THE LESSON OF THE KOREAN WAR

A truce is at hand in Korea. The Korean war may be temporary. The South Koreans may try to continue the fight. Aggression may break out again...

One reason a truce is being agreed to is that both Allied and Red negotiators make the substantial concessions. Reunification of Korea will be left to means short of war...

A more important reason for agreement on a truce is that the Communists so wish to stay, finally, as they come to terms with the world...

The West realizes, and with a period of peace in which to consolidate at home. It could be that Red leaders are grasping this opportunity to stop a war of attrition...

Whatever the reason for Communist agreement, it is essential to remember this one fact: There is no indication whatsoever that basic Communist expansionist goals have been dropped.

Korea taught the Communists a lesson. The strength of this ruling, the state have built an elaborate system of public schools...

It is not a secret, it is a fact, that the nations has been sorely strained. The truce should enable them to cement the cracks that have developed in the U. N. alliance.

SUPREME COURT JUGLES A HOT POTATO

The Supreme Court made it clear yesterday that it is taking very seriously indeed the question of the legality of segregated public schools.

In announcing that it had been unable to reach a decision on the controversial question, the Court also called for reargument Oct. 12.

It is always risky to speculate on what the Supreme Court will do, but its orders in opposing counsel indicate that several members of the court, perhaps a majority...

Public education was not a main issue in the passage and ratification of the 14th Amendment. The amendment was submitted along with the 13th and 16th Amendments.

Legislative intent is always a factor in interpreting the wording of any law, but it is not a late date in the courts.

GOOD OLD H2O

John H. Harris, the Tar Heel gardener who writes a chatty column out of State College, opened an article the other day with the observation that the garden.

It means that fewer of North Carolina's timberlands will go up in flames started by a careless camp or smoker.

It means we won't have to water the lawn soon. Even Mecklenburg farmers who had grain down were grinning Sunday. After all, a little bad luck can be accepted cheerfully when the whole countryside greens up.

SAD STATE OF AFFAIRS

WHEN Artie Shaw the bandleader was testifying before the Un-American Activities Committee of the House of Representatives he was asked to give his opinion.

Did members of the committee hasten to assure him that this state of mind was unnecessary and un-American and that it was not the committee's intention to induce any such feelings in an individual?

A Plea For The Victim

There is a bit of irony in the contents of Saturday, June 6 News.

In recent weeks that alliance of free nations has been sorely strained. The truce should enable them to cement the cracks that have developed in the U. N. alliance.

Further delay in a decision on segregation poses a problem for Southern states which, under the court's past rulings, have been working hard to bring facilities for Negroes to an equality with those for whites.

In our opinion, it would be wrong to permit the threat of an adverse ruling to delay the progress of equalization. Whether or not the courts are established, the states are morally and legally obligated to provide equal facilities as rapidly as possible.

NEGRO HOSPITAL NEEDED

WE the people of Charlotte, put our shoulders to the wheel and built the Negro YMCA. Why then should we not all chip in and build one of the finest Negro hospitals in North Carolina?

NEW TREASURY BOSS STRIVING FOR STABLE MONETARY SYSTEM

WASHINGTON (AP)—The new Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey, in applying pressure in an attempt to remedy inflation, has called for a "costly" money plan.

Mr. Humphrey's appointment as Commissioner of Motor Vehicles for North Carolina is a commendation that his new duties will be performed in an excellent manner as with his work while associated with the FBI.
