

ESTABLISHED DEC. 8, 1888.

Charlotte, North Carolina, Monday, July 20, 1953

GI'S TAKE COVER FROM WEATHER

Three American soldiers wrapped in their ponchos take a brief respite in the fighting on the east-central front in Korea. These men were fighting with the Republic of Korea Division when it was hit hard by a Chinese missile and rolled back several miles. (AP Wirephoto).

Survivors Tell Story

Reds Take Marine Outposts

By GEORGE MCARTHUR SOUL (AP) — Recklessly attacking Chinese engulfed two vital western front outposts defended by U. S. Marines last night and the first Leatherneck survivors staggered back to Allied lines today.

Fourteen Leathernecks of the First Marine Division were the first known survivors of the bloody battles for outposts East Berlin and Berlin, part of a key hill area on the western front.

Fatigued and wan, they staggered back into Marine lines. Eight were from outpost Berlin and six from East Berlin.

It was assumed they worked their way down the bloodied slopes after the Reds left the hill during daylight.

They said more Marines may be still alive in the battered bunkers and shell-riddled trenches on the outposts.

The survivors described the hills as a battle-torn no man's land. They said no Chinese were left atop the outposts, which were plastered by savate Red and Allied artillery fire during the 1,500-man Red assault.

Allied fighter-bombers and Marine guns pounded the hills relentlessly, but there was no immediate move to retake them.

The Fifth Air Force said planes—taking advantage of hot clear weather—slammed 500,000 pounds of bombs at Communist frontlines from Berlin outposts to the Kumsong front in the east.

Sabre jets in their dual role as fighter-bombers, Australian marine jets, and Marine planes pummeled other Red targets deep in North Korea.

East German Purge Lists Are Growing

More Changes Seen By Moscow Orders

BERLIN (AP)—Another top official was missing today from the higher bracket of East German Communism. The Reds purged a party secretary and also censured a cabinet minister, perhaps as a prelude to firing him.

Western sources predicted even more heads would fall, this week or next, in the hunt for scapegoats to blame for the June 17 workers uprising.

The East German shakeup reflected continuing purges throughout the Iron Curtain countries, the latest in the Soviet Republic of Azerbaijan, where Prime Minister Mir-Djaral D. Bagirov was dismissed.

Western sources predicted even more heads would fall, this week or next, in the hunt for scapegoats to blame for the June 17 workers uprising.

The East German shakeup reflected continuing purges throughout the Iron Curtain countries, the latest in the Soviet Republic of Azerbaijan, where Prime Minister Mir-Djaral D. Bagirov was dismissed.

Western sources predicted even more heads would fall, this week or next, in the hunt for scapegoats to blame for the June 17 workers uprising.

The East German shakeup reflected continuing purges throughout the Iron Curtain countries, the latest in the Soviet Republic of Azerbaijan, where Prime Minister Mir-Djaral D. Bagirov was dismissed.

Western sources predicted even more heads would fall, this week or next, in the hunt for scapegoats to blame for the June 17 workers uprising.

The East German shakeup reflected continuing purges throughout the Iron Curtain countries, the latest in the Soviet Republic of Azerbaijan, where Prime Minister Mir-Djaral D. Bagirov was dismissed.

Western sources predicted even more heads would fall, this week or next, in the hunt for scapegoats to blame for the June 17 workers uprising.

The East German shakeup reflected continuing purges throughout the Iron Curtain countries, the latest in the Soviet Republic of Azerbaijan, where Prime Minister Mir-Djaral D. Bagirov was dismissed.

Western sources predicted even more heads would fall, this week or next, in the hunt for scapegoats to blame for the June 17 workers uprising.

The East German shakeup reflected continuing purges throughout the Iron Curtain countries, the latest in the Soviet Republic of Azerbaijan, where Prime Minister Mir-Djaral D. Bagirov was dismissed.

House Group Agrees To Hear Matthews

Resigned Red Investigator To Testify

Charges Against Clergymen To Be Aired

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Un-American Activities Committee agreed today to give J. B. Matthews a chance to prove his claim that Communists and fellow travelers have infiltrated among Protestant clergymen.

Matthews, under heavy fire during his brief tenure as executive director for the Senate Investigating subcommittee headed by Sen. McCarran (R-Wis.), had asked the House group to let him give "exhaustive documentation" of his allegations.

Chairman Velde (R-Ill.) announced the committee's action but said he would not set for Matthews' appearance. Velde said he believes Matthews will not be heard until October.

Velde refused to give any details on the committee action but a committee member who asked that his name not be disclosed told reporters the decision was on a 6 to 3 vote.

Velde said the committee did not decide whether Matthews is to be heard in open or closed session. He said, however, the investigating facts to support his charge "and not allowed to go into miscellaneous or extraneous material."

In a formal statement, Velde reported that Matthews will be heard in open or closed session. He said, however, the investigating facts to support his charge "and not allowed to go into miscellaneous or extraneous material."

Velde's previous suggestions that the group might sometimes discuss the records of individual clergymen drew some sharp criticism, particularly from Methodist minister Bruce Frey Otson of Washington, D. C.

The Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, chairman of the National Council on Churches' Committee on Maintenance of American Freedom, said yesterday that revisions in the committee's proposed procedure are "a wholly inadequate answer to the need for reform in the investigation of Communist infiltration and procedures followed . . . in the past."

SUCCESS EXPLAINED KOGA, Japan—(AP)—Firman Koichi Hirano, 31, confessed to police today how he won those seven prizes during the past two years for arriving at the scene of fires first—set 'em.

TOKYO (AP)—Thousands of Japanese were rescued today from flooded basements and cellars as floodwaters rose and air teams worked feverishly to cut the human toll at 273. More than 2,000 persons stranded on rooftops or trapped in flooded homes were plucked to safety by rescue teams searching the swamping waters.

U. S. Air Force planes crisscrossed the flood scene from atop the mountains, dropping supplies of food to stranded persons, while Japanese ships and ground forces scoured the area for survivors.

UN DELEGATION GOES INTO CONFERENCE

Led by Lieut. Gen. William K. Harrison, head negotiator, the UN armistice delegation goes into the conference room at Panmunjom to make another effort to find a final solution for the Korean war. At left, Gen. John C. Banister, head negotiator, the UN armistice delegation goes into the conference room at Panmunjom to make another effort to find a final solution for the Korean war. At left, Gen. John C. Banister, head negotiator, the UN armistice delegation goes into the conference room at Panmunjom to make another effort to find a final solution for the Korean war.

Two staff officer sessions were set for 10 A. M. Tuesday (8 P. M. Monday, EST).

The Reds, meanwhile, put the finishing touches on a large but to be used for signing the historic document which would end the three years of fighting.

There was no official indication that the Reds were ready to prepare for the signing.

Three U. S. members of the military armistice commission flew here unexpectedly for the first time and met for 1 hour, 50 minutes with Communist members of the commission.

The commission, composed of top officers from the opposing armies, would control the buffer zone between the two forces.

The Red and Allied commission members discussed "suggested arrangements which they (the Reds) will consider and probably come back with their proposal," said Navy Capt. B. M. Coleman, McLean, Va., one of the U. S. members.

Another meeting was planned, but no time was given. The speeded tempo of Monday's sessions—running from 10 A. M. to 8:55 P. M. (6:55 A. M. EST)— came double as as Moore raged up his 10th and 11th planes, Garrison his 10th. During the day pilot shot down nine MiG's and the war past the 1,000-plane mark. (AP Wirephoto).

came double as as Moore raged up his 10th and 11th planes, Garrison his 10th. During the day pilot shot down nine MiG's and the war past the 1,000-plane mark. (AP Wirephoto).

McCarthy Accused Of Demagoguery

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Lehman (D-Ill.) told the Senate today that Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) engaged in "pure demagoguery" in blaming anti-Semitism for the deaths of Cohn and Schine in the East Berlin battle.

Lehman said he was speaking as a Jew in denouncing McCarthy's statement made on a television program (Meet the Press) yesterday that criticism of Cohn and Schine was based on anti-Semitism.

Lehman said he didn't think it was necessary for him to absolve Sen. Monroney (D-Ola.), who criticized Cohn and Schine in the Senate, "of this cheap charge."

He called Monroney "one of the fine characters of the Senate, free from bias, hate and prejudice—a gentleman of understanding and courage."

Monroney meanwhile proposed that the Senate armistice committee be given a quick halt to investigations undertaken by its committees.

The Oklahoma senator was ready to introduce an amendment to the rules which he said was prompted by the activities of McCarthy and his committee.

ANGRY CHINESE DELIVERS SOLO PROPAGANDA

SEOUL (AP)—Front-line infantrymen reported a lone Chinese soldier ran out in front of the main Allied line on the Western Korean front last night and yelled "Sung man Rhee" and Chad-um-i's name.

Chad-um-i may have been a Korean or Chinese dialect translation of Chiang Kai-shek.

Then the Chinese shouted: "You no blank good! You are short timers and stay in your trenches or you will be killed."

Then the Chinese shouted: "You no blank good! You are short timers and stay in your trenches or you will be killed."

OUR WEATHER

Partly cloudy, hot and humid this afternoon, tonight and Tuesday with widely scattered afternoon or evening thunderstorms.

High temperature expected today, 92 degrees. High temperature yesterday, 92 degrees.

Low temperature this morning, 71 degrees. Low temperature expected tonight, 70 degrees.

Surprise, 5:23 A. M.; sunset, 7:35 P. M.

LADIES ATTENTION:

Betty Boyer Your Favorite Grocery News Editor brings to you beginning today the famous Tillie Lewis 14-Day Diet in The Charlotte News

Senator Bridges Struck By Auto

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Styles H. Bridges (R-NH) was struck by a car today and taken to an emergency hospital for X-ray examination.

Bridges, temporary president of the Senate and chairman of the Appropriations Committee, was stepping from his car at the midtown intersection of 14th and G Sts. NW when he was hit by a passing auto, hospital officials said.

The Senator had just left the White House after attending the weekly meeting of Republican Congressional leaders with President Eisenhower.

PAD AIR WAR SCORES

came double as as Moore raged up his 10th and 11th planes, Garrison his 10th. During the day pilot shot down nine MiG's and the war past the 1,000-plane mark. (AP Wirephoto).

came double as as Moore raged up his 10th and 11th planes, Garrison his 10th. During the day pilot shot down nine MiG's and the war past the 1,000-plane mark. (AP Wirephoto).

Red Delegation Reaches Peiping

TOKYO (AP)—Peiping radio, the voice of Red China, said tonight that the Communist delegation to the UN armistice conference in Peiping had arrived in Peiping.

The broadcast, heard in Tokyo, said the two groups arrived separately in Peiping.

It was the first announcement that the two Communist members of the four-nation Armistice Supervisory Commission were in Asia.

The other two members—Sweden and Switzerland—are in Tokyo awaiting a call to Korea.

The broadcast said the Polish and Czechoslovakian delegates who brought their staffs, were met at the Peiping airport by Red Chinese diplomats, their nations' ambassadors to China and North Korean representatives.

Entire Villages Under Water In Japan Floods

TOKYO (AP)—Thousands of Japanese were rescued today from flooded basements and cellars as floodwaters rose and air teams worked feverishly to cut the human toll at 273.

More than 2,000 persons stranded on rooftops or trapped in flooded homes were plucked to safety by rescue teams searching the swamping waters.

U. S. Air Force planes crisscrossed the flood scene from atop the mountains, dropping supplies of food to stranded persons, while Japanese ships and ground forces scoured the area for survivors.