quarters officers of the 15th Air Force contented with their meals. The force contented with their meals, the largest pecan tree nursery in south Carolina on his 360-acre farm near Crangeburg, hasn't been able to turn canned steer meal into drumaticks, but he has done something almost as remarkable.

When his outfit was back in Truins he had two fresh eggs for breakfast for every man every day. This was the only mass in toom ascring them. The black market price was 20 cents an eggs.
