THE OPTIMIST
Pop: A man who thinks he can make it in pop.

THE REPORT
Churchill Drives That Everything is Rosy
In the manner of a restrained and patient parent, soberly stilling his unbelieving offspring.

NEW CHAIR
Will Clayton Seem As Dangerous Boss
The selection of Will Clayton as property disposal chief, feared by many, has now come to pass.

THE DECISIONS OF THIS MAN will determine, for example, whether this vast storehouse of new and used goods will be dumped suddenly upon the market, depressing prices and stalling industry.

It was not the stirring message of the war that drew the first Churchill speech in a long time, but there was a satisfactory difference: In the days of defeat, the Prime Minister's rhetoric rolled with great courage.

At Flat
A Morale Spropper Comes A Cropper
Morale, as such, has long irritated us. We're not in favor of pampering it, as the Government officials would have us do.

ROY PALMER
Duke Power Official Succeeds George Ivey
The selection of Roy Palmer as President of the Charlotte Chamber of Commerce assures that important local body of more aggressive leadership of the type given it by the retiring president, George Ivey.

Block That Metaphor!
From the Charlotte, S. C. Post-Opinionist, where a spokesman plan for post-war punishment would treat Germans and Nazis alike, minced no bones about his feeling.

Subsidies Threaten Us
Editors, The News:
Frank put another bean in his New Deal pot by eliminating the subsidy bill to revive in quantity.

Quote, Unquote
When victory comes we don't want to go on the side of mercy, which we know the Germans will take either for weakness or stupidity.

The Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson
WASHINGTON
Country Club "Golden Gate" Smith Jr., son of the South Carolina Senator, who succeeded in keeping out of the draft for a long time, has planned to stage today a cocktail party to celebrate his exemption from the draft.

Democrat's Girl
Member of the House Democratic Campaign Committee took her first close up of new Democratic National Chairman Robert H. Hannegan at a secret meeting in Capitol Hill the other night.

Bonus For Seaman
Today (Feb. 23) the Maritime War Emergency Board is meeting to determine a question of importance to every American merchant seaman.

Discouragement
Discouragement has a way of creeping up on all of us at times. George Mueller, famous minister and traveler of the last century, who prayed thousands of dollars into his orphanage work.

Hope Then in God
"Hope then in God," Oh, remember this: There is never a time when we may not hope in God. Whatever our difficulties, and though to all appearances help is impossible, yet our business is to hope in God and it will be found that it is not in vain.

"I Think I'll Retire Now, Herr Schickelgruber"
By Dorman Smith
Washington, the New Deal likes the gravy that sends it back to the farmer and the Urban Subsidy. Subsidies are deceitful to the core, an abomination to democracy, hypocritical in deed and in action.

The World
Editors, The News:
Why don't they build a dam from Key West to Cuba? It would cut off the Gulf Stream's flow across the Atlantic, convert the South and Middle West into a tropical paradise and change England into a glacial, uninhabitable island.

DISCOURAGEMENT has a way of creeping up on all of us at times. George Mueller, famous minister and traveler of the last century, who prayed thousands of dollars into his orphanage work.

Obscurantism Again
By Samuel Crafton
NEW YORK
Quite a few customers have kindly written in to say that they do not like the word "obscurantism" and will please go on using it. Naturally, I will go on using it. I love it.

Obscurantism
Obscurantism is where a Senator says that soldiers over-exercise of faith, more patriotism is being shown by the American people in having more faith in their government.
