Berserk Bull Smashes Window, Injures Determined Pursuer

By TOM FERPERMAN
Charlotte News Staff Writer
A hefty white-face bull, stomping mad, broke loose from his owner today, charged smack through the middle of Charlotte, breaking a big plate glass window, injuring one citizen, and sending hundreds of others scurrying for cover.

Square and started picking up a posse of police officers. Leading the chase was a motorcycle-riding patrolman, Dick... But Mr. Douglas was still in on the chase, and finally the bull was crowded to the sidewalk in front of the Stonewall Florist Shop. Two men grabbed a trailing rope, and they and Mr. Douglas held on.

helped chase the bull was J. H. Hopkins, 223 Solomon St., a Negro who weighs more than 200 pounds. "I saw him way down on E. Trade St. and I followed him in my car. He came through a couple of yards, and he was maddened and I followed him in my car. He came through a couple of yards, and he was maddened and I followed him in my car.
