Applause at Lindbergh Meet Showed Nature of Crowd

Doe of the most similitant facts about the Lindbergh meeting in New Sirch last Wednesday is recalled to our sitention by one of his warment symmetries in our letter column today. It is that when he said that England epidont win the audience cheered for en minutes—the greatest ovalion of the reming.

est minutes—the greatest ovalion of the rereings.

The New York Times has proved by Schurs that the audience in question side Nazi-cympathizers, mainly Ger-side Nazi-cympathizers, mainly Ger-sins, and Communits. But of course the British-haters get out of that by design that the Times, and presumably the mars lens, is in the pay of Eng-it hoped passionately that it would—that the Nazis would win.

More than that, wildly cheering au-diences have a way of getting what a speaker really means despite his mumb-ling of occasional weasel words.

And that great ovation was probably the truest test of what Charles A. Lind-bergh actually wants in his heart which has yet appeared.

for a fairly early end to the war. However, there is the comfort that as she cominues to extend her lines her consumption will mount.

A cause for quite as much unexsiness is the revelation by De Golyer that California oil fields supplied Japan with 4071,000 barries of oil in the first quarter of 1641. That compares with 8, 580,000 barries in the first quarter of

A Prophecy

Which Anybody Should Have Known Would Come True

When after escaping from a Canadan prison camp and entering this country lilegally. Nari-airman Baron you were was admitted to bail—315,000, hastily furnished by the German consultate—in Federal District Court in New York, it was flatly predicted in these columns that he would use the opportunity to escape.

Now, sure -enough, he has flown the coop, with the bold and unmirakable co-operation of the German Consul from New York. And so finally, Attorney General Robert Jackson has ruled that Natia escaping from Canada to this country are to be turned back with whaters force is necessary.

The excuse on which he was allowed to get away was his supposed rights under international law. But in point of fact all Nails long ago forfetted all rights under international law.

rights under international law. That is clear enough if you understand the nature of international law, which was never law in the sense of our national law, as something imposed by the common will and backed by force. In-alead it was merely a body of, rules adopted by mutual agreement among the civilized nations. Obviously such an agreement holds only so long as the parties to it observe it. There is not one of the rules which common the civilized nations. agreement holds only so long as the parties to it observe it. There is not one of the rules which Germann has not consistently and cynically violated from the beginning of the last war right on down until the present.

To talk about Germany's rights under international law is, therefore, pure der international law is, therefore, pure nonzènes. The only ruie we are bound to regard with respect to Germany is precisely what will best serve our own purposes before this inhuman barbarlism. The Attorney General has ifnally got around to recognizing as much. But it should have been reconfized before this animal was allowed to get away.
