Er. Ahem!

Mr. Dewey Cusses, Then He Shrugs

One more item concerning Tom Dewey's opening campaign speech, and we will no longer labor an obvious point...

The Senate

The Democrats Have It, Regardless Of Big Race

Quite aside from the Presidential campaign, the political situation in this year of tumult has something of the two-familiar look of 1918...

There is actually no sign that Senate Democrats in general are opposed to the making of a sane peace for the world...

Mathematically there is a chance of a Republican winning the Senate control...

It is the most serious and the most threatening situation that has befallen the world since the end of the first world war...

It is a great mistake to suppose that the British have made it clear, however, that they would not get in the way of a decent food policy...

The Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON
The President really let loose a home fireworks at last week's Cabinet meeting...

Today, there is a revolt among some of the same type of men regarding the fact that the Allied campaign in Burma has bogged down...

One of the young State Department officials who led the revolt against U. S. appeasement of Japan before Pearl Harbor was John P. Davies Jr. an expert on Far Eastern affairs...

When the Allied campaign in Burma first began to bog down, General Stilwell sent Davies from Burma to India to make a survey of what was holding things up...

It Won't Be Long Now!

By Dorman Smith

HOW can I help a friend to love his own world? He is his own worst enemy and doesn't realize it. A correspondent raises this age old question in a letter which is on my desk...

Many people who have an inferiority complex do not recognize it as selfishness, yet that is what it is. No one can live alone and not become selfish...

Almighty God did not intend for man to be alone. He said so. He gave man a help-mate. But he did not intend for man to content with mere human companionship...

Pressure On Rationing

By Benjamin Child

WASHINGTON
The price of rationing is high. The price of rationing is high. The price of rationing is high. The price of rationing is high...

In these great moments ours is really a peoples' war. No Americans soldier, on the European continent, has the right to say "What are we fighting for?"

Seldom does such a moment come to any people. It recalls all the great revolutions of the past...

It is the most remarkably successful conflict that ever waged a war. No one has failed in his assignment...

When the Allies would attempt to make a final peace, they would be self-enforcing, to a considerable measure, for any German who refused to accept the terms of the peace would be self-enforcing...

Never A Peace?

By Samuel Grafton

WASHINGTON
The question of peace is a question of peace. The question of peace is a question of peace. The question of peace is a question of peace...

SIDE GLANCES

By Colbraith

DAVIES hinted that the British did not want to go back to Burma until they could take it by themselves. Through the initiative of the United States and China, he indicated, would not help British politics and prestige...

What do you want to look like today, Mrs. Jones? A grandmother, mother, or daughter?

Everyday Counselor

By Herbert Spough, D. D.

God intended that man should share with his fellow men the good things which He gave him. This is the great fundamental law of life. We share what we have or lose it...

The Bible is one of the finest text books on human relationship. The Golden Rule is one of its fundamental laws. As we seek the happiness of others we find it ourselves...

I will be glad to send a list of recommended books to those who face the problems of the everyday. Write THE EVERYDAY COUNSELOR in care of The Charlotte News in which you read this.

Last Sacrifice

By Dorothy Thompson

Without protection. The weight of Allied armor is astronomical. The best German divisions are destroyed, or captured, or have been taken into the rear...

A huge theatrical performance, thousands of children are assembled—Jews from Jerusalem, Christians from throughout Germany...

General Guderian speaks, first at the rear of his children. He reads a list of love and pride and then, at the rear, he reads a list of love and pride...

The world must return to reason and to the values which alone freedom and civilization can develop. What must be extinguished in Germany is the romantic notion that never on land or sea, and death is the only way to life...

Claims It's His

Turn To Be Mad

CHICAGO — Mrs. Viola Beck, 27, told Superior Judge Joseph Sabath yesterday she was ready to drop her suit for separate maintenance against her husband...

Beck's attorney advised he was provoked because Mrs. Beck has not signed in the public tank of his car. Mrs. Beck's attorney said that was right, but he argued she had a reason...
