Superior Court Bogged Down By Own Inefficiency

his name was called out.

He was not present. The judge ordered a capias issued (an order to the sheriff to bring the defendant into court.) But there is no record anywhere of the capias—whether it was issued, whether it was served, whether it was returned to the court. Again in September, 1943, the defendant's name was called out. Once again he failed to answer. A nisse isci-fa forder for the bendsman to appear in 30 days and show cause why the bond should not be forfeited) was issued, as was another capias. There is no record of whether the ni-sei sci-fa or the capias was issued, served, or returned to court. No further record appears in the case until the June term of this year when it was nol-prossed. The defendant, so far as the records show, never appeared in court at all, and his bendsman never forked over the $200. Now the case has been marked closed.
