

Buy A News--Help The Life-Saving Crew

Established Dec. 8, 1888.

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS

FINAL

Largest Evening Newspaper in The Two Carolinas
Charlotte, North Carolina, Tuesday, May 20, 1958

38 Pages — Price Five Cents

Nixon To Talk

WASHINGTON (P)—Vice President Nixon will discuss his not-so-marked trip to South America in a luncheon talk at the National Press Club tomorrow. Nixon also will reply to questions at the conclusion of his talk.

Anti-Bombers Meet

LONDON (P)—Some 20,000 people converged on Parliament today for every corner of Britain today for the country's biggest anti-bomb demonstration. Anti-nuclear campaigners were three deep outside the House of Commons this morning to lobby with the House members from their home districts.

Nehru Vacations

NEW DELHI (P)—Prime Minister Nehru today started the holiday he is taking instead of the retirement period he wanted. The 10-day vacation in the Himalayan foothills of North India is the longest Nehru has taken since he assumed office nearly 12 years ago.

Plans Changed

JAKARTA, Indonesia (P)—The Jakarta government has called off plans for a massive invasion of the Celebes and Halmahera islands and has launched a rebel stronghold in East Indonesia.

Dulles Replies

WASHINGTON (P)—Secretary of State Dulles said today the United States is not barred by Soviet Communist threats from doing its duty anywhere in the world.

Ike 'Gratified'

WASHINGTON (P)—President Eisenhower today was reported gratified at the way his foreign aid authorization bill won House passage with a comparatively small cut.

Direct Appeal

DETROIT (P)—General Motors today appealed to 330,000 hourly rate workers for prompt agreement to the only wage proposal the company says it intends to make. GM President Harlow H. Curtice made the appeal in a letter mailed to employees.

27 Escape Injury

AMMAN, Jordan (P)—An Air Lebanon airliner made an emergency landing here today and burned on the ground. The 27 persons on board escaped without injury. The plane was bound from Jerusalem airport, in the Jordanian section of the city, for Beirut, Lebanon.

Premier Cheered

Parties Solidify In French Crisis

PREMIER PINLIMIN

PARIS (P)—Premier Pierre Pinlimin was greeted with applause today in the National Assembly as he stood up to seek a virtual vote of confidence to meet France's darkest postwar crisis. Most of the deputies appeared to be solidly behind him.

Applause broke out from all but the right wing when he declared his government will crack down on all extremists, whether on the right or left. The moderate premier overrode a blistering attack on the rebellious Gaullists in Algeria.

Moderate parties were reported banding in self-protection to turn back Gen. Charles de Gaulle's bid to take over the government with extraordinary powers.

EMERGENCY RENEWAL

Pinlimin asked the deputies to give his six-day-old government a renewal of the emergency powers to fight the Moslem rebellion in Algeria, where de Gaulle's civilian and military backers have seized control. The moderates can check de Gaulle by supporting Pinlimin's request.

The Algeria special powers bill cleared the Committee of Interior by a 23-1 vote. The moderate parties of the center supported the bill, extremist Republicans of the far right opposed and 11 Communists abstained. Many thought this indicated a trend for the assembly vote.

Pinlimin appeared before the assembly shortly after his cabinet announced that prompt security measures had paralyzed the action of extremist groups that were preparing violence.

The vote on the special powers for Algeria is the first test of strength for Pinlimin after the renewed offer by de Gaulle yesterday to assume the powers of the state.

The vote may not come until after 12 or more hours of meetings and debate.

BIG SHADOW

A favorable vote would be a victory for Pinlimin but hardly more than a tactical defeat for de Gaulle. His shadow is likely to loom large over every government activity until the conflict between Paris and the Gaullists in Algeria is settled.

Pinlimin declared the Gaullist committees of public safety that have sprung up all over Algeria were instruments for subversion. He said a quasi-revolutionary situation existed there and agitators had exploited the passion of the people in the cities.

Our Weather

Mostly cloudy and mild with scattered showers today, tonight and Wednesday. Low today—65. High today—77. Low tomorrow morning—62. High tomorrow—78. Sunrise today 5:16 a.m., sunset today 7:24 p.m.

More Weather Data on Page 3-A

(News Staff Photo by Tom Franklin-Hunter)

Super-Salesmen On The Way

Members of the Charlotte Exchange Club rush for the street corners to sell today's Charlotte News and give the Life Saving Crew a helping hand. They are selling today's issue at advance prices to raise funds to equip the squad. The club and The News cooperated in the project. Advance sales already have raised $2,200.

After Nixon Attacks

U. S.-Latin Relation Probe Is Ordered

WASHINGTON (P)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today ordered a full-fledged inquiry into U. S.-Latin American relations in the wake of attacks on Vice President Nixon.

Governors Split Over Economy

By JACK BELL
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (P)—Gov. Harold W. Handley of Indiana said today an economic upturn is in sight for the country but Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan and Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey were less optimistic.

The three governors spoke out as the 50th annual Governors Conference began panel discussions of the business recession and what to do about it.

Handley, a Republican, said that there is evidence that to this fall the economy will be well on its way toward full recovery.

But Williams, a Democrat, speaking on the same program called for additional action to combat a slump he said is due primarily to the policy of the Eisenhower administration. He suggested, specifically, a cut in excise taxes on automobiles.

Meyner, a Democrat, said a new conference that says the recession should be part of an overall plan to stimulate the economy and boost buying power.

Mass psychology is a factor in an economic upturn or downturn, he said. "If a tax cut were combined with some other dramatic move, it would be most helpful."

He said he believes a public work or school construction program would be helpful in attacking "those areas of real need."

However, Handley said the nation must be kept on a sound business-like basis.

"We have got just so much money in the country to spend and we have to protect the money," he said.

While Williams denied that the auto industry had been instrumental in bringing on the recession, Handley said he thinks the car makers are getting to the point "where they are pricing themselves out of the market."

Meanwhile a cross-section check among governors indicated a majority of them favor public works over a tax cut as a remedy for unemployment.

Four Mental Escapees Taken

RALEIGH (P)—Four of five inmates who saved their way to freedom from the State Mental Hospital's ward for the criminally insane last night were recaptured early today.

One of the four was 23-year-old Leroy Shadrick, former coal miner who boasted of trying robbery in finance an assassination attempt on former President Harry S. Truman.

He was recaptured at Durham by Orange County Sheriff's officers.

A. E. Walden, 30, serving a 15-year armed robbery sentence from Mecklenburg, was still at large. He was admitted to the hospital last January.

Leroy Riley, 32, of Long Island, N.Y., was recaptured by hospital police. He was headed toward Garner.

The others, Bobby Ballance, 21, of Lucama, and Floyd Puckett, 20, of Greensboro, were apprehended by sheriff's officers at Durham.

The escape was discovered at 8:45 p.m. yesterday by an attendant making the rounds. The five convicts had sawed a hole through a steel screen which covers the ward's windows.

The State Highway Patrol joined Raleigh police and the Wake County sheriff's office in a widespread search.

Ballance was sentenced to three years for larceny in 1956 from Johnston County. Riley was sentenced to 30 days for vagrancy last August from Raleigh. His term was extended a year after two escapes.

Puckett was sentenced last December in Guilford to four years for larceny and receiving.

Shadrick was a Harlan, Ky., native.

11 Aboard Capital Craft Feared Dead

BRUNSWICK, Md. (P)—A Capital Airlines turbo-jet plane with seven passengers and a crew of four collided with a military plane in clear skies above the Potomac River valley today. Witnesses said all 11 in the passenger plane were killed.

The pilot of the Maryland Air National Guard plane, Capt. Julius R. McCoy of Baltimore, parachuted and was taken to Frederick Memorial Hospital at Frederick, Md., suffering from severe burns on his face and hands.

A hospital spokesman said, "He doesn't remember what happened."

Harry Nicholson of the Brunswick Volunteer Fire Department said the passenger plane fell in an open field.

"Bodies were scattered everywhere," he said. "Oh, it was an awful sight. I understand it came right straight down after it collided with that military plane."

A reporter for the Frederick, Md., News said there were more persons injured "lying all around."

The plane was Capital's flight No. 300, flying from Chicago to Baltimore, with a stopover at Pittsburgh.

Clifford Grant, 9-year-old schoolboy who was playing in the school yard at nearby Brownsville, told police he happened to look up and saw a large plane and a small plane collide.

SAW PARACHUTE

The big one, he said, began diving and trailing smoke. He said he saw a parachute leave the smaller one and float to the south.

The Volunteer Fire Dept. here said the three quick calls came in shortly before 10 a.m. (EST) that a plane had crashed near the small community of Landers, about three miles from here. All available fire fighting equipment and ambulances in the area were dispatched.

Other witnesses who saw the planes falling said the passenger plane, a Viscount, fell for a short distance, then exploded. The military plane, they said, exploded shortly before it hit the ground.

County Plan Fits Slow, Fast Pupils

2nd in Series, Page 1B

Business	7A
Classified	9-11B
Comics	12A
Crossword Puzzle	16A
Editorials	10A
Everyday Counselor	11A
Obituaries	9B
Radio-TV	14A
Sports	12B
Special	5-8B
Theaters	7B
To Your Good Health	16A
Women	2-4B
Worry Clinic	16A

Military Pay Boost Bill Is Signed By Ike

WASHINGTON (P)—President Eisenhower today signed legislation boosting military pay, with the aim of making career service more attractive.

The first year cost is figured at half a billion dollars.

The increases, effective for payrolls next month, would go to most persons on active duty in the Air Force, Army, Navy and Marines with more than two years service.

Drifters and young officers in their initial required duty hours would get no increase, but boosts in base pay range from $50 a month for the five members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff down to $6.25 additional for some privates and apprentice seamen.

Reservists on active duty or taking periodic training would share in the increases.

Retired personnel would get a flat 4 per cent cost-of-living increase, except for retired three- and four-star generals who would get larger increases.

The increases also apply to uniformed members of the Coast Guard, the Public Health Service, and the Civil and Aeronautics Service.

The military payroll already is above 10 billion dollars annually. The estimated increase for the first year is $76,438,000, or some 64 millions above the top amount recommended by the Payagan.

The huge increase that money will be saved in the long run by retaining men trained at great expense.

The new plan originated last year with a presidential commission headed by President Ralph J. Cordier Jr., of General Electric. The commission said a basic pay revision was needed to retain trained and skilled experts for the complex new weapons systems that include missiles, supersonic aircraft and nuclear submarines.

President Eisenhower recommended a modification of the Cordier plan early this year and this underwent numerous congressional revisions before winning overwhelming approval.

The House initially voted for increases of more than 683 million dollars but later accepted a lesser Senate version.

Evening Prayer
O God, our Creator, we marvel at Thy goodness and power available to Thy children. We believe Thy power is at work in us. It makes us humble and more aware of our responsibility to Thee and to our fellow men. Use us this day in Thy service, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

—NEWEST COMIC STRIP—

Meet Rick O'Shay, Podner

It's check-full of laughs. That's Rick O'Shay and his pal, Deuces Wilde, who'll join The News comic family tomorrow.

This new comic strip has been carefully screened by editors of The News. They liked it—and laughed at it.

You will, too!

Saddle-up, partners, for a round-up of laughs. Rick O'Shay will carry you a prairie away from your troubles. We're putting the space age, and spacemen behind us. Rick O'Shay is just a cowpoke who's funny—very funny—and we think you'll want to start reading his story in The News tomorrow.

RICK O'SHAY

June-December Romance Is Over

FARGO, N. D.—(P)—Ivy Usher L. Burdick, 28-year-old veteran North Dakota congresswoman, wants to call it quits with her attractive 38-year-old wife of less than three months.

Action started in Cass County District Court seeks to annul the Feb. 28 marriage of Burdick and her secretary, Jean Rodgers Jackson.

The complaint was drawn up by Burdick's son, Quentin, a Fargo attorney, who himself is running for Congress this year in North Dakota.

The younger Burdick said the complaint contends his father's wife "had no intention of consummating the marriage."

Also, Quentin said, the action alleges Mrs. Burdick's Reno divorce was inadequate and that under the statutes of Virginia, where they were married, the marriage is void.

Quentin said he was retained by his father to start the annulment action. He said papers were sent to Washington yesterday and may be served on Mrs. Burdick today.

The current Mrs. Burdick is the congresswoman's fourth wife. They were married in a private ceremony at Arlington, Va. Mrs. Burdick has a 4-year-old son, Michael, by her previous marriage to Donald Jackson, whom she divorced more than a year ago.

Burdicks During Happier Days

U.P. Photo