

STALINGRAM WAR S OFF NEW ALLIES Tide Of Revolt Against Nazis Rises In Scandinavia RUSSIES LEAD GAP; JAPS RETREAT

Hitler Grip On Northern Countries Weakening Norway, Denmark Trouble Centers

LONDON (AP)—A rising tide of revolt by once-free men of Scandinavia against Nazi overlordship was reported today in news dispatches and broadcasts telling of a state of civil emergency in the important Norwegian coastal district of Trondheim and of Denmark's struggle to escape total engulfment in the Reich.

These reports and recent hints of peace feelers by Finland plus German dissatisfaction with the political course of Sweden projected a broad picture of a weakening Hitler grip in the North.

At least part of this rising opposition stemmed apparently from a scheme under which Hitler was reported planning to proclaim a "Greater Germany" that would include Holland, Denmark and Norway.

The Free Danish Council in London declared that Denmark already had been invaded by the political course of Sweden projected a broad picture of a weakening Hitler grip in the North.

Soviets Hold Against Three Nazi Divisions

By EDDY GILMORE
MOSCOW (AP)—Defenders of Stalingrad were reported holding firm today against three Nazi divisions in a flame-laced battle for a workers' settlement and Red Army troops fighting for relief of the garrison stabbed anew in the German left flank.

German artillery and mortar barrages heralded the opening of a series of attacks by the three divisions totaling from 20,000 to 45,000 men. Swarms of dive-bombers and 100 tanks roared into the fight for the salient. A Pravda dispatch said the flames were visible to Russian fighters in sectors many miles away.

Prisoners told Red Army commanders that their officers feared to delay any further in their overture plans to take the city. Cold nights have arrived on the Stalingrad front.
