Mutiny

Soldiers Don't Like Our Attitude

At home there is the plaint of civilians that the War Department coddles them as children in lulling out the war news and seasoning it well with admonitions and advice...

A major stand in front of Paris even though it has been announced that German armies are still being reeled back to the South of France...

The removal of great forces from Southern France, in turn, opens the possibility of further landings on the Mediterranean coast...

The Library

Its True State Is Revealed By Survey

Last week's publication of the findings of the survey made by the American Library Association of the Charlotte libraries contained no surprises...

- 1. The library lacks a definite plan for the development of first grade service.
2. The Carnegie Building, including its equipment, is inadequate to present needs and does not warrant remodeling for necessary expansion.

With present library services in such a deplorable state, the community faces the future under severest handicaps...

The Battle

Security At Stake In Capital Struggle

The opening debate on the return to peace is a high challenge to a Congress sharply divided on the question of the power and responsibility of the Federal Government...

The Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON. The row inside the War Production Board over peacetime conversion is bestially between big business and little business...

Several weeks ago, Wilson suggested to Nelson that an old friend, whom both of them could trust, wanted to come back to Washington—namely, Sidney Weinberg...

Workers in war plants, looking at the flag flying over the Anconaco factories, with a big "E" whipping through the air, now say, "They must be giving out those E's for errors."

Say When!

By Dorman Smith

By Dorothy Thompson

WASHINGTON. It has become the fashion to say that Peace must be enforced. Ever since the Peace Conference, Mr. Hull, Mr. Churchill, Premier Stalin and Mr. Dewey, to enforce peace, are contending for the first time in American history...

Washington Scene

By Drew Pearson

A small, middle-aged man, wearing a Marine officer's uniform and a service ribbon, talked up to the cigar counter in a Washington drug store...

Naval Department officials aren't saying anything about it, but they have received several complaints from workers in war plants who want to know why the armed forces are making a farce of the Army-Navy awards...

Here's the story of Jim Farley's trip to the Democratic Convention. He was primed and loaded with ammunition to upset a four-term incumbent...

Farley Changes

By Herbert Spang, D. D.

INTERESTING stories have come back from the battlefronts. Some of them tell of tragedy. Some of them tell of a more cheerful sermon.

The Consequences

Two-Way Pressure

By Marquis Childs

THE money but shall have nothing to say as to how it shall be spent. The state could flagrantly misuse the money and yet, presumably, the Federal Government could do nothing about it.

Here in Missouri, a year or so ago, an incident occurred that illustrates this conflict. Under a Federal grant...

The Eastern states want to keep the present top-sliced rate structure. Governor Dewey went before the Interstate Commerce Commission...

Scabees Save Ship's Cargo

By Dorothy Thompson

WASHINGTON.—It's a floating rain and heavy seas for 45 hours, a Navy Seabee battalion salvaged a merchant ship...

Resort Visitors Disturb Visitors

By Dorothy Thompson

SHARVICH, Mass.—Some Summer visitors at the Cape Cod resort were parading around town in too many "conventional" dresses...

SEMI-GLANCES

By Galbraith

WITH BY BAL BOYLE. July 26 (Delayed)—(P)—Eight German Ploke-Walls diverged from the glow of our sea lanterns...

"I wish your mother would worry less about the scarcity of antiques and more about this 1933 car falling apart!"

Everyday Counselor

By Herbert Spang, D. D.
