A Single For Once Nobody Claimed The Kill

In its wide assortment of murder cases, Charlotte has had a good many queer ones. One to remember was committed by a Negro armed to the teeth like a Commando and as evidently out for trouble. He pleaded self-defense and got the life term. Another was a gruesome affair in which a Negro man poured oil over his erstwhile light of love and then set her afire. People's Platform Dear Brother Snodgrass:

Editors, The News: I am in receipt of a letter from Mr. John Snodgrass, of Snodgrass, N. C., and since this town is not listed I should like space in your paper to reply. If you will permit me to do so, Mr. Snodgrass complains that he is good and hard because "Tom" is promising jobs in industrial enterprises, when he was planning to get his job back after the war.
