

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS

FINAL

Largest Evening Newspaper In The Two Carolinas

Charlotte, North Carolina, Thursday, April 8, 1954

44 Pages—Price Five Cents

ESTABLISHED DEC. 8, 1888.

New Army Security Program Announced

Wilson Tells Senate Group Of Program

Would Clean Services Of Subversives

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Wilson today announced revised security program designed "to clean out and keep out" of the armed forces persons deemed to be security or loyalty risks.

Wilson announced the new directive, and the security-loyalty yardsticks it lays down, at a public hearing before the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Its objective, he said, is to provide uniform standards for the Army, Navy and Air Force and "to speed up our procedures for getting such individuals out of the service and for keeping them out."

Wilson said in a statement, "It is to give concrete assurance to this committee and to all concerned that the matter of subversives, Communist sympathizers, or other such security risks in the armed forces is being carefully worked out."

The new directive declares a general policy that the Defense Department will assume that acceptance or retention of any member of the armed services is clearly consistent with the interest of national security "unless and until a determination to the contrary is made."

"However," it continues, "when credible information which raises the question of security is received, the question of security is whether acceptance or retention is consistent with the interest of national security."

"In no case will any person reasonably believed to have any time engaged in any of the activities listed... be appointed or enlisted in any of the armed services without the approval of the secretary of the armed services concerned."

In the cases of draftees the directive declares: "Known Communists will not be inducted into the armed services... 2. Inductees who do not 'satisfactorily' fill our loyalty questionnaires or whose questionnaires disclose 'significant derogatory information... will be accepted into the service and retained on non-sensitive assignments in the lowest enlisted pay grade permitted by law, pending completion of a thorough investigation."

"In the event this investigation reveals that further derogatory information is inconsistent with the interest of national security, he inductees will be separated under other than honorable conditions. Should the investigation disclose insufficient derogatory information to warrant separation in the interest of national security, he will be continued in the service and thereafter appropriately assigned." The character of his ultimate discharge to be determined by his subsequent conduct.

COUNSELOR JENKINS

Army-Senator Fuss Hearing Opens April 21

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Trial lawyer Ray H. Jenkins had orders today to be ready to launch 11 days from now public Senate hearings aimed at finding the truth in the McCarthy-Indochina crisis.

Jenkins, a 37-year-old grandfather from Knoxville, Tenn., took the job of special counsel yesterday with a public pledge to fulfill it "with no prejudice, no bias."

"I have no record, publicly or otherwise, as to Sen. McCarthy or his case as he has been known as 'McCarthyism,'" he told a news conference.

As special counsel to the Senate investigations subcommittee, he said, he intends to dig for and present the facts in the bitter charges involving McCarthy and high Army officials "without any favoritism, in as fair and impartial a manner as I know how."

An Army report has accused McCarthy (R-Wis.) and two of his aides of seeking favored treatment for Pvt. G. David Schine, a drafted former associate McCarthy disapproved and said Army officials sought to "blackmail" him into dropping a search for subversives in the Army. The Army denies this.

Jenkins, who looks far younger than his age, succeeds Samuel P. Sears, a Boston lawyer previously selected by the subcommittee but whose name was never officially entered on the payroll.

Sears stepped out Tuesday, five days after being appointed, saying that "baseless challenges to his impartiality had made it necessary for him to step aside" in the public interest. Sears was an avowed admirer of McCarthy, although he had not taken a side in the current row.

U. S. Might Delay Decision On Foreign Aid

'United Action' Call Response Awaited

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Republican Leader Knowland said today Congress might withhold a decision on foreign aid until America's allies decide how to respond to Secretary of State Dulles' call for collective action on Southeast Asia.

"If they want to take a new reading based on Geneva," Knowland told newsmen, "the Congress of the United States might determine it will take a new reading based on Geneva in response to Secretary Dulles' inquiry."

Knowland referred to reports that Britain and France opposed any collective action until after the April 26 conference at Geneva, Switzerland. He said Congress might want to withhold action on foreign aid until after the conference.

This apparently was aimed at France, which has delayed for months taking any action on EDC under the European Defense Community which would include soldiers of France, Germany and four other countries.

Reports circulated that Secretary Dulles probably will make a flying trip to London and Paris in a few days for urgent consultation on the Indochina crisis.

The reports arose after it became apparent that the American call for a 10-nation coalition to secure Southeast Asia against communism and bolster the anti-Red fight in Indochina had hit a slow going in Paris and London.

Two senators spoke today of the sending of U. S. naval and air units into the Indochina fighting as a possibility and one said "it looks to me as if we are on the edge of war there."

Sen. McCarran (D-Nev.) said this estimate in an interview, said, "If we should send in naval and air forces now, it would only bring the Chinese Communists in force and then I don't see how we could avoid sending troops."

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) said he sees no need to use U. S. troops in Indochina, but he added in an interview: "In case of a crisis there, we may need to use naval power and undoubtedly air power. I don't think anything we are doing now contemplates employing American manpower in Asia but quite conceivably it calls for air and naval power."

MR. AND MRS. I. H. McNEILL

They Found A Diamond In Their Golden Years

At Latta Park Center Golden Years Members Wed

By LUCIEN AGNIEL, Charlotte News Staff Writer "I want you to look as if you were 16 instead of 60," the 79-year-old suitor told his bride-to-be.

That was before Mrs. Esther Ferguson selected a dress for her wedding this morning at Latta Park Community Center to I. H. McNeill. Just before the ceremony Mrs. Ferguson wouldn't say that she had met those specifications, but she was proud that her new bride dress was size 16.

The appreciative look in Mr. McNeill's eyes was proof enough that he thought his request had been filled. It's a second marriage for both parties. Each has seven children—five girls and two boys. All of Mrs. Ferguson's children were on hand for the wedding, but only one of Mr. McNeill's was present.

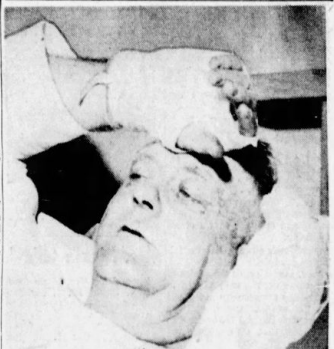

"I didn't even mention it to the others," he said. They've been knowing each other for quite a while but they didn't get real serious until they joined the Golden Years Club, which meets every Thursday morning at the Latta Park Community Center, and is restricted to women over 50 and men over 55.

How did he propose? Mrs. Ferguson gave it some thought. "Well, Mr. McNeill said to me, 'Mrs. Ferguson, there's no point in you living all alone out there about the store and everything when I've got this nice big house in town.'"

The nice big house at 436 E. Park Ave. was jumping this morning prior to the 11:30 ceremony. Friends and relatives kept the screen door banging as they sped in and out with flowers, greetings, and last minute advice.

"Well, we're going to rest a while before we decide," said Mrs. Ferguson. "That's right," said Mr. McNeill. "I've told her I wanted her to quit working and go to resting."

What about plans for the future? Mr. McNeill smiled at his bride. "We're going to stay up there on the hill," and he pointed to his big house, "and make a garden."

Chief Dail in hospital

Clue To Bombing Could Be In Past

EDENTON (AP)—Officers admittedly stymied, today probed the past life of Mrs. Imogene

Edenton today while refuting a jet crash today while refuting a jet fighter in the air and five crewmen are believed to have died.

The jet was not damaged. The Air Force said it has found four bodies and another crewman is missing and presumed dead. Six crewmen parachuted from the flaming air tanker. They were taken to a hospital for a check-up.

Name of the crew were withheld. A spokesman said cause of the crash was not determined.

The tanker sprang a leak while refueling an F-84 Thunderjet near Nagoya in Central Japan. The jet disintegrated.

Fire broke out almost immediately and an explosion followed. The tanker crashed on an open hillside. Helicopters and ground parties found the bodies.

The tanker belonged to the 421st Air Refueling Squadron at Yokota Air Base near Tokyo.

Police said the undergarments of the victim, Marion Brown, were ripped but she had not been raped. The unidentified slayer fled from the tenement on East 63th St. including a resident of the house who heard the girl screaming at 3 a.m.

Golden Years Members Wed

By LUCIEN AGNIEL, Charlotte News Staff Writer "I want you to look as if you were 16 instead of 60," the 79-year-old suitor told his bride-to-be.

That was before Mrs. Esther Ferguson selected a dress for her wedding this morning at Latta Park Community Center to I. H. McNeill. Just before the ceremony Mrs. Ferguson wouldn't say that she had met those specifications, but she was proud that her new bride dress was size 16.

The appreciative look in Mr. McNeill's eyes was proof enough that he thought his request had been filled. It's a second marriage for both parties. Each has seven children—five girls and two boys. All of Mrs. Ferguson's children were on hand for the wedding, but only one of Mr. McNeill's was present.

"I didn't even mention it to the others," he said. They've been knowing each other for quite a while but they didn't get real serious until they joined the Golden Years Club, which meets every Thursday morning at the Latta Park Community Center, and is restricted to women over 50 and men over 55.

How did he propose? Mrs. Ferguson gave it some thought. "Well, Mr. McNeill said to me, 'Mrs. Ferguson, there's no point in you living all alone out there about the store and everything when I've got this nice big house in town.'"

The nice big house at 436 E. Park Ave. was jumping this morning prior to the 11:30 ceremony. Friends and relatives kept the screen door banging as they sped in and out with flowers, greetings, and last minute advice.

"Well, we're going to rest a while before we decide," said Mrs. Ferguson. "That's right," said Mr. McNeill. "I've told her I wanted her to quit working and go to resting."

What about plans for the future? Mr. McNeill smiled at his bride. "We're going to stay up there on the hill," and he pointed to his big house, "and make a garden."

McCarthy Claims Some Reds Fired

(Fourth of a Series)

By JACK BELL and BELMAN MORIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Joseph McCarthy says "a sizable number" of the 11 he listed in a Senate speech four years ago as Communists or fellow travelers in the State Department "have been removed."

Of 30 or more in defense plants who pleaded the Fifth Amendment before McCarthy's investigating committee, "they have all been either suspended or fired," the senator says.

The idea of a box score on the success of the committee has, he says, "a lot of merit."

"I think it could be useful," he told two questioners in an exclusive recorded interview. Roy M. Cohn, the committee's chief counsel, also sat in on the session. Here are the questions, and McCarthy's answers:

Q—Some of the chairmen of investigating committees have published in the Congressional Record a box score of the results of what they have done. Do you plan anything similar to that in the near future?

No Extra Help Needed For Survey, Mayor Says

Mayor Phil Van Every said today the City Government's own engineering resources are adequate to do any surveys needed for the proposed extension of the city limits.

His comment came in the wake of reports that the City Planning Board would hesitate to assume the responsibility for determining the advisability of extending the city limits without the employment of a staff of engineering and planning assistants.

The City Council, at its meeting yesterday, formally adopted a resolution asking the Planning Board to make a survey of the fringe area to determine the feasibility of annexing outside built-up districts.

This request will be considered by the Engineering Dept. at a meeting Tuesday afternoon, but there were indications that the board members will be reluctant to assume the responsibility unless municipal funds are provided for the employment of a full-time professional staff.

Members of the Planning Board for some time have been asking the City Government to provide the funds estimated at $35,000 for the preliminary engineering studies and after agreement on the new boundaries and the designate planning staff, but so far, the Council has not gone along with the idea.

Dulles May Go To Europe

LONDON (AP)—Informed sources said today U. S. Secretary of State Dulles intends to fly to Europe next week for top level talks with French and British leaders on 'united action' to safeguard Southeast Asia from Communist domination.

These officials said that Allied consultations on the American proposals for protecting Indochina and the rest of Southeast Asia will take place shortly. But they refused to disclose where the discussions would take place or at what level.

Sen. McCarran (D-Nev.) said this estimate in an interview, said, "If we should send in naval and air forces now, it would only bring the Chinese Communists in force and then I don't see how we could avoid sending troops."

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) said he sees no need to use U. S. troops in Indochina, but he added in an interview: "In case of a crisis there, we may need to use naval power and undoubtedly air power. I don't think anything we are doing now contemplates employing American manpower in Asia but quite conceivably it calls for air and naval power."

What about plans for the future? Mr. McNeill smiled at his bride. "We're going to stay up there on the hill," and he pointed to his big house, "and make a garden."

5 Believed Lost In Plane Blast

TOKYO (AP)—An American Superfort tanker plane exploded and crashed today while refueling a jet fighter in the air and five crewmen are believed to have died.

The jet was not damaged. The Air Force said it has found four bodies and another crewman is missing and presumed dead. Six crewmen parachuted from the flaming air tanker. They were taken to a hospital for a check-up.

Name of the crew were withheld. A spokesman said cause of the crash was not determined.

The tanker sprang a leak while refueling an F-84 Thunderjet near Nagoya in Central Japan. The jet disintegrated.

Fire broke out almost immediately and an explosion followed. The tanker crashed on an open hillside. Helicopters and ground parties found the bodies.

ADMIRAL IN FORMOSA

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Rear Adm. John M. Will, commander of the U. S. 7th Fleet Task Force 90, arrived today for military conferences and to watch maneuvers by Chinese Nationalist marines.

Sen. Mundt (R-S.D.) who will run the hearings as acting chairman, told reporters Jenkins' first assignment is to set up an office here.

Sen. McCarran (D-Nev.) said this estimate in an interview, said, "If we should send in naval and air forces now, it would only bring the Chinese Communists in force and then I don't see how we could avoid sending troops."

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) said he sees no need to use U. S. troops in Indochina, but he added in an interview: "In case of a crisis there, we may need to use naval power and undoubtedly air power. I don't think anything we are doing now contemplates employing American manpower in Asia but quite conceivably it calls for air and naval power."

What about plans for the future? Mr. McNeill smiled at his bride. "We're going to stay up there on the hill," and he pointed to his big house, "and make a garden."

MILTON ARNOLD

MRS. SALLY BUNKER

GEORGE BUNKER

A retired Air Force brigadier general, Milton Wylie Arnold was married to Mrs. Sally Bunker, president of the Glenn L. Martin Aircraft Co. He charges that Bunker alienated the affections of his wife, Wirephoto.

Sally, and their adopted son, The petition, filed in Washington, states that Mrs. Arnold obtained a divorce from Arnold Feb. 27 and that she married Bunker four days later. (AP Wirephoto).

Sen. Mundt (R-S.D.) who will run the hearings as acting chairman, told reporters Jenkins' first assignment is to set up an office here.

OUR WEATHER

Considerable cloudiness and rather windy with occasional showers or thundershowers early this afternoon. Clearing and cooler tonight. Tomorrow, generally fair and cooler.

Low temperature this morning 60 degrees. Low temperature expected tonight 43 degrees. High temperature yesterday 83 degrees. High temperature expected today 53 degrees. Sunrise 6:01 a.m.; sunset 6:50 p.m. More Weather Data on Page 3-A.

EVENING PRAYER

Loving Lord, we thank Thee that Thou hast redeemed us. Help us to serve earnestly our brethren suffering from the evils of society. Use us to strengthen the faith of our friends in the Lord. For Thy name's sake. Amen.

WHAT'S INSIDE

IF YOU MISSED THE GRAVY TRAIN earlier this week, here's a chance to try for a ticket today. On Page 12-C in the Food Section there's an explanation of the Jumbo Jackpot and an opportunity to test your powers of observation. And it pays off in MAYBE YOU HAVE TO STAY in Charlotte, but you can take a fictional trip to Rio. A new serial by Anne Altman is starting today on Page 6-A and it's all about romance and Rio.

Business	11B	Radio & TV	3B
Classified	11-13B	Serials	6A
Comics	10C	Show 'Nuf	10B
Crossword	3B	Sports	6-9B
Editorials	8A	Theater	10B
Features	2B	Writing Well	5A
Obituaries	11A	Women	4-5B