Nor Peace

A Pacifist Spokesman Hits At The Commies

Behold, the voice of Peace Now has been temporarily still-ed, Dr. George Hartmann of Cobia University, chairman of the abortive movement, has en forced to abandon plans been forced to abandon plans to speak on "Peace Now—Why Not?" in a New York Church. The talk was cancelled after numerous threats had been made to break up the forum and assault Dr. Hartmann. The threats are lamentable, and we are prone to agree that a certain freedom of speech is tolated here. But we nonetheless deplore the very existence of any such movement as Peace. Now, Its aims are to win peace in this war at any price, and its trust is placed in a round that its placed in a round the first way to the well axis will to conquest.

Dr. Hartmann, when questioned after the cancellation of his talk, said spitch; "I have no doubt the threats can be indeed the threats can be indeed to the Communist Party." He was indeed sure of himself, even while indulging in a sit of red-batting. How does the self, even while indulging in a bit of red-balting. How does the for example. sit of red-batting. How does the good doctor know, for example, that the threats were not made by some of the millions of ordi-nary Americans who know full well that this war must be fought to the death? How does
