

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS

And Evening Chronicle... Published Every Afternoon Except Sunday by The News Publishing Company, Inc.

TED (AFL)

Devey Angles For The Disaffected Labor Vote... Governor Devey's supporters must have wondered at one of two points in his labor speech if he hadn't got hold of the wrong manuscript.

What had happened to Labor under the New Deal was all part of a conspiracy... AFL leaders coming to the White House, you see, to eat humble pie served by CIO leaders.

Furthermore, cried the parkinists, lighting into Madam Perkins and her atrophied Department of Labor, not for twelve years had Labor been represented in the Cabinet by genuine Secretary of Labor.

Last Breath

Cotton Ed Is Going To Use It Just Cussin'... Senator Cotton Ed Smith, the granddaddy of Roosevelt-baiters and haters, North, South East and West, is about the business of fulfilling a promise.

A Calm

Montgomery-Ward Is Only A House Echo... For all the future which raged over last Spring, the storm blew over, the crisis passed, and the nation relaxed.

Our Guns

They Cannot Wait Upon Debate In The Senate... In the matter of making the peace talk, once it has been made, our money is on the Republican progressives of the Senate.

The Polling Industry

By Marquis Childs... NEW YORK (AP)—Public opinion sampling is fast becoming one of the nation's major industries, and it's flourishing particularly in this election year.

Close Enough To Cast A Shadow

By Dorman Smith... THE power of personal influence, example, witness is tremendous. The story has just come to this desk of an American sailor.

FR & Social Justice

Editors, The News: It seems a common practice for the Republicans to liken the proper functions of the Federal Government to those of a big business corporation.

The Veteran Of Victories

Editors, The News: I am going to vote for Roosevelt first, as a statesman he is known and trusted not only by millions of Americans, but also abroad.

By Galbraith

When Gallup goes poll-taking on his own, he usually uses a name like "Mr. or Mrs. Jones" and the other day a lady who asked him his name when he came to the door thought him off guard and he said Gallup.

Everyday Counselor

By Herbert Spough, D. D. THE power of personal influence, example, witness is tremendous. The story has just come to this desk of an American sailor.

The German Sphinx

By Dorothy Thompson... There are millions of ardent Americans who have followed the news regarding their reception in the Belgian border town of Eupen.

We Can't Afford A Change Now

Editors, The News: I will vote for FDR because this is the time to change Presidents. We are at the crisis of American history and an experienced President is more valuable than a novice.

Power of America impresses Germans

By HAL BOYLE... ROMANET, France, Sept. 15 (AP)—The power of America impresses the German people, according to a French correspondent.

Official Not Sure War Criminals Rate Trials

WELLINGTON, N. Z., Sept. 19 (AP)—Prime Minister Peter Fraser of New Zealand believes "war criminals" should be punished severely for the deaths of millions.

The German Sphinx

By Dorothy Thompson... There are millions of ardent Americans who have followed the news regarding their reception in the Belgian border town of Eupen.

We Can't Afford A Change Now

Editors, The News: I will vote for FDR because this is the time to change Presidents. We are at the crisis of American history and an experienced President is more valuable than a novice.

