

EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the third of Dr. Pearson's columns on Mr. Dulles.

(Here, but for some reason the paragraph was never published.)

Inflated Company

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON

WHEN you study the official investigations of Wall Street firms, which caused the outrage demanding the establishment of a Securities and Exchange Commission, you find that some of the most top-heavy investments of the past were built up by the legal adviser of the firm of Sullivan and Cromwell, of which John Foster Dulles is the most prominent partner.

WITHE BY HAL BOYLE

Sic Semper A Free-Will'd People Don't Relish Control

By now, it may be assumed the Salisbury rallying board controversy is quite well on its way to settlement and dispositions returning to an amicable normal. No other result, though at the price of severely and perhaps permanently hurt feelings, was to be expected. If the Salisburyans desire to, they are entitled to claim victory, or so it seems from this distance.

The Grab-Off After All The Army And Navy Are Allies

Two headlines in the paper this week, when read one after the other, offered a striking commentary on draft policies; to wit: OLDER MEN MAY FACE DRAFT SOON NAVY RECRUITS 17-YEAR OLDS

Reluctant Witness

In fact, even today Dulles is being hounded by disagreeable lawyers who demand his deposition in one of the most suspicious-looking cases in the history of American utility companies, where $500,000 was contributed to the campaigns of Bruce Campbell, Democratic candidate for Governor of Illinois, Mayor Bernard Francis Dickmann of St. Louis, Senator Roscoe Patterson of Missouri, Ed

What Flavor??

Government prosecutors put John Dulles, on the witness stand, and grilled him at great length, but did not indict him. They did indict executive vice-president of Union Electric.

Dominating Influence

Dulles also was a dominating influence in the Babcock & Wilcox Boiler Co. Until recent years subsidiaries of the North American Co. were required to buy their power plant boilers from Babcock & Wilcox, sometimes at prices considerably higher than those obtainable at competitive bidding.

Does war mean unending on the home front, with pleasures scarce and little meaning discernible here? Does one grow impatient of restraints and yearn for the headlines to march straight into Berlin, and be done with that and of it, so that they may transfer the headlines and the breadcasts to the Pacific and be done with that too, and so back to us as we were?

Franklin's Resignation

He remained there for nine years, until suddenly, on Nov. 4, 1933, he resigned. His resignation followed a phone call from the Securities and Exchange Commission that was intended to investigate the operations of North American's most important subsidiary, Union Electric of Missouri.

Franklin's Resignation

He remained there for nine years, until suddenly, on Nov. 4, 1933, he resigned. His resignation followed a phone call from the Securities and Exchange Commission that was intended to investigate the operations of North American's most important subsidiary, Union Electric of Missouri.

Aimee Always One For Dramatic Exits And Entrances

On the same note of sensationalism that she first rode into the public ken, Aimee Semple McPherson, high priestess of showmanship, seems to have been bound to ride out. The lass who disappeared from the beach at Venice, California, in the fall of 1928, setting a nation searching for her while it half wondered if she weren't shackled up somewhere, who turned up a month later in Mexico with a fascinating tale of her capture, kidnapped and tortured, now at 35 has been found dead in her hotel room.

Deucey Promises Dixie More Of The Same

We hear a yelp or two from Southern editors that Tom Dewey has omitted the South in his plans for a new and greater United States. His proclamation that "in a new administration East, West and Middle West will receive equal treatment, post-war reconversion" has brought protests that the one-fourth of the nation's population living in the South would be ignored in the event of a GOP victory.

How's That? German Defeat, Says OWI, Will Only Help Japan

The Office of War Information, having collected its data from the war agencies at large, has made the startling announcement that the defeat of Japan may be days as long as two years after the end of Germany. Americans must have felt the shock of that, but relaxed somewhat as they dug down into the story and fished out some of the OWI reasoning. That don't, they likely dismissed the whole affair as an example of conditioning propaganda.

People's Platform Watch The War Criminals

incarcerated on the Isle of Alcatraz. He should be made to appear before the judge, and justice should be meted out to him in accordance to the laws of the country in which he is tried. We killed Hitler and the crimes he was allegedly charged with are trifling misdemeanors in comparison to those committed by Hitler against innocent humanity.

Dewey Shouldn't Have Said A Word

Politicians like all other human beings in their quest for gain, inevitably through unwhittled excess the very things of greatest value possessed by their constituents. When Mr. Thomas Dewey, New York Governor, said that he could find a haven in Justice Swayne, Spain, and Portugal, was not new to too great. In my opinion he would more likely have chosen to say that he would like to spend a few days in any other city should he choose such a way of departure from his country.

Post Script To Content

For the past few weeks I have been reading in The News of why this or that vote was given for Mr. Roosevelt or Mr. Dewey. It looks like there's all sorts of things going on in the back of the mind of the voter.

Quote, Unquote

BRITISH HOME SECRETARY HERBERT Morrison said that any peace treaty emerging from the Senate will provide real peace. "There is no basic distinction between the war with Germany and the war with Japan."

Crosby Supports Dewey; Sinatra Backs Roosevelt

WASHINGTON—The Bing Crosby and Frank Sinatra schools of thought may find themselves at odds over politics now that Sinatra has come out for a Roosevelt fourth term.

How's That? German Defeat, Says OWI, Will Only Help Japan

The Office of War Information, having collected its data from the war agencies at large, has made the startling announcement that the defeat of Japan may be days as long as two years after the end of Germany. Americans must have felt the shock of that, but relaxed somewhat as they dug down into the story and fished out some of the OWI reasoning. That don't, they likely dismissed the whole affair as an example of conditioning propaganda.

People's Platform Watch The War Criminals

incarcerated on the Isle of Alcatraz. He should be made to appear before the judge, and justice should be meted out to him in accordance to the laws of the country in which he is tried. We killed Hitler and the crimes he was allegedly charged with are trifling misdemeanors in comparison to those committed by Hitler against innocent humanity.

Dewey Shouldn't Have Said A Word

Politicians like all other human beings in their quest for gain, inevitably through unwhittled excess the very things of greatest value possessed by their constituents. When Mr. Thomas Dewey, New York Governor, said that he could find a haven in Justice Swayne, Spain, and Portugal, was not new to too great. In my opinion he would more likely have chosen to say that he would like to spend a few days in any other city should he choose such a way of departure from his country.

Post Script To Content

For the past few weeks I have been reading in The News of why this or that vote was given for Mr. Roosevelt or Mr. Dewey. It looks like there's all sorts of things going on in the back of the mind of the voter.

Quote, Unquote

BRITISH HOME SECRETARY HERBERT Morrison said that any peace treaty emerging from the Senate will provide real peace. "There is no basic distinction between the war with Germany and the war with Japan."

Crosby Supports Dewey; Sinatra Backs Roosevelt

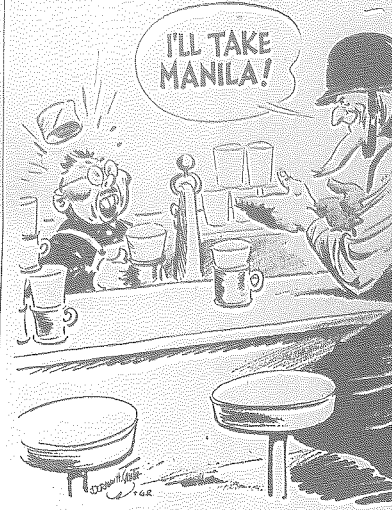

WASHINGTON—The Bing Crosby and Frank Sinatra schools of thought may find themselves at odds over politics now that Sinatra has come out for a Roosevelt fourth term.

Book On Veteran Jobs Soon To Be Published

A booklet showing the relationship and duties of each of twelve Federal and State agencies working for discharged veterans in obtaining employment is being prepared by the Veterans Administration.

Franklin's Resignation

He remained there for nine years, until suddenly, on Nov. 4, 1933, he resigned. His resignation followed a phone call from the Securities and Exchange Commission that was intended to investigate the operations of North American's most important subsidiary, Union Electric of Missouri.

Vertical text on the right edge of the page, including '117' and other small print.