Off-Halted Net Event Nears End

By LARRY KEITH JR.
 Charlotte News Sports Writer
 After two weeks of rain, interrupted matches and several manipulations of the schedule, the Greater Charlotte Tennis Championships of 1964 will close with a final match today at Freedom Park.

Legion Teams Waste Long, Tough Battle

The old mark of 82.22 m.p.h. was set during the 1963 Volunteer 500 by Fred Lorenzen, who went on to win the race. Lorenzen was among those who broke 140 in the best-of-seven series for a berth in state American Legion playoffs.

Upchurch Duo Wins Tourney

Mrs. C. W. Upchurch and daughter Louise were winners in a hole Scotch foursome tournament at Charlotte Country Club for mothers and daughters.

TEE PARTY The Longest Golf Day

By Ronald Green
 Our search for the green monster... The search for the green monster... The search for the green monster...

This is the second time we have put together a nine-hour course. We chose one in 1962, before some of the courses we now have were built and before some changes were made in our courses.

The thing measured 7,965 yards and was a maze of ponds, creeks, bunkers, trees, undulations and all else that is evil on a golf course.

FOUR OF US didn't have a better bet than to play the 11 holes, Dick Tiddy, a former touring pro who was then at Charlotte Country Club and is now at Cedarwood Golf Course, was one of them. Keely Grice, a scratch handicapper from Myers Park Country Club, was another. Bob Saunders, who owned an 11 handicap at the time but has since reduced it considerably, was the third.

THE OTHER PAR three holes were No. 8 at Hillcrest, 223 yards, and No. 7 at Eastwood, 233 yards. The other par fives were Nos. 8 and 17 at Myers Park, 598 and 612 yards, and No. 3 at Charlotte, 589 yards. Other par fours were Nos. 2 and 13 at Charlotte, No. 11 at Myers Park, Nos. 10 and 15 at Carolina, Nos. 4 and 15 at Carmel, No. 15 at Eastwood and No. 6 at Bonnie Rise.

Some of these holes no longer exist in their 1960 state. Service 'em right.

Charlotte softball commissionations should be mailed immediately to him and Piedmont (beat Fort Construction, 4-4 in a three-inning game) and the Charlotte Softball Association, 1000 S. Salisbury St., Charlotte 7, N.C.

Eastern Air Lines brought its entry to 9.3 with a 1.61 smack-down of Johnson Motor Lines. The Brock drove in three runs for the winners on three hits.

General Latex won by forfeit over WBT-TV. In the Spears League, Pritchard Memorial got three hits from Duke Rion and Martin Davis to triumph. Dilworth 1-0, and Custom Vent 1-0. The Brock drove in three runs for the winners on three hits.

PIT STOPS A Fan's Farewell

By Max Muhleman
 Carl Cotner, Route 5, Charlotte, sent it a few days ago, explaining, "If you wish to run it you have my permission."

We pass it along, a fan's poignant farewell to a grandstand idol, a salute that says what thousands feel.

Carl calls it, "A Tribute To The Great Fireball."

It was a hot and blistering morning and the crowd began to swell as the time neared, tense, which was what they were waiting for.

When at that appointed hour, the cars rolled on the track, the lineup through the Anthem played, then everyone sat back;

The flag was dropped; the race was on, but little did they know, that a well-lodged driver had reached his time to go;

The cars shot forward with tremendous speed; you knew records had to fall, and there, running with the heat, was our favorite, the great FIREBALL;

With FIREBALL ROBERTS at the wheel, that Ford was bound to go, for everyone knew from what they saw that the FIREBALL was a pro;
