Red Encore Wrong Number

An Expert Says Russia Will Hold Out Again Mrs. Roosevelt's 'Sight' Into Future a Bust

To make the United Nations reasonable certain of victory within the next few years, Soviet Russia must continue to make miracles. On her Western front, she has junked the German time table and exacted a terrible price in Nazi manpower and equipment, she has put almost a year rolling back the tide. Her deeds amazed the world, her new news no less than Hitler.

Now the prophet who was almost alone in predicting Russian success last year, says that Stalin's Red Army and well-hidden industries will do it. Joseph E. Davies, our ex-Ambassador, says that the material well-being of Germany is being sacrificed to the power of a weaker German drive, regardless of the lack that is coming from Japan in the East, Red Russia will hold 'em.

Because he seems to know his USSR very certainly than any other man in the world, and speaking his summary in the "Evening Chronicle" seems important to us. For fourteen years, he recalls, the Red has planned in detail its course on being attacked, and driven back by Hitler in the West. And for as long, the Reds have expected a drive by Japan.

New Dilemma Parks and Recreation Gains, Juvenile Loses

In what we consider a most unfortunate shift in City finance, the Parks and Recreation Commission has come into its rightful own, and the all-important work of the Civitan Club with boys' clubs has been endangered. It was so simple a move as the retention of Army concessions by the Commission, but it leaves a problem with us.

A Soldier's Reply to Flanders Field

By John Sullivan

IN Flanders Field the poppies grow Though storms may rage and winds may blow We've broken forth with you who sleep, The roses we made we've failed to keep.

Our country's now engaged in strife And fighting to protect the life You died for years ago.

THE Torch you threw, we shall enlight, To take amidst you we'll fight Till we're dead, we'll be with you, Till we're dead, we'll be with you.

THE Torch you threw, we shall enlight, To take amidst you we'll fight Till we're dead, we'll be with you, Till we're dead, we'll be with you.
