

WEATHER

THE CAROLINAS - Clearing today; partly cloudy, warmer Monday. CHARLOTTE AREA - Clearing, warmer. Expected high 72; low tonight 50. Local temperatures... High 59; Low 49. Year Ago... High 87; Low 61. Additional Weather Data on Pages 2A, 1B.

Served By The Associated Press, AP Newsfeatures, Wirephoto, Washington, Raleigh, and Columbia Bureaus

The Charlotte Observer

Foremost Newspaper Of The Carolinas - Leads In Both Circulation and Advertising

17,030 Retail Stores

Are Located In The

CHARLOTTE

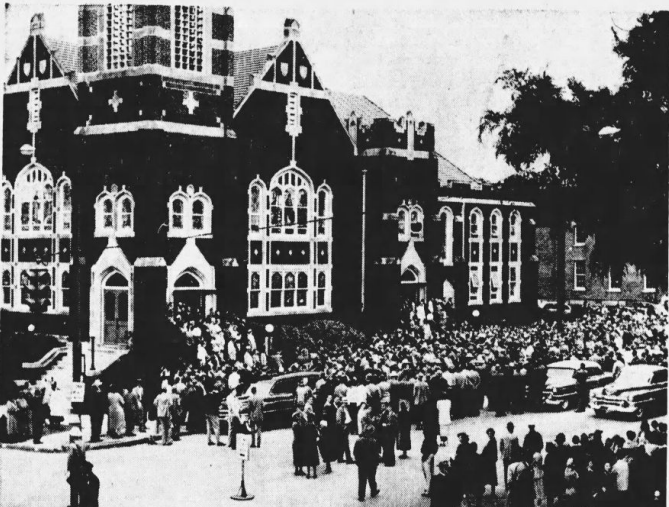

36-County market area.

VOLUME 86, NO. 37

116 PAGES TODAY

CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA, SUNDAY MORNING, MAY 16, 1954

PRICE DAILY 5c, SUNDAY 15c

HOEY FUNERAL RITES—This is a section of a crowd of 4,500 persons who stood outside Central Methodist Church in Shelby yesterday, listening to funeral services for Senator Clyde R. Hoey through a public address system. More than 7,000 persons filed by the bier of the man who became a newspaper editor at 16, a state senator at 24 and governor before his 1944 election to the U. S. Senate. (Observer Staff Photo—Dumbell) than 7,000 persons filed by the bier of the man who became a newspaper editor at 16, a state senator at 24 and governor before his 1944 election to the U. S. Senate. (Observer Staff Photo—Dumbell)

Blazing Death Ends All-Night Drinking Bout

Student Wounds Two Fraternity Mates, Kills Self

By NOEL YANCEY CHAPEL HILL, May 15 (AP) - A blaze of gunfire following an all-night beer party in a University of North Carolina fraternity house today left one student dead and two in the university hospital.

One Killed, 2 Hurt In Shooting At UNC

Blazing Death Ends All-Night Drinking Bout

Blazing Death Ends All-Night Drinking Bout

DAVIS... Dead JOYNER... Wounded LONG... Wounded

West Holding Secret Meet On Indochina

GENEVA, May 15 (AP) - The West ern Big Three huddled secretly today to prepare a firm bid for a quick cease-fire in Indochina.

U. S. Under Secretary of State Walter Bedell Smith met tonight with Britain's Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden after an earlier conference with Eden and French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault.

No information was released concerning the meetings but they were known to be mapping strategy for the secret sessions to be held with the Communist delegates next week.

Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and Red China's Foreign Minister Chou En-lai were believed to be consulting also on strategy for the crucial week ahead.

Monday's meeting will be restricted to delegation heads of the nine parties represented in the conference on Indochina and three advisers each. The delegations will be pledged to secrecy although it is possible communications will be possible.

Viet Nam's chief of state, Bao Dai, moved his headquarters into a luxurious hotel at Evian on the French side of Lake Geneva late today to be near the conference.

Although French sources said they expected to lay a detailed plan for a cease-fire before the conference Monday, it was expected that several secret and restricted sessions would be required to get down to real bargaining and determining the chances of peace.

FUNERAL HELD IN SHELBY Friends In State And Nation Bid Good-by To Senator Hoey

By KAYS GARY, Observer Staff Writer SHELBY, May 15 - His neighbors and leaders of a state assembly bid good-by to U. S. Senator Clyde R. Hoey here this afternoon.

Approximately 7,500 persons filed past his central Methodist Church bier from 10 a. m. until 2:15 p. m.

Among them was a slightly built, leather-faced man in overalls who carried there was a small woman wearing a small black hat who quietly sniffed her way past the bier.

Fifty yards away was the grave of Thomas Dixon author of "Birth of a Nation," and 100 yards further was the grave of the senator's brother-in-law and former governor Oliver Max Gardner.

One thousand persons sat and stood in the sanctuary where the 4,500 others listened to the services through public address.

The 25-minute service bore the characteristic dignity of the man of the frock-tailed coat. Arranged around the bier were four wreaths of red roses and carnations, the flowers worn by the senator in his lap-l in daily memory of his wife. There were three crosses of lilies. There was a blanket of roses.

At graveside one of the floral arrangements consisted of red roses which spelled "Cap" against a background of white carnations. "Cap" was the family pet name for the senator.

Conducting the service were the Rev. J. G. Huggins Jr., pastor of the church, and the Rev. Zeno Well, retired.

There was a choir in anthem with "This Is My Father's World," a hymn of praise omitted by the three-day-long senator no matter what the topic of his material of addresses during a political career spanning 36 years.

"So extensive were his powers that he moved with ease among the exalted of the earth; so broad were his sympathies that those of low degree moved with ease with him."

He had a special gift for simplifying life's needs. For Mrs. Love Tolbert, who lives at 417 N. First, he said that it is not hard to understand when we remember that the touchstone of existence was a simple faith in God and His providence.

He was loyal to his party. He joined it long ago. He always thought that through it he could best serve his country, as the vagaries of national politics what they may.

He has a message for us. Hold fast to the simple virtues. He died in an automobile accident on the way to a hospital, where equipment stockpiled in haircut.

He died in an automobile accident on the way to a hospital, where equipment stockpiled in haircut.

Dien Bien Phu Mercy Airlift Is Suspended

By LARRY ALLEN HANOI, Indochina, May 15 (AP) - The French High Command announced tonight it has "stopped" all evacuation of French wounded from Dien Bien Phu until the Vietminh repair the fallen fortress.

The command said a special mission of two Army officers would fly to Dien Bien Phu tomorrow to demand that the Vietminh take all steps necessary to speed up evacuation of injured French troops.

The French said they had a prospect of a month-long airlift by helicopters and light planes in bringing out the 450 seriously wounded whose release has been promised in the first batch.

Moreover, reliable sources said, the Vietminh had withdrawn permission for captive French army doctors to attend their own wounded at Dien Bien Phu.

At the Geneva conference the United States and France protested in letters to Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov on June 25, 1950. The ultimatum was going back on its promise to release all wounded, regard less of race and nationality, and honor guard from the entrance of the Vietminh to the lake island from seeking to impose conditions to the deal that would result in a big fight, he and an expected triumph of military advantage to the Viet.

FREEDOM DAY PROGRAM Religious Services Open Celebration

Details of the most significant phase of Tuesday's Freedom Day Celebration, the religious service which will begin the day's program at 9:15 a. m., were announced last night by Chairman A. Grant Whitney.

The 45-minute open-air service in Freedom Park will begin three hours before President Eisenhower will arrive for a picnic lunch and a brief informal address.

It will include brief talks by five Charlotte ministers, special music, and the principal message from Dr. Norman Vincent Peavey, nationally prominent New York City clergyman, lecturer and newspaper columnist.

This will keynote the entire program, said Mr. Whitney, and show which will present Arthur Smith and his Crackerjacks, a Persian Rifle Drill team, the Charlotte Boys Choir, the Leonard Clemmer Tumbling Team, a Queens College quartet, an aerial infantry comedy act of The Cycling Pages and a SPERS Barbershop Chorus. This entertainment will end at about 4:30 p. m.

And that, except for a Military Ball in Hotel Charlotte at 9 p. m., to be attended by visiting dignitaries, will be it.

Although there are parking spaces for 5,000 cars in the proximity of the park, it is hoped that most of the visitors will use shuttle-bus service operating to and from the park.

Religious Services Open Celebration

Details of the most significant phase of Tuesday's Freedom Day Celebration, the religious service which will begin the day's program at 9:15 a. m., were announced last night by Chairman A. Grant Whitney.

The 45-minute open-air service in Freedom Park will begin three hours before President Eisenhower will arrive for a picnic lunch and a brief informal address.

It will include brief talks by five Charlotte ministers, special music, and the principal message from Dr. Norman Vincent Peavey, nationally prominent New York City clergyman, lecturer and newspaper columnist.

This will keynote the entire program, said Mr. Whitney, and show which will present Arthur Smith and his Crackerjacks, a Persian Rifle Drill team, the Charlotte Boys Choir, the Leonard Clemmer Tumbling Team, a Queens College quartet, an aerial infantry comedy act of The Cycling Pages and a SPERS Barbershop Chorus. This entertainment will end at about 4:30 p. m.

And that, except for a Military Ball in Hotel Charlotte at 9 p. m., to be attended by visiting dignitaries, will be it.

Although there are parking spaces for 5,000 cars in the proximity of the park, it is hoped that most of the visitors will use shuttle-bus service operating to and from the park.

Atlanta, May 15 (AP) - William H. Murray, aged 68, pioneer Atlanta motion picture theater manager, died at his home here early today following a lengthy illness. He was "laid to rest" in the cemetery of Aiken, S. C., he began his theater career here in 1911 and it was the home of Dr. H. S. Munroe became widely known for his skill, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Armistead at 315 Oakland Ave., Asheville.

He had a special gift for simplifying life's needs. For Mrs. Love Tolbert, who lives at 417 N. First, he said that it is not hard to understand when we remember that the touchstone of existence was a simple faith in God and His providence. He was loyal to his party. He joined it long ago. He always thought that through it he could best serve his country, as the vagaries of national politics what they may. He has a message for us. Hold fast to the simple virtues. He died in an automobile accident on the way to a hospital, where equipment stockpiled in haircut.

Movie Braul Ends In Death For Gastonian

GASTONIA, May 15 - A theater manager opened up with gunfire from his ticket booth and a 44-year-old milk worker fell dying to the sidewalk in front of a neighborhood moviehouse here today.

Police said William Howard (Tate) Hughes of 201 Twin Ave. was shot through the heart and killed by a bullet from the ticket booth.

The theater audience was alerted by a western movie starring Rod Cameron as the violent drama looted outside on the busy street.

Police said William Howard (Tate) Hughes of 201 Twin Ave. was shot through the heart and killed by a bullet from the ticket booth.

Pentagon Charges Soviets Masterminded Korean War

WASHINGTON, May 15 (AP) - The North Korean before the Republic of their control over all important decisions, including Kim Il Sung, who the Soviet citizens at the core of the Korean war.

The timing of the content and the series of documents, in the nature of a White Paper, which the Defense Department said were based on "intelligence research and evaluation" of many sources of information.

By the end of May last year, nearly two months before the armistice, from 6,000 to 12,000 Russian "advisors" were in Korea. In addition, Soviet citizens, medium gun regiments and 1,300 Russians were employed as staff and technical advisers throughout North Korea.

WHERE TO FIND THE FEATURES

- Books ..... 12R Church News ..... 13C Classified Ads ..... 7:17D Columns ..... 2:3R Editorial ..... 2B Financial ..... 1:7R Garden News ..... 14:15C Health ..... 16:17C Houses, Real Estate ..... 16:17C Music and Arts ..... 11:12C Obituaries ..... 1:1B Radio-TV Programs ..... 1:1B School News ..... 19C Society ..... 1:9C Sports ..... 1:7B Theaters ..... 14:15B Travel ..... 17:18C (General News Index, Page 2A)

MRS. TOLBERT, Mother in Queen City

THE WORLD TODAY

Drop Opposition Ballots

MUNICH, Germany, May 15 (AP)—On the eve of the Czechoslovak elections, the American Crusade for Freedom tonight began floating 20 million "ballots of the people's opposition" from high altitude balloons into Czechoslovakia.

Radio Free Europe, which supports the campaign by Czechoslovakia-beamed broadcasts, said it was the second phase of the Crusade's "Operation Veto" which started April 29.

The ballots released today outlined the "ten demands" in the Czech and Slovak languages, advising persons who find them to put them in the official ballot boxes but to "use it as a demonstration of the people's solidarity and as the first of a step-by-step program against the regime."

Chile Police Are Confined

SANTIAGO, Chile, May 15 (AP)—The government today ordered army troops and national police confined to barracks as a precautionary measure against possible violence in the national political strike set for Monday by Chile's largest labor union.

- The Communist-infiltrated Central Labor Union called a general walkout of 48 hours in an effort to force the government to meet these demands:
1. Amnesty for Clotario Blest, president of the union, who is free on bail pending trial on charges of inciting government activities.
  2. Repeal of the law which proscribes communism and under which Blest was arrested.

25,000 Witness Parade In Capital

WASHINGTON, May 15 (AP)—An estimated 25,000 persons, including members of Congress, watched an Armed Forces Day parade of 5,000 servicemen and women along Constitution avenue today.

Bands and marching units made up the parade. No tanks, guns or other military equipment were included.

The Russian delegation, including Maj. Gen. Victor N. Kuvayev who tapped his foot to the beat of the martial music, stood and saluted briskly as the colors passed. In all, 42 representatives of foreign governments were in the reviewing stands.

Nationalist, Red Aircraft Clash

TAIPEH, Sunday, May 16 (AP)—The second clash in a week between Chinese Nationalists and Chinese Communist planes off the coast of Red China was reported yesterday by Nationalist air force headquarters.

Two Nationalist propeller-driven fighters, presumably U. S.-supplied F47 Thunderbolts, briefly attacked four Russian-built MIGs jets off Chekiang Province, 200 miles east of Formosa. The two Nationalist planes got back safely and made no damage claims against the MIGs.

The announcement said the MIGs headed for Ningpo, reported by the Nationalist Defense Ministry to have been developed by the Communists into an important jet base. Last Tuesday, a clash in the same area resulted in damage to one MIG, the Nationalists claimed.

Red Says Three Are 'All Right'

GENEVA, May 15 (AP)—Chinese Communist spokesman said tonight three Americans captured off Hong Kong a year ago are "all right."

The spokesman, Huang Hua, had previously said the three Americans—news correspondents Donald Dixon and Richard Appleby and merchant marine Capt. Ben Krasser—were being held for violating Chinese law.

Huang would not say which law and would not expand on "all right."

WEATHER

WASHINGTON, May 15 (AP)—Weather Bureau report of temperature and rainfall for the 24 hours ended May 15:

| Station           | High | Low | Precip. |
|-------------------|------|-----|---------|
| Charlotte         | 75   | 60  | 0.0     |
| Asheville         | 65   | 45  | 0.0     |
| Apartito          | 82   | 54  | 0.0     |
| Atlanta           | 74   | 57  | 0.0     |
| Birmingham        | 70   | 51  | 0.0     |
| Atlanta-City      | 70   | 51  | 0.0     |
| Boston            | 56   | 37  | 0.0     |
| Boston-City       | 56   | 37  | 0.0     |
| Cambridge         | 56   | 37  | 0.0     |
| Chicago           | 62   | 42  | 0.0     |
| Chicago-Midway    | 62   | 42  | 0.0     |
| Chicago-O'Hare    | 62   | 42  | 0.0     |
| Cincinnati        | 74   | 48  | 0.0     |
| Cleveland         | 74   | 48  | 0.0     |
| Dallas            | 61   | 35  | 0.0     |
| Dallas-Fort Worth | 61   | 35  | 0.0     |
| Dayton            | 65   | 45  | 0.0     |
| Dayton-City       | 65   | 45  | 0.0     |
| Denver            | 65   | 45  | 0.0     |
| Denver-City       | 65   | 45  | 0.0     |
| Des Moines        | 65   | 45  | 0.0     |
| Des Moines-City   | 65   | 45  | 0.0     |
| Detroit           | 74   | 48  | 0.0     |
| Detroit-City      | 74   | 48  | 0.0     |
| El Paso           | 78   | 58  | 0.0     |
| El Paso-City      | 78   | 58  | 0.0     |
| Houston           | 81   | 61  | 0.0     |
| Houston-City      | 81   | 61  | 0.0     |
| Indianapolis      | 74   | 54  | 0.0     |
| Jacksonville      | 63   | 38  | 0.0     |
| Jacksonville-City | 63   | 38  | 0.0     |
| Key West          | 83   | 74  | 0.0     |

CROWD AT FUNERAL—Last-minute arrivals at yesterday's funeral of Sen. Clyde R. Hoey in Shelby were Mrs. Walter George of Georgia, who was wife of the senator from Georgia unable to attend because of illness, her unidentified son, Army Secretary Robert Stevens, wearing horn-rimmed glasses, Mrs. Fred Morrison of Washington, wife of the law partner of the late O. Max Gardner, and Sen. Burnet Maybank of South Carolina. Preceding this group into the church was the Senate delegation which came from Washington by special train. (Observer Staff Photo—Dumbell)

UNC Student Final Respects Paid Red Mortars Killed, 2 Hurt Senator Clyde Hoey In Shooting

Continued From Page 1

istic but somewhat moody and somber. He was wearing a coroner's jacket, impaled by a bullet in the chest, which he held in his hand. The body was delayed a verdict until officers can talk to both of the wounded students. Officers questioned Long but reported no other details. The shooting occurred at 10:30 a.m. on Monday. Hoey was killed at 10:30 a.m. by a mortar shell which struck his car. He was lying on the ground when the mortar shell struck him. He was killed by a mortar shell which struck his car. He was lying on the ground when the mortar shell struck him.

Continued From Page 1

One is tempted to say, 'We shall not see his like again,' yet may we strive for the best that about someone, here sometime, someone will say. 'That man is still Clyde R. Hoey.' Life can scarcely afford a richer accolade. Frays in Shelby were at half past 10. All business closed from 2 o'clock until 7.

SPECIAL TRAIN

The special Washington train with a senatorial party of 40 arrived at 1:35 p.m. The group did not include Vice President Nixon, Sen. William F. Knowland of California, Republican majority leader, Sen. Earl Clements of Kentucky, the Democratic whip; Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia and Sen. Burnet Maybank and John Stennis of South Carolina were in the Senate party led by Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson.

Continued From Page 1

Police Capt. W. D. Blake quoted a source as saying that Davis came to their room at 3:30 a.m. He said the three drank beer and listened to recordings. There was no argument over the shooting and the little discussion except about the topic, Long told the officers. Davis talked hardly at all which was unusual, he said.

Continued From Page 1

Blake said Long told him he was un-armed and that he was in the room briefly, and when he returned found Davis sitting on the edge of a bed clutching a pistol. Blake said the weapon was pointed at him and Davis started firing. He said that although he thought the shot might be blank, he turned and ran and assumed that Hoey followed him. He added that Davis said nothing during the shooting.

Continued From Page 1

Blake quoted Long as saying, 'I don't have any idea in the world' what prompted the shooting.

Continued From Page 1

Other students told Davis movements earlier in the night. Warren Heemann, Baltimore junior and president of the fraternity, said he double dated with Davis last night. He said Davis appeared normal when he dropped Heemann and his date at a sorority house. Heemann said Davis promised to return for him but did not.

Continued From Page 1

Other students said that Davis later joked them in a small-stakes card game at the fraternity house. Some said Davis was in a peculiar state, glassy-eyed and very nervous. The game broke up about 3 a.m.

Continued From Page 1

Other students said that Davis later joked them in a small-stakes card game at the fraternity house. Some said Davis was in a peculiar state, glassy-eyed and very nervous. The game broke up about 3 a.m.

Continued From Page 1

Other students said that Davis later joked them in a small-stakes card game at the fraternity house. Some said Davis was in a peculiar state, glassy-eyed and very nervous. The game broke up about 3 a.m.

Continued From Page 1

Other students said that Davis later joked them in a small-stakes card game at the fraternity house. Some said Davis was in a peculiar state, glassy-eyed and very nervous. The game broke up about 3 a.m.

Continued From Page 1

Other students said that Davis later joked them in a small-stakes card game at the fraternity house. Some said Davis was in a peculiar state, glassy-eyed and very nervous. The game broke up about 3 a.m.

Continued From Page 1

Other students said that Davis later joked them in a small-stakes card game at the fraternity house. Some said Davis was in a peculiar state, glassy-eyed and very nervous. The game broke up about 3 a.m.

Continued From Page 1

Other students said that Davis later joked them in a small-stakes card game at the fraternity house. Some said Davis was in a peculiar state, glassy-eyed and very nervous. The game broke up about 3 a.m.

Continued From Page 1

Other students said that Davis later joked them in a small-stakes card game at the fraternity house. Some said Davis was in a peculiar state, glassy-eyed and very nervous. The game broke up about 3 a.m.

Predicts Lid To Be Kept On Meeting

WASHINGTON, May 15 (AP)—A high Republican official predicted today that the Eisenhower administration will stick by its refusal to bare details of a Jan. 21 Cabinet-level conference that paved the way for Army charges against Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

The official, who asked that he not be named, said he expects the refusal to bring a fight with Democrats on the Senate subcommittee investigating Army accusations that McCarthy and his aides sought favored military treatment for Pvt. G. David Schine, a former consultant.

Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) and other Democrats have demanded full information about the conference, attended by Atty. Gen. Brownell, Deputy Atty. Gen. William Rogers, Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, White House chief of staff Sherman Adams, presidential assistant Gen. Alford Morgan and Army counselor John G. Adams.

John Adams testified that at the meeting, held in Brownell's office, Sherman Adams suggested he put in writing incidents of alleged pro-McCarthyism by his aides. Adams said he was asked to do so by McCarthy and his aides. Roy M. Cohn and Francis P. Carr, to get favors for Schine. From this chronology later developed the Army's formal charges against the McCarthy group.

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Nation's No. 1 Mother Pays Visit To City

Nagle, Dave Garrowsay and others; reception and buffet supper followed by Mrs. J. C. Penny, tour of Rockeferry Center and United Nations headquarters. The award, lunch, attended by four of her sons, and more than a handful of relatives.

"I hardly understand all this furor over me," she added. "I am only an average mother who gave my life to my children, like any mother should. But if they can be 'talked out' from her children, the talking spread to careers and motherhood, homicide and advice to mothers-in-law."

"Yes, I think careers and motherhood will mix if done carefully. Of course, the children come first. But if they can be given the proper care by a working mother, then I think it's all right."

John Adams testified that at the meeting, held in Brownell's office, Sherman Adams suggested he put in writing incidents of alleged pro-McCarthyism by his aides. Adams said he was asked to do so by McCarthy and his aides. Roy M. Cohn and Francis P. Carr, to get favors for Schine. From this chronology later developed the Army's formal charges against the McCarthy group.

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.

Continued From Page 1

McCarthy, who has charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and John Adams with holding Schine as a "hostage" in an effort to halt a "investigation of alleged Communist activities," has called for the "complete story" of what happened at the meeting.