

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS

THOMAS L. ROBINSON	President and Publisher
BRODIE S. GRIFFITH
ROBERT H. LAMPER	Advertising Director
CECIL PRINCE
PERRY MORGAN
R L. Young JR.	Managing Editor

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1958

Open The Hedgerows And There It Is

there is such a thing as an esthetic tragedy in Charlotte it is the concealing of a magnificent public library bearing of one of middle of magnificent public library bearing of the library itself is a masterpiece of see and symmetry. It is contemporary sign at its best. The structure is both corative and functional. One can see in the contemporary of the contempor

A Bigger Incubator For Bright Students

on.

Still. in an era of great and good efrts to assist handicapped students, the ea of similar assistance to the talented startling to some. Such programs are

Is It Time To Talk Of 'Beesy' Days?

NOTHING gets written about more on VEV. editorial pages than the weather. In spring we inky wretches, like most people, anticipate the delights of summer in summer the beauty of autumn, in autumn the sternness of wind.

OH, THOU BLISSFUL IGNORANCE

Charlotte's Harry Golden: Portrait Of A Pleasant Myth

ONLY IN AMERICA

Drew Pearson's Merry-Go-Round The same week the Golden Vertical Negro Plan appeared in the lisraelite. Said Golden: What is all the fuses about? As long as we don't have to sit with Negro. Same of the lost ten tribes of 1s racil.

Golden's sense of humor is lest end. He loves the South, but does not mind a terse, often harsh, dissecting of the region and pradictions of the lost ten tribes of 1s racil.

Golden's sense of humor is lest end. He loves the South, but does not mind a terse, often harsh, dissecting of the region and pradictions and the lost of the social drive of the social drive

"Briefly, It Says, 'Have You Ever Thought Of Trying Non-Fiction?""

People's Platform

'Ike And His Ilk' Are Allied With Commies

Let 'Em Eat Cake

The Unemployed?

Stassen Tells Ike To Negotiate Now

Diplomats Agree

Washington Pipeline