," Rhee said, without saying what Eisenhower had told him.

The 78-year-old Republic of Korea leader's statement indicated that South Korean opposition to the secret U. N. command proposal for bringing an armistice in Korea is waning.

Rhee also said he is looking for some one to take the place of Maj. Gen. Chui Duk Shin as the South Korean delegate on the U. N. armistice negotiation team.

Rhee declined to elaborate on his apparently conciliatory statement. He spoke to correspondents at a parade of the British Commonwealth Division honoring the coronation of Elizabeth II.

Nor did he make it precisely clear whether he is ready now to accept the Allied truce proposal, to which he and his government had expressed vigorous opposition.

Washington reports said Rhee called on Eisenhower to agree to these four points:

1. Sign a mutual defense pact with South Korea guaranteeing the U. S. aid South Korea has asked.

2. Agree to a mutual defense pact with South Korea guaranteeing the U. S. aid South Korea has asked.

Retreats From Earlier Stand On Truce Terms

3-Point Message Received From Ike

SEOUL—(AP)—President Syngman Rhee disclosed today that he had received a three-point message from President Eisenhower, and added: "We must accept anything that the U. S. President wants."

"Common sense and wisdom require that we co-operate with the U. S. at any cost," Rhee said, without saying what Eisenhower had told him.

The 78-year-old Republic of Korea leader's statement indicated that South Korean opposition to the secret U. N. command proposal for bringing an armistice in Korea is waning.

Rhee also said he is looking for some one to take the place of Maj. Gen. Chui Duk Shin as the South Korean delegate on the U. N. armistice negotiation team.

Rhee declined to elaborate on his apparently conciliatory statement. He spoke to correspondents at a parade of the British Commonwealth Division honoring the coronation of Elizabeth II.

Retreats From Earlier Stand On Truce Terms

3-Point Message Received From Ike

SEOUL—(AP)—President Syngman Rhee disclosed today that he had received a three-point message from President Eisenhower, and added: "We must accept anything that the U. S. President wants."

"Common sense and wisdom require that we co-operate with the U. S. at any cost," Rhee said, without saying what Eisenhower had told him.

The 78-year-old Republic of Korea leader's statement indicated that South Korean opposition to the secret U. N. command proposal for bringing an armistice in Korea is waning.

Rhee also said he is looking for some one to take the place of Maj. Gen. Chui Duk Shin as the South Korean delegate on the U. N. armistice negotiation team.

Rhee declined to elaborate on his apparently conciliatory statement. He spoke to correspondents at a parade of the British Commonwealth Division honoring the coronation of Elizabeth II.

Retreats From Earlier Stand On Truce Terms

3-Point Message Received From Ike

SEOUL—(AP)—President Syngman Rhee disclosed today that he had received a three-point message from President Eisenhower, and added: "We must accept anything that the U. S. President wants."

"Common sense and wisdom require that we co-operate with the U. S. at any cost," Rhee said, without saying what Eisenhower had told him.

The 78-year-old Republic of Korea leader's statement indicated that South Korean opposition to the secret U. N. command proposal for bringing an armistice in Korea is waning.

Rhee also said he is looking for some one to take the place of Maj. Gen. Chui Duk Shin as the South Korean delegate on the U. N. armistice negotiation team.

Rhee declined to elaborate on his apparently conciliatory statement. He spoke to correspondents at a parade of the British Commonwealth Division honoring the coronation of Elizabeth II.

Retreats From Earlier Stand On Truce Terms

3-Point Message Received From Ike

SEOUL—(AP)—President Syngman Rhee disclosed today that he had received a three-point message from President Eisenhower, and added: "We must accept anything that the U. S. President wants."

"Common sense and wisdom require that we co-operate with the U. S. at any cost," Rhee said, without saying what Eisenhower had told him.

The 78-year-old Republic of Korea leader's statement indicated that South Korean opposition to the secret U. N. command proposal for bringing an armistice in Korea is waning.

Rhee also said he is looking for some one to take the place of Maj. Gen. Chui Duk Shin as the South Korean delegate on the U. N. armistice negotiation team.

Rhee declined to elaborate on his apparently conciliatory statement. He spoke to correspondents at a parade of the British Commonwealth Division honoring the coronation of Elizabeth II.

Retreats From Earlier Stand On Truce Terms

3-Point Message Received From Ike

SEOUL—(AP)—President Syngman Rhee disclosed today that he had received a three-point message from President Eisenhower, and added: "We must accept anything that the U. S. President wants."

"Common sense and wisdom require that we co-operate with the U. S. at any cost," Rhee said, without saying what Eisenhower had told him.

The 78-year-old Republic of Korea leader's statement indicated that South Korean opposition to the secret U. N. command proposal for bringing an armistice in Korea is waning.

Rhee also said he is looking for some one to take the place of Maj. Gen. Chui Duk Shin as the South Korean delegate on the U. N. armistice negotiation team.

Rhee declined to elaborate on his apparently conciliatory statement. He spoke to correspondents at a parade of the British Commonwealth Division honoring the coronation of Elizabeth II.

Nor did he make it precisely clear whether he is ready now to accept the Allied truce proposal, to which he and his government had expressed vigorous opposition.

Washington reports said Rhee called on Eisenhower to agree to these four points:

1. Sign a mutual defense pact with South Korea guaranteeing the U. S. aid South Korea has asked.

2. Agree to a mutual defense pact with South Korea guaranteeing the U. S. aid South Korea has asked.

OUR WEATHER

Fair and cool today, tonight and Wednesday.

Comic Dictionary

Where it isn't proper to yawn but perfectly proper to make a person feel like yawning.

OUR WEATHER

Fair and cool today, tonight and Wednesday.

OUR WEATHER

Fair and cool today, tonight and Wednesday.

OUR WEATHER

Fair and cool today, tonight and Wednesday.