

.S. Would Blackball Red China From U.N.

Dulles Says Veto Planned If Necessary

Opposes Plan For U. S. To Withdraw

WASHINGTON (P)—Secretary of State Dulles said today the United States would use its veto, if necessary, to keep Red China out of the U. N. Security Council.

Dulles expressed complete confidence the Red China regime would be unable to gain admittance at the fall session to any of the principal U. N. organizations, including the Assembly.

At a news conference, Dulles denounced the Peking regime for flouting the United Nations in Korea, supporting the Communists in Indonesia and generally failing to fulfill international obligations.

Dulles said firmly, in answer to questions, he did not believe there would be any occasion for the United States to withdraw from the United Nations if Red China is admitted, as Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) has proposed.

Talk of pulling out of the United Nations, he said, strikes a note of defeatism which is entirely unjustified because the United States and like-minded countries have a powerful case for blocking Red China's membership.

President Eisenhower said yesterday he is "completely and unalterably opposed under the present situation to the admission of Red China to the United Nations."

His stand was believed to have warranted off likelihood of any early Senate action to put Congress on record with formal notice of American withdrawal if Red China should be admitted, as suggested by Knowland.

Knowland himself has been cool.

A UNIQUE PEDESTAL is used by Officer Bob Porter as he directs traffic from atop scrap paper, which spilled at the intersection of Mint and Morehead Sts. when a truck carrying the paper toppled over. Officer C. R. Benfield looks over the situation which brought a charge of reckless driving against Charles Leroy Ferguson, 24, of 4313 Dinglewood Ave. The truck struck a Nash Rambler, operated by James L. Williamson Jr., 33, of 1408 Iris Dr., which was stopped in the line of traffic at the intersection. The Nash received approximately $300 damage, police said. The accident occurred around 9 a. m. Damage to the truck, which is the property of I. V. Stuphin Co., was estimated at around $200 by police.

He told the Senate internal security subcommittee that it was not necessary for him to have the permission of Communist authorities for a visit to Yenan, then the Communist stronghold in China, and that he made no arrangements with Communists in order to get in.

VOYE 8-1

The court upheld dismissal of the key count by a vote of 8-1. Chief Judge Harold M. Stephens dissented.

We are of opinion that this is a first count of the indictment.

Miami Case Unsolved

Many Questioned In Slaying

MIAMI, Fla. (P)—More than 30 men being held by police as homicide detectives sought today to crack the kidnap-murder of 7-year-old Judith Ann Roberts.

Lt. Chester Eldredge, head of the homicide bureau, said however that his men were not a "definite" suspect.

The office still had about 40 men listed for questioning, all known sex perverts and child molesters.

The body of blue-eyed Judith Ann was savagely beaten and ravished when found yesterday a few blocks from Miami's City Hall at Dinner Key.

"We will work around the clock until the vicious killer is in jail," said Eldredge.

A report that the FBI was calling signals in the case was denied by Edward J. Powers, special agent in charge of the Miami office. He pointed out that the FBI lacked jurisdiction because the body was not taken across state lines and there was no ransom demand.

One suspect seized in a South Miami bar when the bartender noticed blood spots on his clothing was among those still being held. Laboratory tests were being made of his clothing. He denied being head of the crime.

Judith Ann, daughter of a Baltimore lawyer and labor leader, was raped and murdered and her body left in a palm-thicket off fashionable South Bayshore Drive, a few miles south of downtown Miami.

Five hours earlier she had been taken in her sleep from the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rosenberg, about 2 1/2 miles away in Miami's southwest section. She had been strangled, beaten on the head and criminally assaulted. A night gown had been pinned from her body.

American Airlines Pilots Call Strike

CHICAGO (P)—The AFL Airline Pilots Assn. announced today it had called a system-wide strike against American Airlines for midnight July 15 to force an eight-hour limit to a pilot's continuous flying day.

C. N. Saven, union president, said the pilots will quit work at 11:30 p. m. July 15 in a walkout designed "to cause the company to cease and desist from scheduling pilots contrary to the historic rule prohibiting scheduling pilots to fly more than eight continuous hours."

Ike Names Board In Atomic Strike

WASHINGTON (P)—President Eisenhower today named a three-member fact-finding board to investigate the strike of 4,500 atomic energy plant workers. The board began its inquiry at once.

Appointment of the board, headed by former Atomic Energy Commission member Thomas Keith Glennan, is a major step toward ending walkouts at the Oak Ridge, Tenn., and Paducah, Ky., plants which threaten production of the vital ingredient for atomic and hydrogen bombs.

The government can apply for a court order halting the walkout as soon as the board makes its report.

Under a presidential order the board has until July 20 to complete its inquiry but White House counsel Bernard M. Shanley told reporters the report undoubtedly would be completed long before then.

There was unofficial speculation the government would seek an injunction by the end of this week.

The strike directly involves the CIO Chemical Workers' Union and the Carbon Chemicals Co., a disciple of Union Carbide & Carbon Corp.

President Eisenhower told news conference yesterday a continued strike would put the United States at a serious disadvantage with its competitors in the atomic weapons race.

Mayor Calls Meeting On Crossing Problem

BY DICK YOUNG

Charlotte News Staff Writer

In an effort to give impetus to the city's program of grade-crossing eliminations, Mayor Van Every today called a meeting of Chamber of Commerce representatives at his office next Tuesday morning.

In disclosing plans for the meeting with members of the Chamber of Commerce Executive Committee and other officials, Mayor said that he hoped to give them additional information regarding the city's overall plan for unobstructing the midtown district.

One of the first steps in this overall program is the proposed construction of a crossline south of the city extending from Griffith Station on the Southern's Columbia Division line to near the Municipal Airport on the railroad's main line.

Construction of this crossline would eliminate the operation of Southern Railway freight trains on the east side of the central business district.

It is expected that the question of the relocation of the Southern's freight terminal recently destroyed by fire will come up at this conference.

The Chamber of Commerce recently won on record asking the City Council to request the Southern to relocate the terminal and move it from its present location at the foot of E. 3rd St. off College St.

The city government is now in

Bill To Extend Unemployment Pay Argued

WASHINGTON (P)—Democrats planned floor fights today in both the House and Senate to try to increase unemployment insurance benefits, but their prospects appeared dim.

The House scheduled action on a bill by Rep. Daniel A. Reed (R-N.Y.) to extend unemployment compensation coverage to about four million additional workers in smaller businesses. The Senate called up a bill to create a reserve fund from which states could borrow to tide them over temporary emergencies caused by heavy drains on unemployment insurance funds.

Democrats led by Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass.) and Rep. Forand (D-R.I.) prepared amendments to both of these bills to try to write in an increase in benefits and longer payment periods for the jobless.

Neither bill as it stands now would change benefits.

Forand said in an interview that President Eisenhower has called for action along the lines of his proposed amendments, but that Eisenhower has tried to "pass the buck to the states" to improve the program, a federal-state undertaking, Eisenhower has urged that state legislatures act to raise jobless benefits.

Forand said there is no ideological barrier.

Key Count Against Lattimore Invalid

WASHINGTON (P)—The U. S. Court of Appeals today upheld the dismissal of two perjury charges against Owen Lattimore, including the key count, but ordered two other counts reinstated.

The court of appeals agreed with U. S. District Judge Luther W. Youngdahl that the key count, charging Lattimore swore falsely when he said he was not a Communist sympathizer or promoter of Communist causes, was invalid.

The appeals court also upheld dismissal of a charge that Lattimore committed perjury when he told the Senate internal security subcommittee that it was not necessary for him to have the permission of Communist authorities for a visit to Yenan, then the Communist stronghold in China, and that he made no arrangements with Communists in order to get in.

Godfrey Show To Take Vacation; Split Denied

NEW YORK (P)—The Arthur Godfrey and His Friends Wednesday night television show is going to take an eight week vacation.

The TV star announced it on his weekly show last night while denying rumors that the show was breaking up.

Asserting that he had heard rumors all day yesterday that the troupe was being disbanded, Godfrey denied it emphatically, but said the show's cast would begin a vacation after the July 14th appearance on CBS-TV.

Meanwhile, the Boston Record carried a story by TV Editor Joseph M. Purcell saying that Godfrey would break up the troupe because of dissatisfaction with scenario Marion Marlowe and because of personal plans of another singer on the program.

The second singer was identified by the paper as Lu Ann Sims, whose engagement recently was announced.

The Record quoted an unidentified CBS executive as saying "Marion is giving orders now, not taking them. She has refused to sing any more duets with Frank Parker. Godfrey has been

Puerto Ricans Given Terms For Shooting

WASHINGTON (P)—Four Puerto Rican terrorists who shot up the House of Representatives March 1 and wounded five of its members today were given maximum prison sentences ranging up to 75 years.

A fiery brunette, Lolita Lebron, 34, self-styled leader of the group, received a sentence of 16 years, 8 months, to 30 years.

Her three male companions received sentences of from 25 to 75 years each.

U. S. District Judge Alexander Holtzoff said he felt maximum sentences were justified because the crime was "so heinous, so infamous, so daring and so atrocious as to shock the conscience of the nation."

The longer sentences for the three men resulted from the fact that a jury convicted them last month on five charges each of assault with intent to kill and five charges each of assault with a dangerous weapon.

Mrs. Lebron was convicted only on five charges of assault with a dangerous weapon.

Before hearing their sentences, the four Puerto Ricans protested anew that they merely sought a demonstration in behalf of Puerto Rican independence and did not intend to kill anyone.

In their own minds, the Puerto Ricans said, they did not feel they were guilty of any crime.

Judge Holtzoff took a different view. He called the pistol attack on the House "dastardly, wicked and ruthless." Except for the skillful work of surgeons, the judge said, the Puerto Ricans would have been before him to hear death sentences. Instead of sentences on lesser charges.

Their lawyers said they would file notices of appeal.

The men are:

Rafael Cancel Miranda, 25; Andres Figueroa Cordero, 28; and Irving Flores Rodriguez, 28.

All are from New York City, as is Mrs. Lebron, 34.

Testimony was taken during the dramatic two-week trial from the four defendants and from the five wounded congressmen—Rep. Clifford Davis (D-Tenn.), Alvin H. Bentley (R-Mich.), George H. Fallon (D-Md.), Ben F. Jensen (R-Iowa), and Kenneth A. Roberts (D-Ala.).

EVENING PRAYER

Our Father God, Thou great Companion of our souls, we would draw nigh unto Thee, Grant us an awareness of Thy presence with us. Use us to the end that others may learn to know and to love Thee. Help them to put their confidence in Thee through Christ, our blessed Redeemer, in whose name we pray. Amen.

SEVEN KILLED

MADRID (P)—Seven persons were killed and 20 injured when an electric train collided yesterday with a freight train at Los Molinos, a village near Madrid.

But were not released by the Navy until this week through nozzles rigged on deck and in the superstructure, the ship is able to wash down its decks with salt water. The washing was put to use March

1, according to the new Navy release, when several ships were caught in an atomic rain following H-bomb tests. Hatches were closed and the crew sent below while the ships were washed off.
