

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS

THOMAS L. ROBINSON	President and Publisher
BRODIE S. GRIFFITH	General Manager
ROBERT H. LAMPEE	Advertising Director
CECIL PRINCE	Editor
PERRY MORGAN	Associate Editor
R. L. YOUNG JR.	Managing Editor

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 26, 1958

Let's All Join The 'Game Of Politics'

Let's All Join The 'Game Of Politics'

O'NE of Meklenburg's sweet little old Alladies was asked some time ago if she intended to vote in a certain election.

"Oh. I never vote," she flustered. "It only encourages 'em'."

Sweet little old ladies to the contrary notwithstanding, something is encouraging candidates to splash heading into the political surf in 1958 after an amazing spell of "september Morn" hestiation.

This sudden vigor in an activity cursed in the recent past by an almost uncanny timidity is a welowen sign of life.

In the State Senate race alone, old alliances are dissolving and interesting, new cohesions are taking slape. The House race, newly vacated by Reps. Vogler and Lave, has suddenly attracted the attention of all sorts of hopefuls.

Traditional alguments which, together and lave, has suddenly attracted the attention of all sorts of hopefuls.

Traditional alguments which, together and Lave, has suddenly attracted the attention of all sorts of bosefuls, we captions are taking value and the strength is one reason. Recent mutnies
in the ranks of the Democratic Old Guard is another reason. But more important is the emergence of new faces and new interest on the part of rank amateurs.

There is even a tiny possibility that the wheelers and 'calears of Mecklenburg politics has for the penceratic Old Guard is another reason. But more important is the emergence of new faces and new interest on the part of rank
amateurs.

There is even a tiny possibility that the wheelers and 'calears of Mecklenburg politics and the recent political history seem to the ranks of the Democratic Old Guard is another reason. Recent mutnies
in the ranks of the Democratic Old
Guard is another reason. Recent mutnies
in the ranks of the Democratic Old
Guard is another reason. Recent mutnies
in the ranks of the Democratic Old
Guard is another reason. Recent mutnies
in the ranks of the Democratic Old
Guard is another reason. Recent mutnies
in the ranks of the Democratic Old Guard is another reason. Rec

On Looking Gift Elephants In The Mouth

On Looking Gift Elephants in the Moutin

IF it's all the same to Mr. Art Concello, well arther he keep that surplus elephant he's offering Charlotte at a giveaway price.

Frobably as the result of a little reporterial produing, the circus boss allowed this week that "you'll be surprised just how reasonable the price will be' if Charlotte would like to purchase one of the pachyderms idled by the streamlining of the Ringling Brosshow.

Considering the immensity of an elephant's gift and the high cost of hay, plus the everpresent possibility of having to call out the National Guard in order to keep the thing in captivity, we'd be surprised if there is such a thing as a reasonable price (ill) Manager Henry Raney, who jumps higher to "zoo" than to "boo." probably would maintain that a gift elephant most cerve. chase one of the pachyderms inted by the streamlining of the Ringling Brosshow.

Considering the immensity of an elephant's girth and then high cost of hay, plus the everpresent possibility of having to call out the National Guard in order to keep the thing in capitivity, wed be surprised if there is such a thing as a resonable price. City Manager. Henry Yaneey, who jumps higher to '700' than to '700' the '700' than to '700' the '700' than to '700' than to

Anti-Recession Plan

A FTER picking our way painfully
A through some of the more outlandish anti-recession schemes offered by well-heeled conomists we can't help recalling this pointant little scene reported by the staff cynic.
"Been standing here long?" asked a wealthy man from the depths of his furlined topcoat,
"Hours, sir," replied the beggar.
"Cold?"
"Frozen, sir," replied the segar.

Bring On Senator Slushpump—Soon

A FEW architects involved in the proposed facelifting of the national capitol allege that newspaper opposition to the protect is based on a desire to boost circulation. Would that it were sol Imagine a world so peaceful, orderly and well-regulated that people would buy papers to share vicariously in the excitement of an argument were extending the front of a public building. We can as the saying goes, see I now in such gone the protection of a public building. We can as the saying goes see I now in such gone the form of a public building. We can as the saying goes see I now in such gone the form of a public building. We can as the saying goes see I now in such gone the form of a public building. We can as the saying goes see I now in such gone the form of a public building. We can as the saying goes see I now in such gone the form of a public building. We can as the saying goes see I now in such gone the form of a public building with the same. The halcy of activations of a public building with the same of the same of providing of the safe of providing of square foot.

Weimar Jones In he Franklin Press

ARE POTATOES POTATOES?

THE ignorance in this world is incredible. Take the SATURDAY EVENING Post, for example.

To a recent issue, that publication had an editorial about plans of New Englanders to erect a monument. "To the potato."

Those are the Post's words—"to the potato." Those are the Post's words—to the potato." As though there were only one kind of potato!

And the Post is published in a city of some little cultural background as indicated by the fact Philadelphians, for generations, have been enlightened enough to eat that greatest of all cereals grits.

But, it seems nobody in Philadelphianiculuding the editor of the Post, ever heard of the sweet potato. To them, potatoes are potatoes, the Irish kind.

Think of IV Never to have eaten sweet polatoes, sileed and fried! Never in have busted open a baked sweet potato, coverboates are potatoes, are so ignored.

People's Labor Is Still Battling For Sam Gompers' Goals

Calling Dr. Schaff

Writing Is A Sad Business

WHY NOT SCHOOL CONSTRUCTION

'Quiet! We're Thinking Up A New Reason'

Editors' Note: The editorial in question praised Tar Heel lab bor leaders for their "unusually refreshing tough-talk on the re-alities of labor's role." We hope-fully concluded: "The popularity of the hairshirt has receded." Were we wrong?

What Do Mr. Jonas' Opponents Stand For?

Off And Running

Knowland Hustles

By DORIS FLEESON

SEN. WILLIAM KNOWLAND

observers here.

Its latest findings show both candidates with equal strength in their own parties. It suggests they have equal strength among non-union voters and that union voters are by no means unanimous for the Democraf.

By ROBERT C. RUARK

It is very small wender the results. As leader of a delegation from the sputniss while we juddle and the world burns, because the can guarantee the results. Any other the south and the sputniss while we juddle and the world burns, because the can guarantee the results. Any other the south and the sputniss while we juddle and the world burns, because the can guarantee the results. Any other the south and the world burns, because the can guarantee the results. Any other the south and the world burns, because the can guarantee the results. Any of the south and the world burns, because the can guarantee the results. Any of the south and the world burns, because the can guarantee the results. Any of the south and the world burns, because the can guarantee the results. Any of the south and the world burns, because the can guarantee the results and the world burns, because the can guarantee the results. Any of the control of the copy of relivery to the manner of the copy of relivery to the south and the copy of the copy o

Drew Pearson's A Columnist Confesses Some Errors Merry-Go-Round

WASHINGTON
The practiced has a line obligation of contession I want to follow it now in regard to some missile should follow—especially newspaperments who will reform to the follow it now in regard to some missile project.

Confession No. 2 pertains to long-to-flow in the present of the follow it now in regard to some missile some of the reasons why we were behind Russia on missiles and sately of the reporting some of the reasons why we were behind Russia on missiles and sately of the reporting some of the reasons why we were behind Russia on missiles and sately of the reporting some of the reasons why we were behind Russia on missiles and sately of the reporting some of the reasons why we were behind Russia on missiles and sately of the reporting some of the reasons why we were behind Russia on missiles and sately of the region of the reasons why we were behind Russia on missiles and sately of the region of the reasons of the reasons why we were behind Russia on missiles and sately of the results of the recently it. Tepated that the hind acturally these two programs in the interest of control when he was running the browning the region of the reasons of the