

Boost Pay For Widows & Children

Compensation After Men Killed Fighting

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Compensation for widows and children of men killed in the fighting forces in wartime, became law today with President Roosevelt's signature.

Widows of war veterans—irrespective of their age, will receive $50 a month. The old rates were $38 for those under 50 years of age and $45 for those over 50.

A widow with one child will receive $65, with $13 more for each additional child. Old rates varied according to the children's ages.

The Veterans' Administration estimated the increased rates will cost $4,536,000 for the first year of operation.

The measure sets new peacetime-service-connected death pension rates at approximately 75 per cent of the amounts authorized for wartime-service-connected death.

THE ABC'S OF WARTIME TRAVEL

"Glad to have you back, Ed!"

... Don't seem like six years since Ed went to the city to work in that store. Still looks like he can do a good day's work—men don't forget things that are born in 'em. Good thing too—for Uncle Sam's going to need every available man—either working or fighting—before this war's over."

Yes—and working or fighting—it's Trailways job to help get men and women where they're needed—when they're needed. It's a big job too, but it can be done if everyone will follow these simple rules for wartime travel:

A PLAN AHEAD

Always plan your trip ahead. Get full information from your Trailways ticket agent before you go.

B BE PROMPT

Be sure and get to the bus terminal early. Avoid last minute rush. It's better to wait than be too late.

C TRAVEL LIGHT

Carry just one bag. Your luggage will travel with you. You'll conserve space and save loading time.

Able bodied men and women are needed by farmers to overcome a serious labor shortage. If you are not now doing war work, register at your local United States Employment Service office today.

Over a network of American highways from coast to coast, the 2922 buses of National Trailways covered 171,517,017 miles in operation; carried 71,591,589 passengers in 1942, as its share in getting people where they're needed to help win this war.

Political Storm May Break Soon

Hoey-Reynolds Strife Is Expected To Flare

By TIM FRIDGEN Charlotte News Staff Writer

The fact that the calm before the Senatorial storm now settles serenely on the state does not blind politicians here to the storm. It is more distant than just around the hill, but it is so big that it seems closer. Hoey and Reynolds advocates already are taking sides, making plans to go in action about the first of the year, with a strong faction, including certain sections of organized labor actively searching for a third candidate.

This interesting new development may mean something or nothing. Only time will tell. Should a third candidate enter the field, men in the labor union, explaining the move, would be because they wanted representation more generally liberal than the public records of either Senator R. H. Reynolds or former Governor Clyde R. Hoey. They had no intention of putting out a candidate unless he seemed to be a winner.

Should this candidate enter, no one knows now what the situation would be. Without a third candidate, the business records of either Senator Reynolds has accepted them—the acceptability to North Carolina voters. His recent utterances indicate that he will seek re-election on his record, which has been anti-administration on certain war policies and isolationism.

Matters Of Record

DEATHS
Mr. Hoey probably would ask for no better campaign material, from his viewpoint, while the business records of either Senator Reynolds seems completely satisfied to play the game as the cards lie. He has had no clearer issue in his Senatorial campaigns for nearly half a century and he will be the one of thrilling interest not only at home but through the Nation.

Polio Epidemic In Hawaii

HONOLULU — (AP)—Hawaii, the great Pacific arsenal in the war against the Japanese, today is fighting another deadly enemy—infectious polio.

The territorial board of health called it an epidemic. Forty-seven cases have been treated in the past three months, with five discharged as cured, according to Dr. H. L. Arnold, medical director of the Territorial Office of Civilian Defense. Never before had Hawaii more than a few scattered cases. He said there was no apparent reason for the sudden outbreak.

The epidemic is tying down slowly Doctor Arnold said, although 46 patients are still under treatment in the territorial hospital set up for the emergency.

There are 82 species and subspecies of rays and skates in American coastal waters.

Mate Of Sunken Ship Gets Free Sub Ride

U-Boat Raider Plows Into Lifeboat, Knocks Officer On Its Deck, But He Escapes

CHARLESTON, S. C. — (AP)—Seventy-five survivors of the crew of a medium-sized merchant vessel torpedoed in the Atlantic and layed on, landing here how one of their shipmates got an unexpected and unwanted ride on a U-boat. The deck of the attacking submarine was a distant storm.

It was Second Mate Alfred M. Keith, 38, of 64 Hicks St., Brooklyn, N. Y., who came out of the sinking to ride the deck of a German submarine.

Asleep when the first torpedo hit he poked out in the dark, and got his life boat away with nine aboard. Wallowing in the heavy sea, he said he could not see the vessel as she settled but heard the explosion of a second torpedo.

Then came a sight that bugged his eyes. Bearing straight down upon him was the attacking submarine. "Look at that submarine coming right at us," he said. "We couldn't get away. There was nothing to be done. The sub, going fast, crashed into lifeboat and because it hit an angle veered the boat away without breaking it up. But it was catapulted through the air and landed smack on the foredeck of the sub."

Keith was only sick and there was nothing to hold on, even if 1,000 record cards.
