Britain's Shadow

By JAMES F. KING

LONDON—(AP)—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden ing asserted flatly today that Britain was within her rights in sure trying to shape the governments of liberated countries, and thereby split completely with the American declaration of the comments of the polyment of the American declaration of the proposed appointment of Carlo Stora and Italian Poreign Minister. Secretary of State Stettimus had announced yesterday the United States did not oppose Stora and effet the Italians should be allowed to form their own Government without outside interference.

Edan's stand—clearly of significance in the rechaping of a secretary secretary of significance in the rechaping of a secretary secretary secretary.

ist as Stettlinus implied that "no -threeference" statement a far broader declaration than immediate issue "of Count 22, so Eden apparently applied words to the tuture of all reted Europe.
