Great Military and Political Decisions Believed Made at Conference of Roosevelt, Churchill & Stalin

LONDON—(AP)—The Moscow radio announced today that the long-awaited Stalla-Roosevelt-Churchill conference has been concluded at Teheran, Iran, and in London it was expected that historic decisions applying both to the battlefields and to political questions would be made public very soon.

The declaration which will surely present faltering Germany the choice of unconditional surrender or certain bloody defeat by history's greatest land and air offensive awaited only completion of arrangements for its simultaneous release at all three Great Offensives
