OKLAHOMA SLEEPWALKER STROLLS AGAIN

Mrs. Ione Wier, Enid Oklahoma, housewife with tendency to stroll under a full moon in her sleep, made newspaper headlines last month when found in the dead perched spot a tree 20 feet off the ground. A photographer, with the family's approval, snapped this picture of her as she walked again, this time attired in a robe. A fall asleep, however, broke her trance. (AP Wirephoto).

Loses Vote Of Confidence

De Gasperi Government Falls

ROME (AP)—Premier Alcide De Gasperi's eighth government fell today on a no confidence vote. It was the first time that the 73-year-old Christian Democrat leader suffered such defeat since he took the reins of Italy's government on Dec. 10, 1945. The vote was 282 to 263 against De Gasperi. There were howls of delight from the Communist and extreme left as the ballot was announced in the Chamber of Deputies. Now De Gasperi has to submit to President Luigi Einaudi the formal resignation of the government but reluctantly agreed to form two weeks ago following the national elections. The constitution requires that the government have the con-

West Food Program Drawing Thousands

By DON DOANE

BERLIN—More than 100,000 hungry East Germans lined up at dawn for Western food today. It was another gigantic demonstration of Communist failure to feed an area that used to be Germany's bread basket.

More than 120,000 food packages were given out yesterday in the operation. The program is backed by a 15-million-dollar donation from the United States.

Before it ends in two weeks, the plan is expected to give parcels to more than a million East Germans. Red propagandists shrilled in unbridled rage but the Communists did not interfere.

Except for an occasional check to keep the people nervous, Red border police let them return unhindered through the Iron Curtain with their precious gifts.

West Berlin police were on the alert against any Communist plot to disturb the big humanitarian undertaking. One suspected spy and several distributors of Red propaganda were arrested yesterday.

Opposed by Moscow's veto from shipping the proffered American food into the interior of Soviet-occupied East Germany. Western authorities had feared the "come and get it" plan adopted as a substitute to reach only people from East Berlin and nearby areas.

FROM FAR AWAY
They came by the tons of thousands from far out in the Soviet zone. Many obviously got up in the middle of the night and made long train rides which cost them more than the 5 marks ($1.18) worth of food they were given.

They came, they said, because they couldn't buy the food in the Communist zone. Western food stores with any amount of money. It simply wasn't there.

Their families eastern areas used to produce most of the food for all Germany. Communist's program of collective farming and forced crop quotas plainly had failed. Thousands of farmers had fled to West Germany. East German authorities have had to ad-

Streak Across Atlantic

Jet Bombers Break Speed Records

By VERN HAUGLAND
FAIRFORD, England—Two U. S. Air Force jet bombers streaked across the Atlantic from North America in record-breaking speed today.

One plane flew from Limestone Air Force Base in the north tip of Maine some 2,223 miles in 4 hours and 45 minutes, for an average of 615 miles per hour.

The other sped across from Goose Bay, Labrador, some 400 miles northeast of Limestone, to this Air Force base in 4 hours and 14 minutes.

Membership In U. N. Ruled Out For Red China

Dulles Says U. S. Would Veto Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said today the United States will not join the United Nations if the price of Red Chinese membership in the United Nations. He added this country has the right to veto any move to grant the Chinese Communists a U. N. seat.

He said, however, he did not think a veto would be necessary. Dulles announced that he will fly to Korea next Sunday to confer with South Korean President Syngman Rhee. They will discuss problems coming up in a Korean political conference, and the negotiation of a U. S.-Korean security pact.

Dulles disclosed for the first time officially — although it has been publicly known for two weeks — that the United States had agreed with Rhee to walk out of the political conference if after five days it appears to be a sham, with the Rhee negotiating in bad faith.

Talking terms with Rhee, Dulles also disclosed officially that the United States has indicated it would be willing to include a provision giving this country the right to station forces in or around Korea for the purpose of preserving peace. Rhee had asked such a provision.

When the flying trip to Korea would be very brief and he appears to return to Washington in a week to take with him a bipartisan group of Senators—Republicans Knowland of California and Alexander Smith of New Jersey, and Democrats Russell of Georgia and Lyndon Johnson of Texas.

Dulles said he had invited them to go. He also pointed out that the Senate will have to ratify any treaty negotiated.

The United States may press for a U. N. delegation to the Korean peace conference made up exclusively from among the 17 nations which actually fought the Communists.

Postal Rate Boost Shelved

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's request for a higher postal rates today was shelved for the time being. The House Post Office Committee decided to give it no further consideration.

However, the group stamped approval on another bill aimed to lift from the Post Office Department the ban on carrying mail free for other government agencies and members of Congress.

The argument that cost of such mail shall be paid from appropriated funds and not charged as an operating cost to the Post Office Department.

From the U. S. Treasury's standpoint, this is primarily a bookkeeping device. It means that Congress members think it would be actual saving to the taxpayers.

The bill also states that government agencies will cut down on the volume of their mail if the postage cost is reflected in their budgets.

Buffer Zone Formed

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN
SEOUL (AP)—Allied and Communist armies today began pulling back from the front line to form a 2 1/2-mile-wide buffer zone.

United Nations forces, including South Korean troops, started withdrawing at daybreak. Chinese and North Korean Communist units were seen pulling back during the day.

Each side must withdraw two kilometers — about 1 1/4 miles — to form a demilitarized buffer zone across Korea.

Far behind Red lines, the Allies began evacuating islands off both the east and west coasts of North Korea. The islands had served as radar stations for air strikes against the Communists and for air-sea rescue operations.

THURSDAY DEADLINE
In keeping with the armistice agreement, all incidents of withdrawal must be completed by 10 p. m. Thursday. The Allied-held islands must be evacuated by 10 p. m. Aug. 5.

In the early hours of the armistice negotiations, the final 8th Army briefing of war correspondents, a staff officer said the last infantry action was a patrol clash at 2:55 a. m. Monday on the eastern front — some 19 hours before the truce became effective.

While Allied and Communist soldiers moved freely in the open during the B-7s broke records for the first time in the Communist Military Armistice Commission held its first meeting at Pannumjon to begin supervision of the truce.

Steps Taken To Carry Out Truce Terms

Reds To Release 400 Men Each Day

By SAM SUMMERLIN
MUNSAN (AP)—The Allies and Communists agreed today to start exchanging about 87,000 prisoners of war Aug. 5 and the joint Military Armistice Commission set in motion machinery for enforcing the day-old Korean armistice.

Once the long-awaited prisoner exchange gets under way, the Reds will free about 400 men daily after Pannumjon. The U. N. Command said it will deliver about 2,700 daily, including 200 sick and wounded.

Details of prisoner exchange plans were adopted by the military armistice committee for prisoner exchange at five different truce bodies gathered in Pannumjon.

Maj. Gen. Blackhear M. Bryson, who leads the Allied team on the joint military commission, described the first meeting of the group Tuesday as "like walking a tightrope."

U. N. READY
The U. N. Command was ready to start exchanging prisoners this week, but he doubted if the Reds would be able to begin that swiftly. The Aug. 5 date was announced later.

The commission meets again at 11 a. m. Wednesday. These other developments punctuated the first full day of the Korean armistice:

1. Allied and Red forces began pulling back about 1 1/4 miles from the battlefield to create a 2 1/2-mile-wide buffer zone. They blew up front-line fortifications. The U. N. also began evacuating key islands off both North Korea coasts.

2. South Korean President Syngman Rhee said he had received assurances that if the postwar political conference breaks down, the 16 United Nations will force in Korea "an armistice to fight with us jointly in a complete unity of purpose." Rhee made the statement in a radio broadcast.

3. Polish and Czech officers reportedly were traveling from Peking, the Red China capital, to Pannumjon to set up their posts on the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission. Swiss and Swedish negotiators, now in Tokyo, were due within 48 hours. The commission will police the truce.

4. Gen. Mark W. Clark and Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison Jr., senior Allied truce delegate, returned to Tokyo from Korea. Before leaving, Clark finished signing the truce document. The Allied truce negotiators' team has been disbanded and Harrison returns to his old job as Clark's chief of staff.

5. Staff officers agreed on plans for exchanging prisoners, the U. N. See PW EXCHANGE on page 2-A.

Senator Taft's Condition Takes Turn For Worse

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft's physical condition "has deteriorated," New York Hospital announced today.

The Ohio Republican recently underwent an exploratory operation of the abdominal wall to investigate his ailment.

The announcement was the first that did not take an optimistic view of his condition. It had been announced last week that he would return to Washington on Wednesday. A statement from the hospital yesterday said he had his departure would be delayed.

"Sen. Taft's condition has deteriorated somewhat during the last 24 hours," the hospital bulletin said today.

"He is responding less well to treatment and is not taking food satisfactorily."

New Rotation System Is Announced For Army

TOKYO (AP)—The U. S. Army today announced a new rotation system which will make the normal stay for all soldiers in Korea 18 months beginning Oct. 1.

The tour for U. S. soldiers in the Philippines will be 36 months. Married soldiers in Okinawa who have their families with them and unmarried soldiers will serve 24 months, and personnel in Okinawa whose dependents do not accompany them will serve 20 months.

In Japan, soldiers accompanied by dependents and unmarried soldiers will serve 24 months, under the old system.

For soldiers who are in the Far East now—but will not rotate until after Oct. 1—the points they have already will still count.
