French Planes Bomb Vietminh

By LARRY ALLEN
HANOL, Indochina (AP)—U.S. supplied Privateer bombers dropped tons of fragmentation bombs on Vietminh troops crushingly in today on Dien Bien Phu. Dive bombers and fighters from an aircraft carrier in the Gulf of Tonkin joined in a massive air assault on the rebel lines.

A French army spokesman said the fragmentation bombs, which burst into thousands of splinters, tore big gaps in the Communist Vietminh ranks. The Vietminh had regrouped and bolstered their attack positions earlier today but gave no indication when they might unleash their next massive assault.

The Privateers, each carrying four 500-pound bombs, roared over freshly dug Vietminh trenches to drop their deadly load. Other bombers from the carrier Bois Belleau—the former American warship Belleau Wood—concentrated on Vietminh artillery and antiaircraft positions.

The French spokesman said there was no important land fighting during the day.

Kidnaping Case Goes To Jury

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Six men and six women today deliberated the case of two former private detectives charged with kidnaping a San Francisco real estate broker, Leonard Moskowitz, last January.

Moskowitz was rescued six hours later by alert police who spotted a man making a post-midnight rat-a-tat call from a street-corner telephone booth. No ransom was paid. First $500,000, then $300,000 had been demanded. The telephone was Leonard, who led police to Moskowitz, who was guarded by Jackson in a rented house.

Jackson's defense was that there was no kidnaping—that Moskowitz, 36, dreamed it all up as a hoax to extort money from his father, Maurice Moskowitz.

Learned he was hired by Jackson as a private investigator, and that when he realized he was involved in a kidnaping he stayed with it in fear of his own life and those of his wife and stepson.

The jury got the case yesterday afternoon and deliberated until nearly midnight.

Under California's Little Lindbergh Law, the lightest possible sentence upon conviction is life imprisonment without possibility of parole. Conviction of kidnaping with bodily harm could mean the death sentence.

McCarthy Misused Data, Says Brownell

Disclosure of FBI Report Ruled Out

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. Brownell ruled today that neither an FBI report on security risks at Ft. Monmouth, N. J., nor a document from Sen. McCarthy should be made public. He said the Senator's paper made "unauthorized use" of secret material in the FBI report.

Both documents have been subjects of bitter controversy at hearings by the subcommittee investigating the Army-McCarthy row. Brownell made his ruling in a letter to subcommittee Chairman Mundt (R-S.D.).

Brownell said both documents contain confidential information and it would be "contrary to the public interest" to make them public.

He added that a check with the

JOSEPH WELCH

The following is the transcript from the official record as Collier, an assistant to special counsel Ray Jenkins answered questions put by Welch, legal counsel to the Army. Under discussion was a letter introduced by Sen. Joe McCarthy purporting to be a spy warning sent by the FBI to the Army:

WELCH: Let us have it straight from the shoulder. So far as you know, it is a carbon copy of precisely nothing?

COLLIER: So far as I know, it is, yes, but that again is a conclusion.

WELCH: So far as you know, this document in this court room spent yesterday by Senator McCarthy is a perfect phony, is that right?

COLLIER: That is your conclusion . . . I

WELCH: Now, if I were to use simple words and say to you in this document the real McCoy or a phony, which of those two words would you use?

COLLIER: I would pick neither.

Dulles Shifts Goal

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has virtually abandoned all thought of effective united action to help French and native forces block Communist conquest in the Democratic state of Viet Nam.

Secretary of State Dulles now is driving toward a collective security system in Southeast Asia designed primarily to seal off and protect the states of Laos and Cambodia, and as far as Indochina is concerned, with respect to the third Indochina state, Viet Nam, which has been the principal battleground of the 8-year-old Indochina War, the question of what to do both in the military field and in the diplomatic House leaders at the State Department last night.

Today the Indochina crisis was believed to be the major subject for discussion at a meeting of the National Security Council of which President Eisenhower is chairman.

Dulles' return here from the Geneva conference Tuesday night presumably meant a new look at the situation on the part of the President and responsible cabinet officers in the light of the secretary's own appraisal.

President Eisenhower told a news conference yesterday that Dulles and his policies had Eisenhower's unqualified support. He said the secretary is actively pressing forward his plans for a united front of anti-Communist nations in Southeast Asia. He said progress in this project might influence events at the Geneva conference where France and other Allied countries are about to enter negotiations with Red China, Russia and the Vietnamese Red regime of Ho Chi Minh on possible ending of the war.

Dulles reportedly told the congressional group that despite differences with the British and the French over Far Eastern questions American leaders should always bear in mind the vital importance of maintaining close cooperation with those countries in Europe.

The over-all picture which persons present said Dulles gave was one of aiming for collective protection for as much of Indochina as can be guaranteed against Communist conquest.

Gillette Says Geneva Sharp Defeat For U.S.

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Guy Gillette (D-Iowa) told a national Democratic conference today the United States suffered "an astounding and unprecedented reversal" at Geneva on the question of Indochina. He blamed it on what he called a "split" Republican administration lacking a foreign policy.

He said the 1952 election put one group of Republicans in charge of the executive branch and another group in Congress. The "lucky" at Geneva, he said, is only the most glaring example of what price America is paying in the struggle against Communist imperialism.

Secretary of State Dulles yesterday the Geneva talks are about as anticipated and that he knows of nothing that has happened to justify an interpretation that the United States had suffered any defeat.

RACKS DULLES
President Eisenhower told his news conference a few hours later he has unqualified faith in Dulles. He said no one can count a battle lost while the battle is still going on.

Gillette said selection of a Democratic Congress in November would not cure "the split" in the Republican party, which may well be incurable, but it will heal the breach in our government and allow the President to lead America in the leadership of the free world.

Gillette, a Foreign Relations Committee member, said the country will live to regret the administration's decision not to use the United Nations machinery to halt the Indochina war.

"We could have hauled the Red aggressor before the bar of world opinion," he said, "but we preferred to revert to outworn methods of military intervention."

Authoritative informants said Gillette's remarks were prepared for a panel on "American security" at the second day's session of the conference. The party will come to a close tonight with a $100-a-plate Jefferson-Jackson dinner at which former President Truman will be an informal speaker.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson and Rep. Sam Rayburn, Texas leaders of the minority party in Senate and House, are billed for "major speeches" to pep up the drive for election of Democratic majorities in Congress in November.

Adlai E. Stevenson, the party's 1952 presidential candidate, was originally listed for a talk, but he did not come on advice of a physician. He is recovering from an operation.

Later yesterday, Chairman Stephens

Plane Carrying Ten Missing

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)—The Navy said today it had recovered the wreckage of its flying boat, with ten men aboard, missing in the Gulf of Mexico.

The plane, a PBM patrol bomber, was on a routine training flight. It was last heard from at about 6 o'clock last night and at that time reported its position as 75 miles east of Brownsville.

The Navy said an extensive search of the Gulf area is being made.

The plane carried full sufficient to keep it aloft until 4 a.m. today.

The Navy withheld the names of the ten men aboard.

Dulles To Report On Conference

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department said today Secretary Dulles "will make a report to the American people" tomorrow night on the Geneva conference and the Indochina crisis. He will speak over radio and TV networks at 8:30 p.m. EST.

Press officer Lincoln White said the speech would run for half an hour and that the precise broadcasting arrangements are still being worked out. Dulles will speak from a television studio here.

BIRTHDAY PRESENT

DEVIZES, England (AP)—The city magistrates decided yesterday to restore George Dobson's driving permit as a 96th birthday present. They revoked it last August after finding Dobson guilty of careless riding on his motorcycle.
