The Forfeit

GOP is Now Rid Of Its Lone Liberal

The dramatic withdrawal of Wendell Willkie from the Presidential campaign makes the issue for November very clear. The Republican Party will stand for reaction for America, East or West.

Spectator

Governor Broughton Is Use To Take No Sides

Governor Broughton's announcement that he would take no part in the current State political campaign should bring to an end the talk that he has committed himself to either Ralph McDonald, or that he is putting all his power inside the Democratic Party behind Major Gregg Cherry.

Air Peak

In March, Production And Destruction High

During March, air power reached a peak of production and destruction. The biggest month marked has ever experienced in the sky.

Our Surplus

Tax Reduction Would Take Care Of It

The accumulation of a fat surplus by the Government reflects ultra careful fiscal management and ultra conservative pay-as-you-go management. This surplus, which cannot be piled up for future years, but must go into next year's budget, was also made possible by a budget estimate high in relation to actual costs, and a revenue estimate low in relation to actual income.

The Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

To that end, Hoover began to lay the groundwork for the California delegation out of Willkie's hands... Chief climax of the famous Roosevelt purge campaign was the defeat of Representative George O'Connor, chairman of the House Rules Committee and a constant thorn in the Administration's side.

Still With Us

By Rev. Herbert Spangh

Chief climax of the famous Roosevelt purge campaign was the defeat of Representative George O'Connor, chairman of the House Rules Committee and a constant thorn in the Administration's side.

The Concert Of Allied Nations

By Dorman Smith

Bricker's No Harding

By Marquis Childs

HOT SPRINGS, ARK.—The call Governor Bricker to take Ohio as "best friend" is unfair for more reasons than one. It is one of those ill-phrased phrases that serve merely to cloud public thinking.

Everyday Counselor

By Rev. Herbert Spangh

THURSDAY in Holy Week is called the Maundy Thursday. The Latin "Mandatum est" translated, "It is commanded." It was the evening of the night when Jesus had His farewell discourse with His disciples.

Peace & War Aims

By Dorothy Thompson

ON Sunday evening the Soviet Communist Foreign Minister, Mr. Molotov, held a press conference, an all but unique event in the history of the Soviet Union.

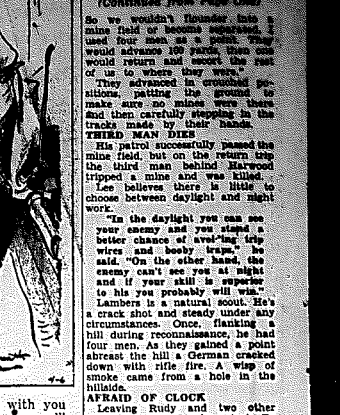

The Begging Refugees

By Samuel Grafton

THE free ports for refugees fleeing the Hitler regime are a small but important part of the world's economy. Obviously we need a place where they can rest and recuperate.
