Attack on All Sectors of Front for First Time

Moving To Force Decisive Battle

CAIRO. — (AP) — General Claude Auchinleck's Army the Nile, attacking simultaneously on all sectors of the German front for the first time, was reported today to have driven back the Axis in violent fighting, mounting steadily in intensity.

A communiqué from Auchinleck's headquarters indicated that the heaviest assault had pushed stoutly against enemy forces from some of their positions on the El Ruweisat Ridge and that the Germans had been consolidated.

WASHINGTON. — (AP) — Senator Taft, Republican, Ohio, contended today that Treasury war financing plans would destroy "any hope of controlling inflation" because they contemplate selling $30,000,000,000 in Government securities to commercial banks in the next year.

Taft's declaration was made in a speech before the Senate Finance Committee for a $2,500,000,000 increase in the $2,500,000,000 House tax bill.

Only sold war taxation, the Treasury chief told the committee at the beginning of its session, could bring America a sound economic future.

Music Czar Enjoined Petrillo Prevented From Stopping Work

WASHINGTON. — (AP) — Attorney General Biddle today authorized an injunction suit under the anti-trust laws to prevent James C. Petrillo, president of the American Federation of Musicians (AFM), from prohibiting union members from making recordings for radio and other non-private use.

The date and place where the bill of complaint will be filed was not announced, but a justice department official said that the case would be either in Chicago, Petrillo's home, or in New York, headquarters of the Musicians Union, which also will be made a respondent.

A little earlier the Federal Communications Commission, called upon Petrillo and the National Broadcasting Company for a "full statement of the facts" regarding the recent cancellation of a broadcast by the National High School Orchestra from Interlochen, Mich.

More Troops Reach Ireland

LONDON. — (AP) — United States Army officials permitted the disclosure today that new contingents of American soldiers, ground crews, Negro troops and other forces whose presence in Ireland was announced two days ago, arrived on a large conveyance — one of the 28 crewmen of a German submarine which has been announced by the Navy as the Associated Press unofficial count of Allied and neutral ship losses by submarines in the Western Atlantic rose to 396.

Twilight requiem services, a salute of three volleys by Navy firing squad and the sounding of "taps" marked the commitment at the Naval Cemetery at Hampton, Va., of the first enemy dead to be landed on American shores in this war.

29 Crewmen of Nazi Sub Sunk In Atlantic Buried In Virginia

Burial with full military honors of 29 crewmen of a German submarine sunk by a destroyer on Atlantic patrol has been announced by the Navy as the Associated Press unofficial count of Allied and neutral ship losses by submarines in the Western Atlantic rose to 396.

Twilight requiem services, a salute of three volleys by Navy firing squad and the sounding of "taps" marked the commitment at the Naval Cemetery at Hampton, Va., of the first enemy dead to be landed on American shores in this war.

One of the few naval precedents for the full military honors accorded the Germans who died in the sinking of the U-boat was that the bodies were all that remained afloat after their U-boat was sunk occurred during the War of 1812 after of "Portsmouth, N. Some Sort Of Second Front Move Considered

But Cripps Won't Tell Commons

LONDON. — (AP) — Amid agitation on both sides of the Atlantic for quick establishment of a second European front to ease German pressure on Russia, Sir Stafford Cripps implied publicly today that the British Government has some operation of this sort in mind.

But whatever is decided about a 1942 offensive, Sir Stafford, Britain's Lord Privy Seal and House of Commons leader, gave the House to understand that the Government would not "entrust the secret even to 615 people" — the members of Parliament.

When Sir Stafford announced the dates of the proposed Summer recess of Commons, Labour's Assistant Prime Minister, demanded to know how the House could adjourn while the country was agitated over the Government's military intentions.

"Does Sir Stafford realize that demonstrations are going on all over the country . . . and there must be some way of reassuring the public mind?" Ewan asked.

REPLY MADE

Replying, Sir Stafford said: "I . . . whatever intentions the Government has in mind, it would be quite impossible for them to announce them either publicly or in secret session."

He added that . . . "In a matter of such vital importance for the safety of those engaged, it would not be right of the Government to entrust the secret even to 615 people."

28 Indicted For 'Anti-Morale' Plot

Elizabeth Dilling Among Those Facing Federal Charges

WASHINGTON. — (AP) — A Federal Grand Jury has indicted 27 men and one woman in ten states for conspiring to break down morale in the armed forces and thus "obstruct and defeat the war effort."

The indictment, returned secretly Tuesday after nine months' investigation, was announced today by Attorney General Biddle as it was opened in Federal District Court here.

The lone woman defendant is Mrs. Elizabeth Dilling of Chicago, who was mentioned in the indictment as having used as an alias the name Rev. Frank Woodruff Johnson.

TWO COUNTS

The indictment is in two counts, one alleging violation of the so-called Sedition Law, which carries a maximum penalty of twenty years' imprisonment, and the other alleging violation of a law prohibiting interference with the armed forces which carries a maximum penalty of ten years.

Thirty publications, some of them already barred from the mails as seditious, and 28 organizations, including the German American Bund, the American First Committee, and the Ku Klux Klan, were listed as having been indicted to further the conspiracy.

FELONY INDICTED

Among the men indicted were William Dudley Pelley, leader of the Silver Shirts and publisher of "The Galleani," which suspended in March, and George Sylvester Viereck, for many years a propagandist for Germany, who was convicted of violation of the Foreign Agents Registration Act.

The indictment alleged that the defendants conspired to urge upon members of the United States armed forces that the United States was safe from attack that confidence in American public officials was misplaced and unwarranted for the purpose of obstructing and designed and intended to impede, obstruct and defeat the preparation of our national defense against aggression and invasion and the national war effort."

DEFAMATION OF OFFICIALS

The defendants were charged also with having carried on "a systematic campaign of personal attack on the character and integrity of the officials of the United States Government."

Hurl Tanks, Planes Into Effort To Stem Tide

Second Battle of Rostov Rages

By EDDY GILMORE AP War Correspondent

MOSCOW. — (AP) — Throwing many airplanes and tanks into the fight to hold the huge German Army which has surged into the lower Don Basin, the Red Army braced and reported stronger resistance at Stalingrad today.

Russia faced her gravest crisis in the thirteen-month-old German-Russian war as Nazi armored columns closed in for the second battle of Rostov, spearheaded toward Stalingrad and pressed upon the lower Don between those cities in an effort to isolate the Caucasus.

Not since the Mongols were driven from Southern Russia 652 years ago has there been such a threat to the military security of the nation, observers said.

Red Army men fought bitterly to stem the invading tide, even though the Germans were more than half-way along on drives which might split the Russian front and trans-Caucasian commands.

Rostov was menaced from three sides: Novocherkassk, 100 miles north of the city; from the north by a large force, including the German 17th Army, from Voroshilovgrad; and from the west by Axis divisions which wintered at Taganrog, 40 miles away.

STALINGRAD TREATH

Stalin's three - directional thrust developed against Stalingrad, 250 miles by air northwest of Rostov. The center blow, aimed at the German 6th Army, was a drive to the Stalingrad-Likhtyevskaya railway line, which runs 100 miles west of the Volga city.

By the light of a bright light moon, Soviet heavy bombers and fighter-bombers pounded long columns of German reinforcements moving toward the Don River area last night.

Scores of troop-laden trucks were smashed and others fled in confusion, field reports said.

Yank Ships Navy Task Force Has Flurries With Planes

LONDON. — (AP) — Rear Admiral Robert C. Giffen, commander of a U. S. Naval task force with the British Fleet, disclosed today the force had been in action against enemy aircraft.

Admiral Giffen described the operations as "just the usual thing."

Units of the American force have had flurries with planes but so far have not brushed with enemy naval craft, he said, adding that no severe damage has been suffered.

ALL RIGHT

"Everything is all right so far," he said.

The American Fleet units were operating "in the north — against polar bears or something" before the United States entered the war, Admiral Giffen disclosed.

Official arrival of the task force was an Easter Sunday morning, April 5.

Morale of the men in the force is fine and "the kids love their job," he declared. Some of them are due in London soon for their first leave in more than a year.
