Smashing Attacks of Eighth Army

By DANIEL DE LUCE

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA—(AP)—The British Eighth Army has broken through the Axis hill and wadi defenses north of Gabes, and American troops have mopped up Germans on the Djebel Mainta, north of Makmassy, and advanced east of El Guetar in a co-ordinated squeeze of Marshal Erwin Rommel, latest reports from the front said today.

Seizing two high hills which dominated the new defenses along the Wadi El Akarit, twenty miles north of Gabes, the British held these strong points through violent German counter attacks after a breakthrough behind a heavy artillery barrage and an Allied Headquarters communique said they captured 5,000 prisoners, mostly Italians.
The Americans, attacking 40 miles to the west in an effort to link hands with General Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's warriors and also to threaten Rommel's rear, launched heavy new attacks.

They tried desperately to dislodge entrenched German forces from their formidable artillery positions and strong lines of machinegum nests planted in the rocks of Djebel Kreroun nine miles east of El Guetar.
