

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS

FINAL

Established Dec. 8, 1888.

Largest Evening Newspaper In The Two Carolinas
Charlotte, North Carolina, Saturday, July 19, 1958

30 Pages — Price Ten Cents

Ike On Farm

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (P)—President Eisenhower flew to his farm near here today for a weekend rest but made arrangements for a quick return to Washington if events in the Mideast require it.

Ready In Iraq

WASHINGTON (P)—The United States today arranged to fly out American troops who want to leave revolt-torn Iraq.

Submarine Freed

PROVINCETOWN, Mass. (P)—The fleet snorkel submarine Piper ran aground on a sand bar early today about a half-mile from shore but was pulled free about six hours later.

Leaves Suspended

SEOUL, Korea (P)—South Korea's First Army today ordered its subordinate commands to suspend all leave and furloughs and to restrict passes for all men and officers guarding the 155-mile truce line.

Flotilla Docks

HAMBURG, Germany. (P)—Twenty ships of the U. S. 2nd Fleet, headed by the cruiser Northampton, arrived in the ports of Hamburg and Bremerhaven today for the biggest naval visit to West Germany since World War II.

New Sub Launched

PORTSMOUTH, N. H. (P)—The Navy launched today the new submarine USS Barbel named in honor of the fighting sub sunk during World War II in an engagement with Japanese bombers in the Palawan Straits.

MIGs At Damascus

BEIRUT, Lebanon (P)—Unconfirmed reports reaching Beirut today said that a dozen MIG jet fighters with Russian markings had been seen at Damascus airport. The reports could not be confirmed but added to the general tension gripping the area.

Local Woman Dies In Wreck

(Special To The News)
REIDSVILLE — A Charlotte woman was killed this morning ten miles north of here when the car in which she was riding collided with a tractor-trailer truck. The dead woman was identified as Mrs. L. E. Shealy, about 62, of 3115 Westfield Rd. Mrs. Shealy's husband was the driver of the car. Joseph Brandt, a witness to the wreck, told investigating State Highway Patrolmen the car and the truck collided on U. S. Highway 29 near Ruffin about 8:45 a.m. The impact of the collision threw Mrs. Shealy from the car and she was trapped beneath the wheels of the truck. Mrs. Shealy was supervisor of the accounts receivable department at Associated General Transport in Charlotte. The Shealys were en route to New York when the wreck occurred. Brandt told officers the truck swerved into the path of the Shealy car and the two vehicles collided. In addition to her husband, Mrs. Shealy is survived by her mother who lives in Charlotte. The mother's name was not immediately known. Funeral arrangements were incomplete this afternoon.

1,700 Troops Flown In FIRE HITS U.S. EMBASSY

Reds Free 9 Hostages

HOF, Germany (P)—West German police announced today the release of nine U. S. Army men held by Communist East Germany since they were turned over at the border checkpoint near Hof, Bavaria, by Dr. Werner Ludwig, president of the East German Red Cross, to Robert A. Wilson, American Red Cross director for operations in Europe. Wilson accompanied the nine men across the border and handed them over to U. S. Army representatives. A helicopter picked up the returnees immediately and flew them to the headquarters of their 3rd armored division here. Agreement between the Red Cross societies of the United States and East Germany came four weeks after the U. S. Army and German authorities had deadlocked in negotiations over release of the prisoners. East Germany had called for some diplomatic level for the negotiations. The United States refused, saying it would not authorize implying recognition of the communist regime. The Army men held: Maj. George E. Kemper, 43, Escondido, Calif.; Maj. James R. Zeller, 34, Mount Joy, Pa.; Capt. Allan A. Brister, 31, Wyncote, Pa.; Capt. Paul E. Jones, 36, Cleveland, Ohio; Capt. Frank Athanasson, 31, Greenville, S.C.; 1st Lt. Thomas J. Westbrook, 27, Macon, Ga.; 1st Lt. Mike Ellis, son of Mrs. Vera Ellis, Bremen, Ga.; Chief Warrant Officer Leroy J. Malone, 25, Raymond, Kan.; M. Sgt. Carol T. Rutlin, 36, Howe, Tex.

Ike Hints Recall For Foreign Aid

By G. MILTON KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower is reported to have dropped a hint he may call a special full session of Congress if he doesn't get all the foreign aid funds he thinks are needed to meet the present crisis. A legislator who attended an emergency White House meeting last night said Eisenhower—without making a threat—told the group of eight Republican and Democratic senators he hoped he wouldn't have to call a special session. Congress is expected to adjourn next month. Citing the Middle East crisis, Eisenhower told the group he urgently wants the 307 million dollars which the House cut from the $3,675,000,000 foreign aid bill. The White House meeting came amid reports that the administration might even seek additional money because of the Middle East situation.

Soviets, U.S. Battle In UN

By WILLIAM M. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States and the Soviet Union today pushed similar proposals with rival goals for an emergency session of the U. N. General Assembly on the Middle East crisis. The 11-nation Security Council will take up the proposals when it meets again Monday to talk about U. S. Marines in Lebanon, British paratroopers in Jordan and complaints that President Nasser's United Arab Republic is trying to overthrow the Lebanese and Jordanian governments. The proposals were submitted last night after the Council failed to pass three resolutions dealing with the situation. One died on the Soviet Union's 84th vote, with Japan and Sweden abstaining. A Soviet resolution calling on the United States and Britain to get their troops out of Lebanon and Jordan immediately. Russia was expected to offer a similar resolution to any General Assembly meeting. Then a Soviet veto killed a rival U. S. resolution that would have sent a U. N. military force to protect Lebanon's independence and enforce against illegal infiltration of arms and men. The Marites would leave when this force takes over, U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge said. The resolution got some favorable votes with Sweden abstaining. Lodge will offer a similar resolution to the Security Council. Two-thirds of those voting must approve an Assembly measure. Experienced diplomats guessed the U. S. measure might have made it but doubted that the Soviet resolution could get through.

Collusion Denied In Sale Of Pool

GREENSBORO (AP)—Four city officials and three officers of the Greensboro Pool Corp. denied yesterday there was any collusion in the sale of a city-owned swimming pool for $85,000 to the corporation. The seven made denials in a federal suit brought by eight Greensboro Negroes in an effort to block sale of the pool.

THOMAS NAMED
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has nominated Edward B. Thomas and Roby J. May to be postmasters of Charlotte and Lexington, N.C., respectively.

U. S. Marine Tanks Maintain Patrol On Beirut Street

U.S., Britain End Talks On Strategy

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—Winding up Middle East strategy talks, the United States and Britain today ended a stopover yesterday at Damascus, capital of the Syrian province. He told a news conference that the talks had been very successful and that the two governments agreed to meet with aggression and that no power can destroy Arab nationalism.

LATE TALK
Dulles and Lloyd, who began their emergency conference here Thursday, talked late into the evening last night after they finished with some of their principal advisers at Dulles' home. British officials said Lloyd would return to London this week.

Interrupting his marathon talks with British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd, Secretary of State Dulles is reported to have told a Senate committee yesterday that he thought the Soviet Union might make some move to encourage it.

Secretary of State Dulles—who sat in on last night's meeting—also went to bed for the first time in the Middle East, and the problems flowing from it within the past week.

DULLES BATS
Secretary of State Dulles—who sat in on last night's meeting—also went to bed for the first time in the Middle East, and the problems flowing from it within the past week.

What's Inside
Books 5A
Classified 1.0C
Comics 4B
Crossword Puzzle 5B
Earl Wilson 7B
Editorials 4A
Obituaries 2A
Radio-TV 3B
Sports 6-7A
Theaters 6-8B
To Your Good Health 5B
Women 1-3B
Worry Clinic 5A

Here's Good News For Charlottean

It's good news we have today for Mrs. Ethel Mulligan of 900 Sedgewick Rd. Mrs. Mulligan is the winner of The Charlotte News Social Security Game. Her number of 242-29-6746 wins her the week by award of $50. Efforts to contact Mrs. Mulligan were not successful but she can collect her money by coming to The Charlotte News office and bringing her Social Security card.

Our Weather

Partly cloudy with scattered afternoon and evening showers through Sunday.
Low this morning 70
Low tomorrow morning 72
High today 94
High yesterday 92
High tomorrow 94
Sunrise today 5:22 a.m.; sunset today 7:36 p.m.

More Weather Data on Page 3-A

—52 HOURS IN WILDERNESS—

Children Safe After Ordeal

ORR, Minn. (AP)—Francine Crego, 10, and her brother, Michael, 8, were back on home-cooked rations at grandma's house today after eating wild berries and drinking swamp water while lost for 52 hours in a tangled wilderness of trees, brush and bog. The youngsters walked safely out of the woods late yesterday while more than 300 men, aided by planes, a helicopter and two radio, were pushing the search and find of a search for them. "I wasn't scared, but I'll never go out picking berries again," said Francine. "We didn't see any bears but we wouldn't have been frightened if we did because Mike would have barked at them."

Embassy At Beirut Tells Of Aircraft Crash

By WILTON WYNN

BEIRUT, Lebanon (P)—The United States flew 1,700 seasoned paratroopers from Turkey to Beirut today to reinforce 6,300 Marines in the Lebanese beachhead. Bellicose threats from the Communist world subsided, but an air of high tension still blanketed the Middle East.

The U. S. Embassy said an American plane crashed in the Lebanese mountains but declined to say how big it was, whether it was military or civilian or whether it might have been shot down.

A big transport plane flying in more Marines from the United States was hit twice by small arms fire outside Beirut, one shot narrowly missing the navigator.

The shots may have come from rebels in Beirut fighting the pro-western government that the United States is sworn to protect, or from extremist elements.

Cairo Radio claimed an Arab commercial airliner en route from Syria to Egypt was attacked by "jet planes of the occupation forces." It did not say whether the alleged attackers were U. S. or British.

In another action, Lebanese rebels charged through the grounds of the American mission school today to attack the main building of the Lebanese government.

The building houses the office of Premier Sami Solh. The mission compound houses a girl's school, a theological seminary and a mission printing plant.

Reports from the scene said rebels entered the compound and launched an attack on Lebanese security forces who were trying to set up wire barricades in front of the main government building.

At the crisis moved toward a verbal showdown in the U. N. General Assembly, 1,700 U. S. paratroopers began landing in Beirut to support the 6,300 Marines quietly patrolling Beirut's ports and beaches.

Underlining the Russian charges of U. S.-British aggression, a mob of 100,000 shattered nearly 300 windows in the U. S. embassy in Moscow and splashed ink on the lower part of the building. About 100 persons demonstrated peacefully at the British Embassy.

Red China joined in a note warning that "peace-loving nations and people will not stand by with folded arms" if Britain remains in Jordan.

Peiping's note made only a passing reference to the U. S. and Britain.

See BULLETIN on Page 3A
Underlining the Russian charges of U. S.-British aggression, a mob of 100,000 shattered nearly 300 windows in the U. S. embassy in Moscow and splashed ink on the lower part of the building. About 100 persons demonstrated peacefully at the British Embassy.

Red China joined in a note warning that "peace-loving nations and people will not stand by with folded arms" if Britain remains in Jordan.

Peiping's note made only a passing reference to the U. S. and Britain.

See BULLETIN on Page 3A
Underlining the Russian charges of U. S.-British aggression, a mob of 100,000 shattered nearly 300 windows in the U. S. embassy in Moscow and splashed ink on the lower part of the building. About 100 persons demonstrated peacefully at the British Embassy.

Red China joined in a note warning that "peace-loving nations and people will not stand by with folded arms" if Britain remains in Jordan.

Peiping's note made only a passing reference to the U. S. and Britain.

See BULLETIN on Page 3A
Underlining the Russian charges of U. S.-British aggression, a mob of 100,000 shattered nearly 300 windows in the U. S. embassy in Moscow and splashed ink on the lower part of the building. About 100 persons demonstrated peacefully at the British Embassy.

Red China joined in a note warning that "peace-loving nations and people will not stand by with folded arms" if Britain remains in Jordan.

Peiping's note made only a passing reference to the U. S. and Britain.

See BULLETIN on Page 3A
Underlining the Russian charges of U. S.-British aggression, a mob of 100,000 shattered nearly 300 windows in the U. S. embassy in Moscow and splashed ink on the lower part of the building. About 100 persons demonstrated peacefully at the British Embassy.

Red China joined in a note warning that "peace-loving nations and people will not stand by with folded arms" if Britain remains in Jordan.

Peiping's note made only a passing reference to the U. S. and Britain.

See BULLETIN on Page 3A
Underlining the Russian charges of U. S.-British aggression, a mob of 100,000 shattered nearly 300 windows in the U. S. embassy in Moscow and splashed ink on the lower part of the building. About 100 persons demonstrated peacefully at the British Embassy.

Goldfine Son Slashes Self

SARASOTA, Fla. (P)—H. Maxwell Goldfine, son of Boston industrialist Bernard Goldfine, slashed himself in a hotel bathroom here today and slashed his face on the face and body with a double-edged razor blade. Rushed to a hospital in a police car, Goldfine was reported in good condition. Doctors said most of the wounds were superficial. Goldfine's wife called police at 1:06 a.m., reporting that he had slashed himself in the bathroom and "I think he is committing suicide."

Patrolman Donald G. Elie, a personal friend of Goldfine, responded to the call.

Elie walked to Goldfine through the locked bathroom door. There was no answer at first but after five minutes of persuasion he said Goldfine unlocked the door and walked out.

He was dressed only in shorts and covered with blood. Elie said "The most have cut himself 80 or 100 times."

The bathroom was covered with blood, the patrolman said. Police were unable to find a motive for Goldfine's act immediately.

He is reported to have been upset over the difficulties in which his father has been involved.

New Serial Starts Monday

Watch For "Date With A Stranger"

By Rob Eden

"ICE SKATING TODAY, CHARLOTTE COLISEUM"—Ad.