Advises Adams, Too

Henkel's Top Counsel Called 'Front Man'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Morgan Moulder (D-Mo.) suggested today that House investigators call Gerald D. Morgan, President Eisenhower's special counsel, saying, "From what I hear, Mr. Morgan is more of a front man than Mr. Adams."

Moulder said in an interview he understands Morgan is more accessible than Sherman Adams to persons seeking help from the White House. Moulder did not go into detail.

A House subcommittee, of which Moulder is a member, resumes hearings tomorrow on contacts admitted by Adams. Eisenhower's top assistant, with two regulatory agencies on behalf of Bernard Goldfine, a millionaire Boston industrialist.

Adams, the center of a growing political storm, acknowledged accepting hotel hospitality and gifts from Goldfine, who he said is an old friend. Although conceding he was imprudent, Adams has denied seeking or getting any favored treatment for Goldfine, who was having trouble with the Federal Trade Commission and the Securities and Exchange Commission.

There was no sign Eisenhower has changed his stated intention to retain Adams, whom he has described as a man of honesty and integrity.

But that didn't stem the rising volume of demands that Adams step down. Some of the strongest demands have come from Republicans.

Counsel Morgan, who has figured indirectly in the Adams case, appeared as Adams' legal adviser when Adams appeared before the subcommittee last Tuesday.

Adams has informed the subcommittee that at his request, Morgan made contact with the SEC to obtain information about a matter involving Goldfine.

He said Goldfine complained to him about some SEC actions in the case of the East Boston Co., a Goldfine holding firm accused of not filing required financial reports in 1946-1955.

Adams said Morgan obtained the information from Thomas C. Meeker, SEC's general counsel, but asked for no favors. The information was not passed on to Goldfine, Adams said, and Meeker was not informed of Adams' interest in it.

ORIZABA, Mexico (AP)—At least 10 persons were killed and 20 injured when a runaway electric train crashed into a crowded railway station yesterday at Maltrata Point, near Orizaba.

Searchers combed through the wreckage, and some 25 persons were reported unaccounted for. The electric train, on a regular run from Orizaba to the Gulf Coast port of Veracruz, apparently was stopped by a power shortage. Officials of the government railway said when power returned, the train started up automatically and raced three miles out of control.

Preliminary investigation indicated the train failed. Witnesses reported the crew tried desperately to jump sand on the tracks in an effort to halt the speeding train. Passengers leaped from the cars as they hurtled toward the station.

FACTORY PAY LOAD
BENTON, Ky. (AP)—Some 200 employees of an aluminum furniture manufacturer here have received their first pay — not in folding money or checks — but hard cash. To celebrate its opening, the factory gave the first payroll of $8,800 in silver dollars. Employees got cloth sacks to carry it in.

GRAHAM ENDS CRUSADE
SAULSTADT, Penn. (AP)—Billy Graham, styling himself "the messenger boy for Christ," went to bat against the Devil yesterday before 38,000 partisan fans at Seals Stadium.

The North Carolina evangelist ended his San Francisco crusade in the midst of an overflow crowd jammed into the 25,000-seat baseball park, home of the National League Giants.

GOD, WILLIE
"I knew Willie Mays could fill Seals Stadium," he said from atop a platform at second base, "but I'm glad God can do it too."

"I am only the messenger boy for Christ. Give God the glory for what has been done this day."

Baseball was in the air before the sermon, with the Giants' locked in an extra-inning battle with the White House. Moulder did not go into detail.

A House subcommittee, of which Moulder is a member, resumes hearings tomorrow on contacts admitted by Adams. Eisenhower's top assistant, with two regulatory agencies on behalf of Bernard Goldfine, a millionaire Boston industrialist.

Adams, the center of a growing political storm, acknowledged accepting hotel hospitality and gifts from Goldfine, who he said is an old friend. BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—A bomb exploded in a bustling shopping area of Beirut today, killing five persons including a woman and her child.

The bomb went off just opposite the fruit bazaar in downtown Beirut. An empty bus parked at the curb shielded many shoppers and reduced the casualty toll.

The bombing came after several days of relative calm in the Lebanese capital while U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld was conferring here with government officials. Hammarskjöld left Saturday for Cairo but is to return tomorrow.

It was the worst terrorist outbreak since a crowded train was bombed several weeks ago.

A second bomb exploded shortly afterward on another downtown street. It blew a door from a shop and one person was injured by flying glass.

The bombings apparently were directed at shopkeepers. The terrorist acts shattered the hopes of many here that the arrival of U. N. observers meant an easing of tension.

Although opposition forces to some extent seemed to be holding down activities in Beirut during Hammarskjöld's Middle East visit, there have been serious clashes elsewhere in the past few days.

On two successive days major clashes were reported from the Baalbek area in the Bekaa valley of eastern Lebanon. The government was reported to have used howitzers in a clash there Saturday and again Sunday.

Church workers throughout the area will visit homes in an intensive follow-up to Graham's crusade, which moves on to Sacramento, Calif., next Sunday. A tour of California will follow.

A helicopter and a light plane aided the Dubakella search.

Technicality Delays Hearing For Henkel

Board To Hear Case Again On July 14

By JOHN KILGO
News Staff Writer

Civil Service Commission hearing to determine whether Police Capt. Lloyd Henkel should be fired from the police department was cut short today because of a technicality in stating the charges against him.

The three-man commission set July 14 as the new date for the hearing.

The postponement was granted when Henkel's attorney, Henry Lee Harkey, told the commission the veteran police captain was charged with "general allegations" and not specific counts.

Henkel had been charged—in a letter from Police Chief Frank N. Littlejohn — with violating Rule 3, section 1, subsections 2, 8, 11, and 12 of the Rules and Regulations of the Police Department.

NUMBERS ONLY
The letter from Chief Littlejohn listed the numbers in the rule book but it did not specifically list the charges against Henkel.

The charges are: Willful disobedience of rules or orders, conduct unbecoming a police officer, neglect in paying his debts, and conduct subversive of good order and discipline of the force.

Before hearing Henkel's case, the commission announced that Allen M. White's letter of resignation had been accepted by Chief Littlejohn.

White resigned from the police department last week. He was scheduled to be given a hearing along with Henkel this morning.

NOT PRESENT

White was not present in the council chamber for today's hearing. However, his name appears on a subpoena list sent out by Chief Littlejohn. White was clerk of City Recorder's Court for 16 years.

Both men were suspended for 30 days on June 12 when an audit of the court's records showed that White had cashed checks for Henkel totaling over $28,000, using court funds.

Over $4,000 of these checks bounced but were later made good, Chief Littlejohn recounted that both men be dismissed from the department.

In arguing to the commission today, Mr. Harkey cited Section 2, Rule 3, of the police manual which says in part:

"Charges preferred against any member of the Force must be made in writing."

RULE CITED

He also quoted Section 3 of the same rule which says, "Charges shall specify the rule violated, and general nature of such violation, and the names and addresses of witnesses."

A list of witnesses subpoenaed to the hearing was not given to Henkel or his attorney.

In asking the commission to "quash" (make void) the charges, Harkey said he understood that the charges will not be dismissed, but brought up again at a later date with the charges listed specifically.

It was made clear that Henkel will stay under his present suspension until the July 14 hearing.

City Attorney John Shaw said, "Spending for the commission the matter will be continued until Chief Littlejohn has a chance to particularize the charges against Capt. Henkel."

Commission Chairman K. M. Clontz then said the hearing would be set for 2 p.m. July 14. It was set in the afternoon so it will not interfere with the operation of City Recorder's Court.

The two other members of the commission are C. T. Brown and W. A. Richard. The commission hires and fires police department personnel.

GIVEN NO NOTICE

"It's impossible for me or any other attorney to prepare a defense when we don't know what the charges are," Harkey said. "We have been given no notice of any charges except these broadside allegations."

State Bureau of Investigation Agents who are investigating the scandal in Judge Basil M. Boyd's city court were present at the hearing.

Henkel, who was 35 years old last, said calmly with his arms crossed that he was innocent.

Negro Leaders, Ike In Huddle Judge's Delay Order To Stand

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—U.S. District Judge Harry J. Lemley today denied a motion to stay his own order of Saturday which suspended integration in Little Rock schools for two and one-half years.

The judge said that to grant a stay would keep the racial situation at Central High School intolerable because too much time would be consumed in processing a Negro attorney's appeal of his order.

Wiley Branton, attorney for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, who made the motion said he planned to telephone the U. S. Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis ask for instructions on appealing the integration suspension order. He already had filed a notice of appeal here.

"I don't know at this point exactly how this is going to be handled," Branton told a reporter. "But we have to go to the chief circuit judge's home."

Randomly added that neither did Eisenhower make any promise nor commitments with respect to the Negro leaders with a view to improving the conditions of their people.

The immediate emphasis was on the Little Rock situation and school integration, but the Negro leaders had made it plain in advance they would raise a wide range of civil rights issues.

Evening Prayer
Our Father, our homes are what we make them. Help us to make them places of prayer, where our art, honor and glory are all in happy harmony together. We pray in the name of Jesus, who taught us to pray: "Our Father, who art in heaven... Amen."

WELLS DRILLED
NEW YORK (AP)—Since 1859 American oil drillers have sunk 1,600,000 wells. The record shows that one out of every four wells drilled was dry.
