

1958-Sixty-Fifth Anniversary Year-1958

THOMAS L. ROBINSON... Publisher
J. E. DOWD... General Manager
B. S. GRIMMITY... Executive Editor
C. A. McKNIGHT... Editor

TUESDAY, JULY 14, 1953

ALTON LENNON MUST PROVE HIMSELF

BECAUSE of their confidence in Governor Umstead's judgment and integrity, North Carolinians will be inclined to accept Alton A. Lennon as a worthy appointee to the U. S. Senate from Eastern Carolina.

quiet and calm maturity that showed itself in the low-keyed way he handled the swarms of reporters and photographers who descended upon his office and his household last week-end.

FOOD OFFER—'DEEDS NOT WORDS'

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER'S offer of $15 million in food to the starving people of East Germany was more than a humanitarian act; it was also a most astute bit of propaganda.

But, instead of letting the idea die, the Eisenhower Administration has moved ahead to start the shipment of food overseas.

SAFE DRIVERS GET A BREAK

THERE NOW is, as would be motorists know, a buyers' market in used cars. But the car news that makes us especially happy these days is that there's a buyers' market, finally, in automobile liability insurance.

responsible than a single man, so he gets a lower rate. And, if he drives less than 7,500 miles annually, his rate falls to $145.55.

CAUTION! DON'T GET YOUR FEET UNDER THE BUS! DON'T GET YOUR FEET UNDER THE BUS! DON'T GET YOUR FEET UNDER THE BUS!

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee today approved a resolution to support the Bricker amendment to the Constitution, which would prevent the President from making treaties without the approval of Congress.

Bundy's Case Will Be Test

WASHINGTON (AP)—The case of William Bundy, a former State Department official, will be a test case for the administration's handling of political opponents.

McCarthy Fight Imminent

WASHINGTON (AP)—The fight between Joseph P. Kamp and Joseph P. Kamp over the nomination of William Bundy to the State Department is expected to intensify.

Nixon Is Working Effectively And Hard Behind The Scenes

WASHINGTON (AP)—Richard M. Nixon is working hard behind the scenes to influence the course of the Eisenhower administration's foreign policy.

Adams Decided

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department has decided to appoint Sherman Adams as its ambassador to Sweden.

Drew Pearson's Merry-Go-Round

WASHINGTON (AP)—Drew Pearson's recent criticism of the Eisenhower administration has led to a series of public appearances and a renewed focus on his political views.

Probably The Shmersh Fixed Bera

WASHINGTON (AP)—The case of the Soviet spy Bera is being investigated by the FBI, and it is believed that the Shmersh organization may have been involved in the plot.

THAT PRESS

MEMBERS of the press corps who have been pro-New Deal and pro-Fair Deal for 20 years are being asked to re-examine their long-held beliefs.

FROM THE ASHEVILLE CITIZEN

THE GOOD OLD DAYS before controversy became the American press caught it coming and going from the professional 'liberal' in New York and surprised (and pleased) to note, the criticism comes from the other political pole.

MOSCOW aftermath—Big Three ministers meeting in Washington have done more talking about probable results of the Berlin talks than any thing else.

BERIA is a Georgian. He comes from the same Soviet republic as Stalin, Nikolai Bulganin is the only other Russian among the top leaders of the Kremlin.

EISENHOWER was played up in the Western press as the anti-Communist hero, but it was probably Malenkov's jealousy.

DEFINITE German trigger—No one will know definitely for a long time what finally tipped the scales against Bera. But probably it was the East German riots plus the boy-down of Russian atomic energy.