Legion Fight Over Air Funds Reaches Floor

St. Louis Convention Is Nearing Close

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A floor fight over the administration's five billion dollar Air Force budget cut shaped up today as American Legionnaires headed for the windup of their national convention...

Turner said in a statement he wanted to see whether the delegates should elect a new president, or whether they should be settled by the pronouncements of a few Legionnaires, past Legion officers, and present public officials.

The Security Committee yesterday cut out all reference to a 143-wing Air Force recommended by Turner's committee. Instead it called for "the best possible Air Force."

Legionnaires hear a six-month Department from Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson today. Walter Baughman, president of the CIO, was also scheduled to speak, marking the first time a CIO speaker has appeared before a national Legion convention.

Also on tap was the election of national officers. The claimed headquarters of Air Force members, Middletown, Conn., claimed victory. The Air Force committee is assured of election.

The legion criticized the U.S. Air Force when it called its "unworkable even in peacetime." He held that as long as World War III had been averted.
