Bob Hope, who likes to consider himself a great lover, says he once went to Harpo Marx to learn the silent one's technique in chasing blondes.

"The trick," Harpo told him, "is to let them get away just before you catch up with them."

And after dropping three perfect pearls of wisdom, Harpo pulled out a pair of shears and snipped a few inches from Hope's necktie.

Then, says Bob, "he dropped his knees and cut a few inches from the bottom of my trousers without regard to the man inside."

Hope, who thinks up much of his own nonsense, says "I hear that Ali Khan has a whole trash can full of used engagement rings. And he might as well include King Farouk in this basket. In the sisterhood he is known as 'Fat Chance'."

He refused to discuss himself, but said a friend once went to Dorothy Lamour and asked her what she thought of him as a great screen lover.

"Hope," she said, "does much better with a yo-yo."

"And that's gratitude for you," screamed Bob when he heard of her remarks. "How can she talk that way after all I've done for her. I once even gave her a solid gold ring. I knew it would fit her because I tore it from the nose of a savage."

Sam Goldwyn and wife just racked up their 29th wedding anniversary. Hear tell a print of "The Caine Mutiny" has arrived at the Columbia Pictures exchange here but is being held under lock and key till word comes to break it out for screening.

... 20th Century Fox will spend $2,500,000 to produce "Woman's World," an all-star job with June Allyson, Clifton Webb, Van Heflin, Lauren Bacall, Cagney, Jean Peters and Fred MacMurray in top spots. This is the highest amount ever budgeted on a picture at the studio.

NEW PICTURE: "Dial M For Murder," puts the shadow of fear over Grace Kelly, Robert Cummings and Ray Milland put the sauce in the pudding and one of them is the killer.

Spurs once worn by the late Tom Mix now grace the boots of Gary Cooper. A fan who owned them sent them to Cooper who is wearing them in "Vera Cruz."

On his April 22 "Dragnet" show, Jack Webb said something about having seen a "lousy" movie. Texas theater owners, knowing that Webb is making a "Dragnet" movie, called on him to apologize. And lousy the movie may have been, Webb did, calling his statement "inevitable."

... Liberate trained out on a 12 city tour with a piano in his compartment. Railroad men say it's the first time a piano has ever been placed in a drawing room.

Rabies Clinic Sites Listed

Wardens of the City Pet Dept. will hold 18 anti-rabies inoculation clinics this week in an effort to get all dogs in Charlotte inoculated before July 1. Tom Revelle, superintendent, said today.

"These clinics are being held in accordance with state law that require dogs to be inoculated each spring, and the Legislature amended the law to provide a penalty of $1 for dogs inoculated by rabies inspectors after July 1," Mr. Revelle said.

"The reason for this effort by the state is to protect dogs during the hot months when the incidents of rabies is higher," Revelle said.

The schedule for the weekend follows:

Thursday, 6 p.m., Monroe Rd. and Vinewood; 6:30 p.m., Washburn and Monroe Rd.; 7 p.m., Briar Creek and Commonwealth.

Friday, 6 p.m., Double Oaks Rd. and Person St.; Statesville Ave. and McCall St.; Fannie Circle and Gene Ave.; 6:30 p.m., Newcastle and Hunter Sts., McCall St. and W. Liddell Sts., and Skyland Ave. and Grier St.; 7 p.m., Smith and W. 9th Sts. and Billingsley Rd. and Walker St.
