

JOVENILE-DOMESTIC Leonard Lundquist Killed In Crash Of CAP Plane

Another Dies in Accident

Flier Well-Known In Charlotte

Captain H. Leonard Lundquist of the Civil Air Patrol, a well-known business man of Gastonia in peacetime, and his radio operator, Sergeant David Stephen Williams, also of the CAP, were killed in a crash of their patrol plane yesterday at their base on the North Carolina coast.

The report received at North Carolina CAP wing headquarters here from Major F. E. Dawson, wing commander, gave few details other than to explain that these men were checking out a patrol plane that had been undergoing overhaul.

Captain Lundquist bought a home on the coast several months ago and removed his family there from Gastonia. He was explained at the wing headquarters.

Littlejohn Returns Here To Recuperate

PRIVATE LITTLEJOHN

Released from an Army hospital at Keesler Field, Miss., after ten weeks of treatment, F. N. Littlejohn Jr. formerly with the Associated Press Bureau here, returned today to spend two weeks visiting his parents and wife while convalescing.

Mr. Littlejohn is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Littlejohn, the former being Charlotte's chief of police detective. This soldier's wife is making her home with his parents for the duration.

Entering the Army service in February, Private Littlejohn was assigned to the public relations office at Keesler Field, near Pilot, Miss., a training post of the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command.

Doctor Paid $150 Bill

Originally Requested $250 From County

Last week the County Commissioners received a bill for $250 from a local physician for treating a patient in an accident case.

SAILOR COLLECTS SOUVENIRS—No, not the lady, she is his sister, Miss Mary Helen Grier, wearing a Hula Hula skirt from Hawaii. The sailor—if you have seen him—is Radioman Third Class Samuel R. Grier, who joined the Navy in 1940 and has seen some of this world. Wherever he went he collected souvenirs. Some he brought home; some he shipped to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Grier, 1314 The Plaza.

Much-Traveled Sailor Possesses Many Curios

Samuel R. Grier, radioman third class, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Grier of 1314 The Plaza, joined the Navy in January, 1940. Because he thought he could help Uncle Sam and see the world at the same time, he has done both.

You can believe that easily by seeing the service bars on the left of his jacket, and the souvenirs he has with or brought home. And by the stories he tells.

Creek Fund Is Set Up

The County Commissioners today authorized the Drainage Commission to set aside $7,300 to be used during the fiscal year beginning July 1 for general dredging of creeks for health reasons.

Sixth Dies In Traffic

Number Equals Entire Fatalities of '42

The sixth traffic fatality for this year, as compared with six automobile deaths in the whole of last year, occurred last night and caused Chief Walter F. Anderson of the City Police Department to issue a warning to motorists.

Hasell Lee Livingston, three-year-old Negro child, of Cherry St., was knocked down and run over by an automobile operated by Sylvester Johnson, sixteen-year-old Negro, 224 Cherry St., at Cherry and 1st Sts. about 8:20 P. M. last night.

Five of the persons killed by automobiles here this year have been pedestrians and the other of the toll was riding a bicycle at the time of the accident.

Air Raid Fund Carried Over

The County Commissioners today granted a request of the Mecklenburg County Civil Defense Council that an unpaid balance appropriate for the local air raid warning system be carried over from this fiscal year to the new one.

Wilmington Regains Former Place In The Sun As Shipbuilding Center

WILMINGTON—Ever since Steed Bonnet, the insane pirate, fetched his ships into the Cape Fear to careen and repair them, which was long before the town was founded, Wilmington has been a ship town—building, repairing, loading and unloading ships.

NOTE—This is the first of six articles written by Reporter Tim Bridgen after a visit to Wilmington and the gigantic North Carolina Shipbuilding Co. Information regarding operations of the shipbuilding company is published with approval of the United States Maritime Commission. The second in this series will be published in The News tomorrow.

Law Blocks Move For Separation

Committee Gets Attorney's Rule

By DICK YOUNG
Charlotte News Staff Writer

City Councilmen and County Commissioners have no alternative and are blocked by the law in any plans for division of the domestic relations and juvenile court and for appointment of a judge to handle juvenile cases.

Explanation of the law was given today by City Attorney C. W. Tillet following a conference yesterday of the City-County Court Committee when it definitely was established that any proposal for appointment of an individual to preside exclusively over the juvenile court is "out."

Present for the conference, which was called by Commissioner J. Caldwell McDonald, were members of the court committee, including Commissioner McDonald, a nod Coconino and A. Baker and Claude
