

U. S. FIRST ARMY OPENS SECOND MAJOR HOLE IN SIEGFRIED LINE

News For The Reader In A Hurry

More detailed stories of major events are carried elsewhere in this edition.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The United States First Army advanced another mile forward from the point at which its new offensive began yesterday. The Yanks are almost all the way across the main highway which leads north of the beleaguered Siegfried Line city of Aachen. First Army units captured the town of Uebach, "Ov-bank," which lies two miles inside the German border and nine miles northeast of Aachen. They moved on to capture Bergisch Gladbach, two miles beyond Uebach, and the Germans decided they'd make a real stand at that town. But American artillery pounds five batteries into Bergisch Gladbach within an hour.

The town of Palenberg, in Germany's Eifel Plateau, has been captured by British South Army troops. In the Netherlands have expanded their assault still farther, and wiped out a strong German resistance pocket.

In Northeast France, American Third Army troops are said to have made good use of their throws in fighting their way into Fort Driant, which is the main stronghold of the fortress town of Verdun. The Third crossed the moat and broke into the fort itself today, following in on foot through terrific anti-aircraft barrage which touched off great explosions and set a number of fires.

Supreme Headquarters announces that the Allied Armies in Western Europe have captured at least 526,084 German prisoners, as of yesterday. Major General Monteith, 21st Army group which includes both British and Canadians is credited with taking 140,515 prisoners.

More than 1,000 American heavy bombers ranged over the sky over Germany today, blasting Nazi war industrial targets and enemy airfields. The heaviest flights each day, featuring each group flying nonstop on a different target. One force struck at the big tank plant at Nurnberg; another at Berlin; a third at the Gelsenkirchen-Altena-Hagen Air Force base at Giebelstadt (Gef.-Bef.-Stabst.) 53 miles to the west. The third group struck the Nazi rail factory at Gelsenkirchen, 40 miles south of Karlsruhe.

The weather conditions poor in Italy, but American Fifth Army forces have driven through the mud to seize the road junction of Montecchio, just eighteen miles southwest of Bolzano. The Nazis still are trying to recapture Mount Battaglia and Mount Cappella, but the Fifth Counter-attack on every Italian

On the Adriatic side of the lower Po, the British have taken the last Eighth Army units. Most of the British and American forces have captured the town of Borghetto, and Mount Brenta.

There is no official word of new developments on the Po, but it is assumed officially that the Polish underground forces in West Italy have given up their last stand. Resistance troops are said to have kept fighting until they were completely cut off from both food and ammunition. Some of the troops are believed to have escaped.

A Tokyo communiqué asserted that American forces had crossed the east China coast and are driving toward the port city of Fushou. Chunks of sources believe such an invasion would be a logical move for the Japanese army for countering any Allied attempt to land on the coast.

Twelfth Naval District headquarters in San Francisco announced that the highest American naval officers have joined the CIO Political Action Committee and asserted that "the spirit of Communism is stalking our country from coast to coast, and we must recognize it." It appeared in the Congressional Record for June 20, NAMES IN BOMBING CAMPAIGN, page 2.

Anderson told the committee the speech was printed on a "scare type of Bristol board" same type of paper used for the German post cards in printing penny post cards." He said between eighteen and twenty thousand copies were used in printing the speech. His initial statement said the printing costs were paid by him and his wife, Mrs. Margaret Anderson, and her son, Mr. Maurice M. Pickering, clerk to the Republicans members of the House, and a Miss Stetson, who was not further identified.

At the rate of 11 1/2 cents each,

Poles Quit Long Fight In Warsaw

Thousands Cross To Red Lines

By Alex H. Singleton

LONDON — (AP)—Polish patriots gave up their 63-day battle to wrest battered and besieged Warsaw from the Germans last night, and an escaped Polish officer told Moscow newspapers that thousands of insurgents had crossed the Vistula to Russian lines, defying surrender terms.

"Warsaw is as greatly destroyed as Stalingrad," the officer was quoted in Moscow as saying.

"There is no longer any resistance in Warsaw."

Polish Army Headquarters in London confirmed earlier Moscow and Berlin statements saying that Gen. Tadeusz Bór-Komorowski, Poland's Polish Commander-in-Chief, had given up the fight.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

South-supported Polish National Liberation Committee has placed a price of $10,000 on his head.

The German communiqué said Warsaw had fallen after the Polish army had lost all supplies of food and ammunition on the 63rd day of fighting to the face of overwhelming enemy superiority.

On Oct. 2 at 8 P.M., 100,000 Poles were given leave to cross the Vistula. The battle inside Warsaw began when the Patriotic could hear Russian guns firing at the anti-German zone in the last days of the Red Army Summer offensive there was at 100 height.

LAST WORD—The Polish communiqué was the last heard from Warsaw. Polish officials here admitted they did not know the fate of the general, and where he had gone to the German lines.

<