A New Day
Public Doesn't Agree
With Mr. Daniels

The good sense and staunch democracy of Josephus Daniels are not to be called into question, because when he is found vigorously restating the suggestion of compulsory military training for the United States of the future, we think it goes without saying that he ought to be listened to. Universal conscription and training in time of peace is something radically new for the country.

War Parallels

Sometimes history repeats, sometimes it doesn't. Anyway, here are some interesting parallels to the last war.

Chickenry

The vagaries of this world are getting to be too much for us. As if it weren't enough that the sphere trembles on its axis in the throes of war, the flood of retarding problems increases daily.

Are We Ready?

THE nearer we come to Germany, the less we seem concerned with what is happening inside Germany. Our official attitude is that the problem is solved by purely military means.

Monty's Rank

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sir Bernard L. Montgomery now holds military title in the British Army higher than that in the American Army by Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Robertson Wins Writers' Award

NEW YORK (AP)—The Nathan W. Robertson of the Washington Post has been announced as the winner of the American Newspaper Guild's (CIG) 1944 Heywood Brown award.

Believes Draft Calls To Be Lighter From Now On

WASHINGTON (AP)—Charles McNair, Democratic congressman from a house military district in Kentucky, believes the Selective Service calls will be lighter now on.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House committee to probe un-American activities, has sent out subpoenas to new witnesses of his own in American newspaper. He has put his eleven-year-old son on the Congressional payroll at a salary of $2,400, plus 10 per cent for overtime.

In addition, Mrs. Dies is on her husband's Congressional payroll at the rate of $2,000, plus 15 per cent for overtime. However, neither Mrs. Dies nor her husband has any office to collect over and for.

The Opposition can cry that the Democratic Party is run by the Big Boss, a one-man office machine. It can cry that the Big City machines keep it in line. It can cry that Communism entered its ranks with Sidney Hillman, and that the CIO is going to run the country.

It's the women. They're out hoping with soldier ballots, serving as precinct and county leaders, running for office, making house-to-house calls.

None. They're fairly caught here. The women, as usual, are invulnerable. And one word of criticism of this new "pressure group" would prove fatal.

It at that time, T. probably was analyzed in a move by German Army officers in July to force Hitler to surrender, resulting in their burning.

In the last war, when the Kaiser defied answering the Sept. 26 demand of the German Supreme Command, Hindenburg, on Oct. 1, sent an urgent message to the Kaiser which read:

"The Supreme Command insists on the demand of Sunday, 29th September, that you cease after to our enemies be at once."

However, the Kaiser did not heed. Like Hitler, he continued to sit.

On Oct. 10, 1918, Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig reported to General George that the German Army is capable of retiring to its own frontiers and holding that line against equal or even superior forces.

In the coming winter, the enemy will have several months for recuperation. So we must conclude that the enemy will be able to hold the line which he selects for some time after the campaign of 1919 commences.

Instead of the campaign going in 1919, however, it collapsed three weeks after Haig sent the above report to the British Cabinet.

The death-like calm that hung over City Hall Square, pressing down about September 1918, was a foreboding omen.

Fireman Cy McCall was beating his buttons off his shirt as he walked with pride at the press release about the G. I. bearing and the demeanor of his daughter, Seaman Fireman Cy McCall of the U. S. Navy, whose picture appeared in the New York Times.

Aside to Ward Threatt: You are always complaining about the lack of compensation for your services so you might get your very invited son to look into the matter.

Watch his reaction, especially if such things were not tolerated. Sabbath desecration is a form of modern idolatry, placing other things above our duty to God.

So I do not know. But the conscription existed, and could have been avoided.

There are all sorts of symptoms that anti-Nazis made evolutions in the Allied press.

In the days of the plot the attitude expressed by inspired Germany was not to be ebated out of victory; we demand unconditional surrender.

Actually, the Unconditional Surrender formula is in the water-pump bucket. Surrender implies that you are not a conqueror.

The situation we have met in Germany is not established as our correspondents. It is a revolutionary situation. But it is a revolutionary situation.

John J. Pershing, retired, has an appointment rank higher than that of the full general of the United States, general of the armies, a rank conferred upon him by a special act of Congress in 1919 in recognition of his World War I leadership of the AEF.

Dr. H. H. Kung, Chinese ambassador in Washington, said that the Chinese will be invaded by the enemy.

They climbed all over our noses and kissed us. Lord, how they kissed us! I didn't think it was possible to be kissed by so many people so many times in one day.
