

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS

 FINAL

Largest Evening Newspaper In The Two Carolinas Charlotte, North Carolina, Saturday, November 1, 1958

44 Pages—Price Ten Cents

Date With China RABAT, Morocco (P)—The Moroccan government today announced it is opening diplomatic relations with Communist China.

Tokyo Strike TOKYO (P)—Kyodo News Service's labor union today struck for one hour. A union spokesman said 1,400 members of the union will strike again for four hours Nov. 6 if management does not hike wages 10 per cent. They now average $66 a month.

U.S. In Project? CAIRO (P)—The weekly newspaper Akhbar Elyom today said the United States was considering participation in Egypt's Asswan high dam project.

Chinese Offer JAKARTA, Indonesia (P)—Red China has offered capital and technicians to build a steel factory in this country, Indonesian legislator K. H. Daehlan said today.

Philip Home LEUCHARS, Scotland (P)—Prince Philip arrived by Comet jetliner today after his three-day visit to Canada. He drove off to meet Queen Elizabeth II at Meigle, a Perthshire village.

Greyhound Talks CHICAGO (P)—Greyhound Corp. and union negotiators scheduled another meeting today seeking new contract agreements for some 12,000 bus drivers, terminal and maintenance employees.

Threat To Reds? MOSCOW (P)—The Soviet Union today accused Iran of preparing to sign a new military treaty with the United States "which directly endangers" Russia's southern border.

Slight Delay AMMAN, Jordan (P)—Air, road and telephone communications between Jordan and the United Arab Republic were restored today after an interruption of over three months.

Trawler Lost RANGOON, Burma (P)—The fishing trawler Akshima Maru with 15 crewmen was feared lost in a gale in the Gulf of Martaban today. Planes and ships were searching.

McElroy In Athens ATHENS (P)—U. S. Defense Secretary Neil McElroy arrived here by plane today for a four-day visit with Greek government and American officials.

Three-Way Personality

Like a football triple threat, Herman Moore ran wild last night at the coliseum in a combination of ice hockey, Halloween and politics. The banner indicates his party, as he's campaign manager for Dave Clark, who seeks the 10th U.S. District House seat.

Classes Split Up Oakhurst Students To Meet At Ruins

Classroom arrangements have been made for 817 Oakhurst County Elementary students who saw their school building go up in flames early yesterday. The 15 classrooms set up at Oakhurst in the gymnasium, agriculture building and cafeteria, Mr. Wilson said. Scores of the students still can't get to school today.

3 Children Burn To Death

Three Negro children were burned to death in a fire that broke out in the home of Mrs. Clara Legett, 214 S. 2nd St., in the city of Raleigh, N.C., today. The children were identified as Richard, 2, Sterling D., 4, and Clarence, 4. Their mothers are all working in the North.

It's Green Pages For Radio, TV

Table with 2 columns: Category and Value. Includes Books (11-A), Classified (1-6C), Comics (1-6C), Crossword Puzzle (7B), Earl Wilson (14-A), Editorials (4-A), Obituaries (3-A), Radio-TV (5-8A), Social Security Game (14-A), Sports (12-13-A), Theaters (6-8-B), To Your Good Health (11-A), Worry Clinic (14-A).

Our Weather

Cloudy and cool with occasional rain this afternoon and tonight. Sunday partly cloudy and cool. Low this morning 50. High today 57. Low tomorrow morning 50. High tomorrow 57. Low today 50. High today 57. Low tomorrow morning 50. High tomorrow 57.

Strangler Questioned Anew

LOS ANGELES — Harvey Glattman, the confessed rapist-strangler of three young women, faces questioning in the unsolved slaying of a fourth woman today. Police yesterday brought the man, but failed to identify him as the slayer of a woman who was strangled Monday night. A high-way patrolman, happened by on a motorcycle as Glattman struggled beside a car with his fourth intended victim, Miss Lorraine Vigil, 24, a model like two of his three victims.

9-Day Ordeal Ends For 7 More Miners

All In Good Condition Despite Some Injuries

SPRINGHILL, N. S. (P)—Seven more miners—incidentally withstanding nine days of entombment—were rescued today from the depths of a wrecked coal mine. Amazed rescue workers said that although some were injured all appeared in good condition considering the time they had been trapped without food or water. Some even appeared in better shape than 12 brought out Thursday after six days of hunger and thirst.

Classes Split Up

Oakhurst Students To Meet At Ruins

Classroom arrangements have been made for 817 Oakhurst County Elementary students who saw their school building go up in flames early yesterday. The 15 classrooms set up at Oakhurst in the gymnasium, agriculture building and cafeteria, Mr. Wilson said.

3 Children Burn To Death

Three Negro children were burned to death in a fire that broke out in the home of Mrs. Clara Legett, 214 S. 2nd St., in the city of Raleigh, N.C., today. The children were identified as Richard, 2, Sterling D., 4, and Clarence, 4. Their mothers are all working in the North.

It's Green Pages For Radio, TV

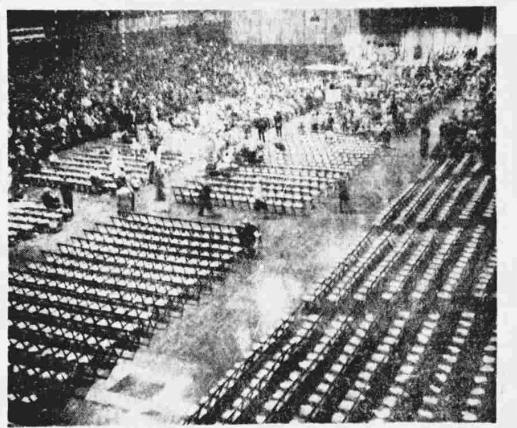

Table with 2 columns: Category and Value. Includes Books (11-A), Classified (1-6C), Comics (1-6C), Crossword Puzzle (7B), Earl Wilson (14-A), Editorials (4-A), Obituaries (3-A), Radio-TV (5-8A), Social Security Game (14-A), Sports (12-13-A), Theaters (6-8-B), To Your Good Health (11-A), Worry Clinic (14-A).

Our Weather

Cloudy and cool with occasional rain this afternoon and tonight. Sunday partly cloudy and cool. Low this morning 50. High today 57. Low tomorrow morning 50. High tomorrow 57. Low today 50. High today 57. Low tomorrow morning 50. High tomorrow 57.

Strangler Questioned Anew

LOS ANGELES — Harvey Glattman, the confessed rapist-strangler of three young women, faces questioning in the unsolved slaying of a fourth woman today. Police yesterday brought the man, but failed to identify him as the slayer of a woman who was strangled Monday night. A high-way patrolman, happened by on a motorcycle as Glattman struggled beside a car with his fourth intended victim, Miss Lorraine Vigil, 24, a model like two of his three victims.

President's Baltimore Speech Only Half-FHS 7,000-Seat Army

GOP Jumps On Employment In Stretch Run To Election

The battle for control of Congress went into its final weekend today with Republican campaigners arriving with fresh economic ammunition in the form of another big drop in unemployment. President Eisenhower swung the news of a 200,000 decline in joblessness during October in a coast-to-coast television address from Baltimore Friday night.

Stabbing Head Police Blotter In Busy Night

Halloween pranksters kept looting and police and fire department personnel on the run last night. A 16-year-old boy was given an emergency operation at Presbyterian Hospital after he was stabbed in the side while waiting in line to buy tickets to a late show at a downtown theater.

Repentant Author Cleared For Prize

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet Press Agency Tass today says Boris Pasternak has been cleared to receive the Nobel prize. The announcement that Pasternak had been cleared to receive the prize was made by the Soviet Press Agency today.

Red Light Pause Costs Motorist

From AP Reports: It proved costly for David Brown of Madison, Mich., who stopped justly behind a police car investigating an accident. The police finished their work, asked Dutton what he wanted. The motorist replied he was just waiting for the light to change. He was the only red light was the one atop the police car.

Chain Reaction

Kenneth Wallington, 8, never expected such a reaction when he jumped a small firecracker through a street lamp hole and touched it off in London. The bang ignited an underground gas leak, it is reported, and is blamed in the sidewalk, houses, cooled and drain covers were popped. A street was evacuated.

Liquid Treat

A small girl, about 6, who shall be a main anonymous, traipsed

BORIS PASTERNAK

his voluntary refusal to accept the Nobel prize.

Still Rapped

Pasternak says that he is bound to Russia by his birth, his wife, and that he cannot visit his late father from her.

Chain Reaction

Kenneth Wallington, 8, never expected such a reaction when he jumped a small firecracker through a street lamp hole and touched it off in London.

Liquid Treat

A small girl, about 6, who shall be a main anonymous, traipsed