

INDEFINITE DRAFT NATIONAL ASSOCIATION

Iran Files New Protest Against Red Troop Activities

FORMER PREMIER GREETED BY FRENCH AMBASSADOR—Leon Blum (right), former French Premier, is greeted by French Ambassador Henri Bonnet as he arrives at Washington National Airport. Blum, reportedly is in the United States to seek a loan for his country. (Acme Photo.)

Circulated Among UNO Officials

Iran Envoy At Washington Acts

WASHINGTON (AP)—A strong Iranian protest against activities of Russian troops in that country was circulated today among member nations of the United Nations Security Council.

HE JUST LAUGHED AND LAUGHED

A good man in a picket line store as employees tried to fight through picket lines of AFL Retail Clerks Union. (Acme Photo.)

Selective Service In Request To Committee

Hearings Will Open Thursday

WASHINGTON (AP)—Extension of the draft law for an indefinite period, with service of inductees limited to eighteen months, was recommended today to the House Military Committee by Selective Service Director.

Canada Not After Break

OTTAWA (AP)—Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King told Parliament last night that his Government was gravely concerned over Russian espionage activities which he said had extended through the Dominion into the U. S. and Britain, but he frowned on the idea of an open break between Canada and Russia.

Contract At Stake Coal Bargaining Parleys Started

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bituminous coal operators and the United Mine Workers began actual bargaining negotiations for a new contract today.

Division Reported In Cabinet At Tehran

TEHRAN (AP)—Ahmed Qavam Es Salameh's three votes as Premier, Minister of the Interior and Foreign Minister appeared today to have forced the decision of the State Department office of Middle Eastern Affairs, and said afterwards he was seeking information.

Hungarian Nazis Are Strangled

BUDAPEST (AP)—Three Hungarian Nazis were strangled today—the legal method of hanging in Hungary—a week after former Premier Ferenc Szalasi was executed in the same manner.

Five Catholic Clergy Members Reported Slain

ROME (AP)—The Italian news agency ANSA today quoted an Italian war veteran landing at Bari from Scutari, Albania, as reporting that five members of the Catholic clergy were executed by Albanian firing squads March 5.

Swallows Return To Old Mission

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, CALIF.—A flock of swallows began descending on Mission San Juan Capistrano early today, fulfilling an ancient legend which says they will return every year on St. Joseph's Day.

Earth Tremors In Italy

ROME (AP)—The Italian news agency ANSA, reported today that earth tremors had been felt in the region of Reggio Calabria and Messina yesterday afternoon.

Workers Ratify Terms Union Approves GM Agreement

DETROIT (AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers today announced ratification of the national agreement with General Motors which followed the 113-day nationwide strike against GM plants.

Sl.65 Per Pair Solon's Sad Story Of Sleazy Shorts

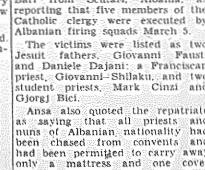

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dignified members of the House Banking and Currency Committee now know all about the serious shorts shortage at the home of Representative Jesse P. Wolcott, Republican, Michigan.

Weather Official Weather Bureau Forecast

Temperature at 1:30 today 48; High and low last 34 hours 48, 40; Sunset today 6:56; Sunrise tomorrow 6:06.

Professor Maxwell's Advance Predictions

(The News presents Professor Maxwell's advance weather forecast as an interesting and useful study feature. We point out that the official forecast remains that of the U. S. Weather Bureau.)

Canada Not After Break

OTTAWA (AP)—Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King told Parliament last night that his Government was gravely concerned over Russian espionage activities which he said had extended through the Dominion into the U. S. and Britain, but he frowned on the idea of an open break between Canada and Russia.

Contract At Stake Coal Bargaining Parleys Started

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bituminous coal operators and the United Mine Workers began actual bargaining negotiations for a new contract today.

Division Reported In Cabinet At Tehran

TEHRAN (AP)—Ahmed Qavam Es Salameh's three votes as Premier, Minister of the Interior and Foreign Minister appeared today to have forced the decision of the State Department office of Middle Eastern Affairs, and said afterwards he was seeking information.

Hungarian Nazis Are Strangled

BUDAPEST (AP)—Three Hungarian Nazis were strangled today—the legal method of hanging in Hungary—a week after former Premier Ferenc Szalasi was executed in the same manner.

Swallows Return To Old Mission

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, CALIF.—A flock of swallows began descending on Mission San Juan Capistrano early today, fulfilling an ancient legend which says they will return every year on St. Joseph's Day.

Workers Ratify Terms Union Approves GM Agreement

DETROIT (AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers today announced ratification of the national agreement with General Motors which followed the 113-day nationwide strike against GM plants.

Sl.65 Per Pair Solon's Sad Story Of Sleazy Shorts

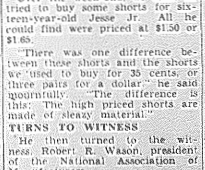

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dignified members of the House Banking and Currency Committee now know all about the serious shorts shortage at the home of Representative Jesse P. Wolcott, Republican, Michigan.

Weather Official Weather Bureau Forecast

Temperature at 1:30 today 48; High and low last 34 hours 48, 40; Sunset today 6:56; Sunrise tomorrow 6:06.

Professor Maxwell's Advance Predictions

(The News presents Professor Maxwell's advance weather forecast as an interesting and useful study feature. We point out that the official forecast remains that of the U. S. Weather Bureau.)

Canada Not After Break

OTTAWA (AP)—Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King told Parliament last night that his Government was gravely concerned over Russian espionage activities which he said had extended through the Dominion into the U. S. and Britain, but he frowned on the idea of an open break between Canada and Russia.

Contract At Stake Coal Bargaining Parleys Started

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bituminous coal operators and the United Mine Workers began actual bargaining negotiations for a new contract today.

Division Reported In Cabinet At Tehran

TEHRAN (AP)—Ahmed Qavam Es Salameh's three votes as Premier, Minister of the Interior and Foreign Minister appeared today to have forced the decision of the State Department office of Middle Eastern Affairs, and said afterwards he was seeking information.

Hungarian Nazis Are Strangled

BUDAPEST (AP)—Three Hungarian Nazis were strangled today—the legal method of hanging in Hungary—a week after former Premier Ferenc Szalasi was executed in the same manner.

Swallows Return To Old Mission

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, CALIF.—A flock of swallows began descending on Mission San Juan Capistrano early today, fulfilling an ancient legend which says they will return every year on St. Joseph's Day.

Workers Ratify Terms Union Approves GM Agreement

DETROIT (AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers today announced ratification of the national agreement with General Motors which followed the 113-day nationwide strike against GM plants.

Sl.65 Per Pair Solon's Sad Story Of Sleazy Shorts

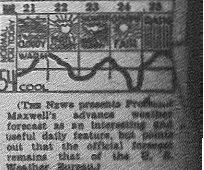

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dignified members of the House Banking and Currency Committee now know all about the serious shorts shortage at the home of Representative Jesse P. Wolcott, Republican, Michigan.

Weather Official Weather Bureau Forecast

Temperature at 1:30 today 48; High and low last 34 hours 48, 40; Sunset today 6:56; Sunrise tomorrow 6:06.

Professor Maxwell's Advance Predictions

(The News presents Professor Maxwell's advance weather forecast as an interesting and useful study feature. We point out that the official forecast remains that of the U. S. Weather Bureau.)

Hal Boyle Little Hope For Peace Held By British Veterans In Near East

By HAL BOYLE CAIRO (AP)—There is widespread disillusion among veteran British troops in the Middle East on the prospects of permanent peace.

Contract At Stake Coal Bargaining Parleys Started

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bituminous coal operators and the United Mine Workers began actual bargaining negotiations for a new contract today.

Division Reported In Cabinet At Tehran

TEHRAN (AP)—Ahmed Qavam Es Salameh's three votes as Premier, Minister of the Interior and Foreign Minister appeared today to have forced the decision of the State Department office of Middle Eastern Affairs, and said afterwards he was seeking information.

Hungarian Nazis Are Strangled

BUDAPEST (AP)—Three Hungarian Nazis were strangled today—the legal method of hanging in Hungary—a week after former Premier Ferenc Szalasi was executed in the same manner.

Swallows Return To Old Mission

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, CALIF.—A flock of swallows began descending on Mission San Juan Capistrano early today, fulfilling an ancient legend which says they will return every year on St. Joseph's Day.

Workers Ratify Terms Union Approves GM Agreement

DETROIT (AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers today announced ratification of the national agreement with General Motors which followed the 113-day nationwide strike against GM plants.

Sl.65 Per Pair Solon's Sad Story Of Sleazy Shorts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dignified members of the House Banking and Currency Committee now know all about the serious shorts shortage at the home of Representative Jesse P. Wolcott, Republican, Michigan.

Weather Official Weather Bureau Forecast

Temperature at 1:30 today 48; High and low last 34 hours 48, 40; Sunset today 6:56; Sunrise tomorrow 6:06.

Professor Maxwell's Advance Predictions

(The News presents Professor Maxwell's advance weather forecast as an interesting and useful study feature. We point out that the official forecast remains that of the U. S. Weather Bureau.)

Canada Not After Break

OTTAWA (AP)—Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King told Parliament last night that his Government was gravely concerned over Russian espionage activities which he said had extended through the Dominion into the U. S. and Britain, but he frowned on the idea of an open break between Canada and Russia.

Contract At Stake Coal Bargaining Parleys Started

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bituminous coal operators and the United Mine Workers began actual bargaining negotiations for a new contract today.

Division Reported In Cabinet At Tehran

TEHRAN (AP)—Ahmed Qavam Es Salameh's three votes as Premier, Minister of the Interior and Foreign Minister appeared today to have forced the decision of the State Department office of Middle Eastern Affairs, and said afterwards he was seeking information.

Hungarian Nazis Are Strangled

BUDAPEST (AP)—Three Hungarian Nazis were strangled today—the legal method of hanging in Hungary—a week after former Premier Ferenc Szalasi was executed in the same manner.

Hal Boyle Little Hope For Peace Held By British Veterans In Near East

By HAL BOYLE CAIRO (AP)—There is widespread disillusion among veteran British troops in the Middle East on the prospects of permanent peace.

Contract At Stake Coal Bargaining Parleys Started

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bituminous coal operators and the United Mine Workers began actual bargaining negotiations for a new contract today.

Division Reported In Cabinet At Tehran

TEHRAN (AP)—Ahmed Qavam Es Salameh's three votes as Premier, Minister of the Interior and Foreign Minister appeared today to have forced the decision of the State Department office of Middle Eastern Affairs, and said afterwards he was seeking information.

Hungarian Nazis Are Strangled

BUDAPEST (AP)—Three Hungarian Nazis were strangled today—the legal method of hanging in Hungary—a week after former Premier Ferenc Szalasi was executed in the same manner.

Swallows Return To Old Mission

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, CALIF.—A flock of swallows began descending on Mission San Juan Capistrano early today, fulfilling an ancient legend which says they will return every year on St. Joseph's Day.

Workers Ratify Terms Union Approves GM Agreement

DETROIT (AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers today announced ratification of the national agreement with General Motors which followed the 113-day nationwide strike against GM plants.

Sl.65 Per Pair Solon's Sad Story Of Sleazy Shorts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dignified members of the House Banking and Currency Committee now know all about the serious shorts shortage at the home of Representative Jesse P. Wolcott, Republican, Michigan.