Opening Near

Graham Crusade Charlotte Topic

By JOHN BORCHERT
News Religion Editor

Charlotte was talking Billy Graham today as the start of the four-week evangelistic crusade here moved within less than two days of opening.

Dr. Graham himself left shortly before noon from Myrtle Beach, S. C. for Charlotte where late this afternoon he held his first meeting with the press at the farm of his father, William Franklin Graham, 4801 Park Rd.

This place, where Billy Graham was born and reared, will serve as headquarters for the world-famous evangelist during the crusade, which is scheduled to start Sunday at 3 p.m. and extend through Sunday, Oct. 19.

Dr. Graham told The News today that he probably will preach Sunday on the topic, "Christ's Answer to the World's Dilemma."

The order of service for tomorrow night's dedicatory service is as follows:
Cliff Barrows will open the service with a hymn; George Ivey, chairman of the Crusade Executive Committee, will speak; Dr. Graham will follow with a talk as follows:

Dr. C. C. Warren, chairman of the Minister's Advisory Committee for the crusade, and head of the Southern Baptist Convention's "300-Movement," has announced this schedule of local clergymen for participation in the Sunday afternoon service.

They are: Dr. Warren; Dr. Walter J. Miller, superintendent of the Charlotte District, Western North Carolina Methodist Conference; and Phillip Howerton, moderator of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. (South).

Tonight at 7:30 o'clock Cliff Barrows, music director for the Billy Graham team, and Willis Haymaker, crusade director, will meet with the crusade choir at the coliseum for the final rehearsal.
Tomorrow the ushers will get a final "dry run" for the crusade. As Bob French, assistant crusade director points out, "The ushers many times is the only one person has any contact with at the crusade. The ushers must make a good impression."
A maximum crowd of 15,000 persons can be handled at each of

U. S. 'Arms' Its Troops On Formosa

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The United States has announced reorganization of the American Advisory Command on Formosa, making it—in effect—a regular combat command.

The announcement by the commander of the U. S. Formosa Defense Command, Vice Adm. Roland N. Smooth, said the step was taken "to attain an adequate defense posture in the face of recent stepped up Chinese Communist actions."

In the Quemoy area, meantime, Communist and Nationalist guns thundered in fresh battle today. The Nationalists said the Reds fired 6,813 shells between noon and 6 p.m. The bombardment was particularly heavy while three LSTs (landing ship, tank) were unloading supplies at Quemoy.

The defense Ministry here said the ships accomplished their mission without damage and returned safely to base, presumably the Pescadore Islands.

Smooth's command announced that the United States has augmented its Army, Navy and Air Forces in the Formosa area. It said this augmentation "has established a requirement for centralizing operational control of all forces assigned to the Formosa area."

The announcement said the joint chiefs of staff established the U. S. Formosa Defense Command as a subordinate unified command under the commander in chief, Pacific. Overall direction remains under Smooth.

Maj. Gen. Leander Dean, chief of the Military Assistance Advisory Group, is designated commanding general of the U. S. Army forces assigned to Formosa. Brig. Gen. Fred Den, commander of the U. S. Air Task Force, is designated commander of all Air Force units, and Rear Adm. Paul Blackburn, commander of the Formosa Strait patrol, is designated commander of U. S. naval units.

Smooth, the announcement said, "will have under his direct operational control those forces necessary to discharge his mission of on-site coordination of all U. S. operations in the Formosa area."

Reorganization of the U. S. Formosa Command was announced as the "Army assigned a Nike Hercules missile battalion to the defense of the Nationalist stronghold."

Nike-Hercules can knock down enemy aircraft more than 75 miles away. It can carry either a conventional or an atomic warhead.

In Virginia, Gov. J. Lindsay Almond Jr. closed white schools as rapidly as the courts ordered them to admit Negroes.

An attorney for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People said he will go to court if necessary to get a group of Negro children into a white elementary school at Miami.

Faubus said approval of segregated classes in the Sept. 27 special referendum will make the school district surplus property. The school board can then lease them to private agencies and urged them to do so. One such

Faubus Urges Anti-Mix Vote

Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas has offered the people of Little Rock what he terms a legal plan for private, segregated schools and has asked them to vote for segregated classes.

In Virginia, Gov. J. Lindsay Almond Jr. closed white schools as rapidly as the courts ordered them to admit Negroes.

An attorney for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People said he will go to court if necessary to get a group of Negro children into a white elementary school at Miami.

Faubus said approval of segregated classes in the Sept. 27 special referendum will make the school district surplus property. The school board can then lease them to private agencies and urged them to do so. One such agency has already been chartered.

The plan depends heavily on the special election which some lawyers say has no legal significance because of the Supreme Court order to integrate immediately.

The Little Rock School Board, meanwhile, arranged for informal televised classes to begin Monday. School officials have not decided what credit may be given for such work.

Almond closed two schools at Charlottesville, Va., under a state law which automatically halves classes wherever integration is ordered. The white high school at Front Royal was closed last week.

The Warren County (Front Royal) Parent-Teachers Assn. said he will take the case to the school without state funds. The school board has rejected applications from 14 Negro children to attend the school.

Six schools in Norfolk apparently will be the next to close but action by the City School Board may delay it. A federal judge overruled a state court injunction against the board's proceeding with integration plans. The board said it will seek a delay of the integration order and, if that fails, appeal to the U. S. 4th Circuit Court of Appeals. State action will await that decision.

G. E. Graves, an NAACP attorney at Miami, said he will appeal to the County School Board and the Florida State School Board if necessary to win admission of some Negroes to a white school at Miami. Failing there, he said he will take the case to the Circuit Court at Tallahassee. The county board has rejected applications from 14 Negro children to attend the school.

The sound and the shock waves were hardly noticeable at News Nob 10 1/2 miles away. A 10-shot series has been planned, but must end before Oct. 31, effective date of President Eisenhower's proposal for a one-year suspension of nuclear weapons tests.

They Were Going To Blast, Were They?

(From AP Reports)

Three workers from a nearby rock quarry drove to the home of Mrs. Janice Davis to warn her they were about to do some blasting.

The Winston-Salem woman beat them to the punch with some blasting of her own. The trio told police she met them with a blast from a shotgun, shooting holes in their auto's tires. Mrs. Davis has posted $1,000 bond for appearance on charges of assault with a deadly weapon.

U. N. Seating Delay Asked

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States formally proposed today that the U. N. postpone action on the seating of Red China for at least another year.

The move was made by Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge in the General Assembly's powerful steering committee.

Lodge spoke after Indian Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon urged full debate at the current assembly session on the highly controversial issue of giving China's seat to the Peiping regime.

The U. S. proposal was similar to motions adopted by the assembly in previous years. There appeared no doubt that it would be approved again this time.
