Debate on the Full Employment Bill.

If it does nothing else, should exve to make the conscious of their own meager provisions for crises of unemployment. North Carolina, to be sure, has often been apprised of its low standing, but the last Legislature, taking confidence in the huge surplus on hand with the limited of the low standing but the last Legislature, taking confidence in the huge surplus on hand with the Unemployment. Secretary of 'Labor Schwellenbach, Unemployment Compensation Commission, saw fit to liberalize the maximum benefit.

Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach, suggesting that we go after full employment by paying the unemployed $25 a week for 28 weeks, said that the states should simply borrow from the Federal Government what they needed to make these payments. He didn't say how they should repay, but thought they micht make up the difference between their present benefits and the $25 standard (for 26 weeks at some later date. Well, North Carolina pays unemployment, benefits of $20 a week for 16 weeks. That a maximum, and could run ag high as $320 per unemployed worker in a single year. But the Federal coale, which is $5 higher per week and runs 10 weeks longer, could amount to $650. Thats a difference of $330 for each unemployed worker.

Say that we were struck by a pretty severe depression for several mouths. It is not unlikely (if that occurred that a minimum of 50,000 North Carolina, workers would be thrown out of jobs, and be unable to find others. At least, for the size of arcument, say that is conceivable. If it lasted for as long as 25 weeks, with those $0,000 out of work, someone would have to fork over just $16,500,000 to make up the difference between North Carolina and Federal Scales.

And, for further headaches, look back to 1930, when our income was last 'nor-The is not unlikely of that occurred that a minimum of 50,000 North Carclina workers would be thrown out of job, and be unable to the others. At least, for the size of arcument, say that is concervable. If a laced for as long as 25 weeks, with those 50,000 out of work someone would have to fork over just $16,500,000 to make up the difference between North Carolina and Federal scales.

And, for further headaches, look back to 1939, when our moone was last "nor-mai." In that year employed North Cafolinians had an average annual-income of $617 (315.71 weekly)—and the per capital income was only $308 a year (55.22 weekly). In a state where such low, wace averages ordinarily prevail, what do you suppose would be the effect of an offering of $550 a year, with no labor attached?

It's all right with us that there were just 26 of the bloodiest Nazi butchers in the first roundup. They'll do, as a start of. There's not the slightest double anywhere, we suppose, that all of these arguilty as doss, and deserve nothing better than immediate justice—to be administered by firmis quad or hangman. But the stories are calling this first bia action a mass trial. Considering the thousands of guilty Germans abroad we can't understand that. We don't think the future will be worked out this way. Who's senig to set a price on a nation's freedom? All we have left, as con-victors and calles, is the wealth of accomplishment and ex-perience, and the opportunity to make a bright, peaceful future. In view of the terrible cost we have paid for that, any-thing else seems inconsequential.

Little Theater

Among the signs that Charlotte is de-veloping a cultural awareness of softs is the Little Theater. Its drive for a full membership, which opened this week, is sure to meet with immediate suc-cess, and sell-out performances for its productions are assured. So the Theater is going to need little help now; It has arrived.

What! You don't know where carrier division 1 and carrier division II are? Kimmel asked.

"No Sir. I do not," Capt. Laston replied, "I tilink they are in home waters, but 1 do not know where carrier are in home waters, but 1 do not know where the carrier waters are in home waters. But 1 do not know where the carrier waters are in home waters are the carrier water of the carrier waters are carried as the carrier water of the carrier water water and the carrier water water

Later on, every day up to the Pearl Harbor aitack, Layton sent reports to Kimmel pointing out there was no knowledge of where the missing Apa car-riers were. Layton also told Kimmel that 200 Jap naval cells had been partially identified and that not a single one was from a carrier. When ships are on a combat mission they maintain radio silence. Thus it was known that the carriers were up to something.

It was known that the carriers were up to sometimes. But Kimmed idin nothing about the warnings. He never sent out a single plane from any fleet head quarters to look for the missing Japs. This was despite the fact that Washington had warned of a neak attack from "orange" (the secret Gode name for Japan), which had never declared war in her entire history of ruthless, unexpected aggression.
