What America Has at Stake In the Battle of Moscow

For the first time since Hitler sent the Wehrmacht pounding into Russia, the Soviet has issued a war communique that is wholly pessimistic.

Our forces were compelled to retreat this sector. War correspondents called the statement "dark."

It appears, this is the hour of danger. Moscow stands until winter. It is possible for the Allies to make an effective offensive against Hitler in the Spring of 1942.

City Administration Takes on New Life With New Manager

First impression made by the new City Manager is most favorable, and that's a good sign, for first impressions are likely to be lasting impressions.

It may be too much to hope that around the person of Mr. Flack all the factional differences on the Council, the tug-of-war between the Seven, the Dukes and the Four Blocks of Granite, are going to be reconciled.
