South Korea Agrees To Hold National Vote

By Eddy Gilmore

GENEVA (AP)—South Korea finally agreed today to elections through out divided Korea but laid down conditions which the Communists are sure to reject.

In a speech before the 19-nation conference on Korean peace, South Korean Foreign Minister Pyun Yung-tai outlined a 14-point plan for the unification of his country and the Communist-controlled North.

At least two of the conditions he set forth for the all-Korean elections were expected to be bitterly opposed by the Communists.

One of these was that any elections must be carried out under United Nations supervision and that the U. N. must certify the election results. The Communists have ruled out any U. N. role in Korean peace plans. Another is that all Chinese Communist troops must be withdrawn from North Korea at least one month before the elections but that some U. N. forces should remain in Korea until a unified government achieves effective control over the entire peninsula.

Pyun called for an agreement that "the integrity and independence of the unified, independent and democratic Korea be guaranteed by the United Nations."

Another provision of the South Korean plan would suspend the constitution of the unified country for the South Koreans. The plan proposed that "representation in the all-Korean legislature shall be in proportion to the population of the entire Korea."

The population of South Korea at present is about 20 million and that of North Korea 4 million.

Pyun reflected the earlier proposal of North Korean Foreign Minister Nam II calling for Communist-style elections to be carried out by an All-Korean Commission on which North and South Korea would have equal representation.

"A careful proposal of the Communist proposals reveals a line that while the Communists set a time limit to the withdrawal of foreign forces from Korea, they have carefully avoided to name a time for the elections."

"This means that the Communists seek to perpetuate the division rather than to achieve the unification of the country, if unification cannot be achieved in Communist fashion."

"It further means that the proposed All-Korean Commission will legalize the Communist infiltration and subversive activities in the U. S."

Strategic Air Crews Ready For Any Task

WASHINGTON.—The boss of America's long-range bombing force says his planes and crews are set to strike at targets anywhere in the world.

Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, chief of the Air Force's Strategic Air Command, said yesterday "the readiness of our strategic bombers to strike back on a global scale is a considerable factor."

Gen. LeMay told the Armed Forces Chemical Assn. that his bombers can take off in any kind of weather, "fly direct to within a few hundred feet above any designated point on the globe," and "hit their target when they get there."

The administration's military policy is based on the concept of "massive retaliatory power" as a deterrent to Soviet aggression. LeMay said his command has been assigned the mission of "swift and certain retaliation" against an aggressor.

Want A Hard-Shell Baby?

By ROY KOHN

NEW YORK (AP)—Here's the latest on animals in the news: Soft-hearted zoo-men go for hard-shelled armadillos, some-called dancers pick them, over puma, duck-billed cat re-voos Penelope the platypus.

At Riverhead N. Y., Sidney Schwartz complained Thursday he was up to his ears in armadillos when he saw to his ears in armadillos.

Two lady armadillos, which he bought in order to write a thesis on their birth habits for a New York University doctorate, produced seven armor-plated babies.

Armadillos habitually sleep during daylight hours and whom it is best to avoid.

Prancing about in Putnam Valley, N. Y., yesterday was a puma, dancer, some newsman—and a press agent.

The dancer, Lonnie Young, 26, apparently keeps the puma—a pint-sized panther—in her hotel room. Miss Young said she was switching her night club act with a pylon to the puma—only she didn't know. Just the other day she said, the puma took a bite out of her arm.

Anyway, with newsmen present, the dancer let the puma out of his cage. The puma roared and the news hounds retreated. Miss Young, with a hatchet and cut his throat with a butcher knife, had shown some improvement. But an attendant added she remains in a serious condition.

Mrs. Carroll's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Connor, and her brother James, arrived today from Weymouth, Mass., to be at her bedside and to help make funeral plans for her husband, a Marine captain in 15 years service and their three children, Sara Elizabeth, 6; Mary Kathryn, 5; and Michael Philip Jr., 2 1/2 months.

Neighbors yesterday ruled murder—suicide in the four deaths, but police could establish no motive in the slaying.

Neighbors reported everything appeared peaceful at the Carroll home Thursday evening and the family had watched television. Suddenly the neighbors were attracted by Mrs. Carroll's screams. "It's killing my children," she cried.

One neighbor, S. F. Hutchinson, reported he rushed into the blood-spattered house and found Carroll, a native of Augusta, Ga., with a butcher knife in his hand and with "the widest look I had ever seen" on his face. He said the captain jabbed the knife into his throat before he could reach him.

HANOI, Indochina.—French fighters and bombers today heavily pounded Vietnam bases after the vital Red River Delta after the fall of one defense post. Other soundings hammered at rebels shifting eastward from the crushed fortress of Dien Bien Phu.

Warplanes from land and carrier bases ripped at Communist-held Vietnam's main highway communication leading to the Red River Delta and Hanoi while fighter jets pounded Communist bases.

A French high command spokesman said he would not estimate how heavy were the Viet movements from Dien Bien Phu.

The Vietnams are not marching toward Hanoi, he said. French mobile relief columns crashed through to the aid of the other side of the Communists.

A third outpost defended by a 200-man force was taken yesterday by a battalion of Communist Vietnams attacking supplies and heavy mortars. The lost outpost of Anxa had held out nearly three weeks.

The surrounded outposts of Yen Phay and Coquan are on the fringes of the strategic rice bowl delta where Communist activity has been stepped up since the fall of Dien Bien Phu.

Joe To Spare Ike

'Iron Curtain' Newsmen May Be Subpoenaed In Case

By DON HENDERSON
STURGEON BAY, Wis.—(AP)— Sen. McCarthy says he will not criticize President Eisenhower for what the senator termed "pulling down the Iron Curtain" over administration discussions affecting his role with the Army.

"I will not attack Ike," Wisconsin's Republican junior senator said in reference to his scheduled major address at Fort Atkinson tonight.

He said that if the Senate hears into his dispute with the Army committee he would like to have five newsmen subpoenaed.

He identified these as Homer Bigart, New York Herald-Tribune; columnist Joseph Alsop; Phil Potter of the Baltimore Sun; and Murray Gardner and Al Friendly of the Washington Post.

McCarthy said testimony has disclosed that Army Counsel John Adams had discussed with these men Army announcements released in connection with the current controversy.

PLANS REVIEW
McCarthy said he would review the whole course of his dispute with the Army in his address before a Chamber of Commerce dinner and that he would announce whether his side will go on with the hearings despite the President's executive order forbidding additional testimony on intra-administration discussions.

He indicated he will take the stand but that the appearance of his assistants—Roy Cohn and Francis Carr—will be up to them in view of what the senator has called the Army's "stacked deck."

At Chicago yesterday, McCarthy said the Republican party is "committing slow and painful suicide before the television cameras" in the hearings.

McCarthy said here that the Democrats are being deceived by the transcript of conversations relating to the case and monitored by the Army. He made public marked a change from rules the Democrats on the Senate Investigations subcommittee had agreed to before the hearings started.

The senator said that all members of the subcommittee had agreed in advance that none of the transcript would be made public until they had been submitted to committee counsel and opposing counsel and the attorney general had gone over and trimmed out irrelevant material.

McCarthy said that he still thought Mr. Eisenhower was receiving bad advice on the whole controversy. McCarthy said it would be normal to expect that an executive would receive advice on both extremes of a question and thereby have information which would enable him to arrive at a decision somewhere between them. However, in this case, McCarthy said, all the advice seems to be coming from one extreme.

McCarthy said that during the subcommittee's investigation of alleged subversive activity in Army units.

Owner Didn't Succumb To Her Girlish Charms

EMERYVILLE, Calif.—(AP)—A female impersonator, complete with makeup and fancy underclothes, played decoy for a would-be robber team here yesterday.

Dressed like a woman, Lawrence W. Green, 21, entered a liquor store. There, police said, he ordered an expensive scotch from the owner, Clyde Malling, 42.

While Malling was filling the order, however, James McGregor, 24, and Eugene Clayton, 23, entered the store and told Malling it was a stickup, officers said.

Malling grabbed Green to use as a shield, then reached for a revolver. McGregor and Clayton took a quick hike. Green broke away and hid likewise.

Two Soldiers Die In Highway Wreck

FAYETTEVILLE (AP)—(AP)—Two soldiers were killed today when their automobile and a trailer tractor collided three miles from Fayetteville.

The victims were Capt. Harvey F. Shepard, 22, of Atmore, Ala., and Pfc. Milton O. Mort, 22, of Bishop, Calif.

State highway patrolmen said Shepard was the driver of the car. The identity of the trailer-tractor driver was not immediately available. He was not seriously hurt.

Russell's home state of Georgia now is the only one that permits 18-year-olds to vote. Although the Georgia senator said he is not opposed to an 18-year-old vote as such, he said the decision should be left up to each state individually.

Action Is Halted Abruptly

'Full Study' Set For Army Triple Murder Case

By RICHARD K. O'MALLEY
FRANKFURT, Germany.—(AP)—Chief U. S. Prosecutor Thomas Lianan today abruptly halted further action in the 1946 murder of three American Army officers pending a "full study" of the case.

Deputy Prosecutor William Campfield of Hampton, Mass., yesterday filed murder charges against former Army Capt. James M. Leach, 44, of Lima, Ohio, and said he was forwarding extradition papers to the High Commission at Bonn for action.

The charges accuse Leach of the ax-and-arrow murder Jan. 7, 1946, of Maj. Everett S. Franke, Washington, D. C., Capt. Adrian L. Wessler of New Rochelle, N. Y., and Lt. L. S. Staley, M. Rosewater of Omaha, Neb.

But Lianan, of Boston, Mass., disclosed the extradition request.
