Cone Hunt Off

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. — The search for the Thor-Able nose cone and its tiny mouse passenger was abandoned today by the Air Force.

A-Blast Fired

WASHINGTON — Another nuclear blast was touched off last night at the Eniwetok Proving Grounds in the Pacific. A joint announcement today by the Defense Department and Atomic Energy Commission said the test was fired at 11:30 p.m.

Pickets Continue

NEW YORK — Hungarian groups today announced plans to resume picketing the Russian United Nations headquarters despite the Reds' claim it might prevent them from taking part in U.N. work.

Bill Passed

WASHINGTON — The Senate has sped to the House a $247,000,000 omnibus housing bill in a form strongly opposed by the Eisenhower administration.

Swimmer Quits

ERIE, Pa. — Buffeted by waves and chilled by frequent rain squalls, 24-year-old Mike Harty early today gave up on his attempt to become the first woman to swim Lake Erie from Erie to Canada.

3 Cypriots Die

NICOSIA, Cyprus — Three Turkish Cypriots were killed and three wounded today in an ambush. It was the heaviest single blow at the Turks since communal fighting broke out on Cyprus five weeks ago.

Italians Strike

ROME — Bus, street car and suburban train service was halted in even-numbered Italian cities today by a 24-hour nationwide transport workers' strike.

Billion-Dollar Racket Listed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Robert F. Kennedy, counsel to the Senate Rackets Committee, said today the underworld is milking at least a billion dollars a year out of labor-management rackets.

He said this will be borne out as the committee gets deeper into its investigation of alleged gangster infiltration of both labor unions and business enterprises from coast to coast.

"It may prove to be a conservative figure," Kennedy told reporters. He declined to give now a breakdown of the take by such rackets in any particular area.

The committee plans to resume Tuesday public hearings on the rackets infested Chicago restaurant industry. Later hearings will deal with rackets in Detroit, New York, Pennsylvania's garment industry, Miami, Los Angeles and various other places.

Chicago gangster Tony Accardo and three of his alleged lieutenants repeatedly invoked the Fifth Amendment yesterday, refusing to answer any questions about alleged extortion conspiracies.

L. C. Burwell Dies At 80

Lewis Carter Burwell, 1026 Ardley Rd., died today in a local hospital after a brief illness.

Mr. Burwell, long prominent in Charlotte affairs, was a past president of the Charlotte Rotary Club. In 1934 he headed the Charlotte Community Chest and he was chairman of the Charlotte Red Cross from 1937-1941.

During this period, he was active in the founding of the blood bank.

Mr. Burwell was a member of St. Peter's Episcopal Church where he served many years on the vestry.

He was formerly executive secretary of the North Carolina Division of the National Council. Mr. Burwell served on the board of St. Peter's Hospital before it merged with Memorial Hospital.

INSURANCE

He was president of the Cotton Belt Candy Co. until 1933 when he entered the insurance business. Since 1947, he has been associated with the Union Central Life Insurance Co. of Charlotte.

In 1950, Mr. Burwell received the degree of Charterer Life Underwriter (C.L.U.) from the Wharton School of Finance.

Mr. Burwell, born Feb. 11, 1878.

—NM HERMIT 'HAD' TO SHOOT—

Killer Says: Too Many People

ALBUQUERQUE — "It had long been known there were too many people in the world," a bearded recluse said from his hideout today.

And Thursday, on a quiet street in a quiet town, "It was time for the job."

So Norman A. Fosse, 47, shot and killed two children on the main street of Cuba, N. M., a tiny farming village.

"I had to, there was nothing else I could do about it."

Fosse, a former mental hospital patient, then drove to his camp in the rugged Gallinas Mountains 20 miles north of Bernalillo, N. M., where he had prospected for uranium.

There he wounded a pursuing posse member in the shoulder.

But yesterday morning state police flushed him from his hiding place, wounding him in the back of the head.

He was rushed to a hospital here for surgery on his shattered head and for questioning.

A BIG JOB

He said it "is a proven fact" that there should be no more than 100 million people in the world. Fosse said he had been planning on doing something about it for five years, but admitted that getting rid of the excess would be "a big job."

He said he had seen neither of the dead children before. They were Arlene Cebada, 12,

Woman's Killer A Suicide

SANDPOINT, Idaho — A 73-year-old man went berserk in this small north Idaho lumbering community last night, killing one woman and wounding three men before killing himself.

Benner County police officers identified the man as Emil Olson.

Shot dead as she sat eating cake and ice cream at a lunch counter in a tavern was Mrs. Ruth Tanner, 66. The owner of the tavern, Robert Hunter, 46, was wounded in the neck. A second man, Bud McMertry, was wounded as he fled towards the back door.

Sandpoint Police Chief George Elliott was wounded in the chest and leg as officers laid siege to Olson's barricaded home where he had taken refuge after the shootings.

TAVERN CALLED

In a telephone interview with The Associated Press from inside the darkened tavern some 45 minutes after the shooting, Hunter's wife, Mrs. Olga Hunter, said she was outside the establishment when she heard the shots.

"Tonight was our wedding anniversary," she said, "and I thought some of my friends were shooting firecrackers to celebrate. When Mrs. Tanner had been eating anniversary cake and ice cream at the bar and when I hurried in, she was sprawled across the floor. Everybody was screaming. I didn't see anybody come out after the shooting. It was terrible, just terrible."

Mrs. Romano Lantto, Mrs. Hunter's sister-in-law, said, "We're so afraid. We don't know where that crazy man is. You can hear the shooting and people shouting. Somebody is coming to the door. I've got to hang up. I don't know who it is and we've got to hide."

Deputy later returned to the tavern to find the two women Olson had barricaded himself in his home, several blocks across the street, and two blocks from the sheriff's office. Shots could be heard as the deputies talked to The Associated Press.

Cuban Rebels Still Hold 29

GUANTANAMO, Cuba — U.S. officials were increasingly irritated today because Fidel Castro's rebels still held 29 American servicemen after freeing the last civilian hostage.

C. Allen Stewart, deputy director of the State Department's Middle American affairs division, flew from Washington to Havana yesterday to confer with Park Wiliams, U.S. consul at Santiago who has been negotiating with the rebels.

There was no indication of whether they had devised any new plan to speed release of the sailors and Marines, seized by rebels two weeks ago to dramatize their fight against President Fulbright Batista's regime.

Dollars said the rugged country was slowing up the movement of the servicemen to places where a U.S. Navy helicopter could pick them up.

Raul Castro, Fidel's brother, has been quoted as saying he regarded the captives as an efficient means of halting Cuban army attacks against his men. The army has curtailed its offensive for fear of harming the Americans.

They are conducting here and one which will get bigger.

Cape Canaveral is the home of the Air Force Missile Test Center which operates the Atlantic test range, the world's largest, proving ground for guided missiles. The range is a string of islands stretching out from here to the deep South Atlantic, past Acension Island.

Along the 500-mile way is a string of islands with tracking and instrumental stations.

Other winners named in preliminary competition Thursday night are Pat McQuinn of Wadesboro, representing Anson County, winner in the bathing suit division, and Janet Johnson, Miss Monroe, winner in talent competition.

Winners in the evening gown division, and Janet Johnson.

The 10 finalists selected by a jury system, will be reduced to five before the selection of the new queen.

Contestants themselves will pick a winner tonight. One of them will be named Miss Congeniality.

PRIZEWINNER

TAKES NEWS

LYING DOWN

Nineteen-year-old Harry L. Litaker — The News' social secretary, seized by rebels two weeks ago to dramatize their fight against President Fulbright Batista's regime.

Told he had won first prize of $50, he said, "I got pretty use for it. I can tell you that."

Litaker who is employed by A. Z. Price & Associates, lives at 1908 E. 33rd St.

The $50 is not the first prize he has won in recent contests. He had won a radio previously.

"I like to enter them," he said, and added he had high hopes of capturing one of The News's prizes.

"We are not anxious to cite him," said Williams, a subcommittee investigating relations between Boston millionaire Goldfine and Sherman Adams, President Eisenhower's chief aide.

Williams said "we are much more anxious to get the information" about some of Goldfine's finances — information which Goldfine has refused to give so far on grounds it is not relevant to the inquiry.

"There would be no need to cite him if we get the information," Williams said.

NO ACTION

The Mississippi congressman said that although groundwork has been laid for a vote to cite Goldfine for contempt of Congress, the subcommittee is not likely to get for a while. He said the subcommittee wants to complete the record first.

Williams spoke in an interview as Goldfine was given a long weekend to ponder his troubles with the subcommittee and plan strategy for his scheduled reappearance at the witness stand Tuesday.
